Important note from the Publishers

This book was published in this format to meet the needs of particular readers who constantly ask us whether there is a book by Mr. de Lafayette, which summarizes condensed information about alien UFOs vis-à-vis American UFOs and man-made UFOs, and an interaction between aliens, governments and the general public, because they could not afford to buy the dozens of books Mr. de Lafayette wrote on these subjects, and did not have the resources and time to find pertinent information scattered over thousands of pages of previously published books and encyclopedias.
View under this light, the present work should not be considered a repetitious publication, or a book of recycled information.
Thus, it is advisable before you purchase this book to read its table of contents online or at amazon.com, and compare it with tables of contents of previously published books.

Introduction

There is no doubt in my mind that UFOs/USOs are real, and the existence of extraterrestrials are de facto a cosmic reality.
However, not every single unknown flying object is sine dubio an alien aircraft, and events that defy our understanding of the universe, and challenge human common sense, wisdom and logic should be attributed to extraterrestrials.

The critical, alert, and intelligent human mind should accept all possibilities, explore unchartered territories, and dare to think outside the box, since what illustrious and pioneering scientists, thinkers, theorists, mathematicians, and educators of yesteryears believed in, has been entirely reconsidered today, re-evaluated, and in some instances ridiculed, and removed from sciences' books.

As humanity reaches a higher level of awareness, knowledge and scientific accomplishments, and as planet Earth's technology and science progress day by day, and inch by inch, our views, perceptions, theories, ideas, and understanding of the cosmos should consequently expand, and new horizons of the universe's perception and comprehension must extend beyond the rigid frontiers of a stagnant Globe of the past.

Some of planet Earth and human past history's greatest, unconditionally accepted, and most influential ideas, beliefs, practices, and teachings in social ethics, sciences, philosophy, sociology, religion, theology, anthropology and even juridical sciences and law proved to be wrong.

Despite their quasi advanced knowledge of astronomy, the early Greeks, Babylonians and Sumerians believed that Earth is flat. Theologians, bishops, popes, and some of the brightest minds of the early Western and Eastern Church believed that Earth is the center of the universe. Even some of Albert Einstein and Stephen Hawking's theories are embarrassingly wrong.

To claim that extraterrestrials don't exist, aliens never visited Earth, we are alone in the universe, and UFOs of any kind are not real, is a disturbing and dangerous arrogance, and an alarming hypocrisy.

To claim that aliens' UFOs cruise our skies ad infinitum, all UFOs' sightings are real, alien abduction is a regular occurrence, every single gigantic monument of the past is built by ancient aliens, and anything science and modern technology can't yet explain, is extraterrestrial in origin Is a major insult to our intelligence, a disgraceful ignorance par excellence, and an absolute stupidity, should I call it O sancta simplicitas!!

In order to discern between what is real and what is not, what is based upon historical and scientific veracity, and what is a pure and phantasmagoric fabrication and the product of stupidity, lies, and ignorance of mankind's history, culture, religions, art and civilizations, we have divided this work into two parts: Part 1: Leave the Aliens Alone!!UFOs Are Not Extraterrestrial ascertains the veracity of man-made UFOs; there are no alien spacecrafts here, and no extraterrestrials piloting flying saucers.
Part 2: YES! Extraterrestrials Were Here And Alien UFOs Are Real In Certain Instances validates the existence of aliens we are aware of via our government's disputed but documented meetings with some alien species, even though, such encounters, meetings and entretiens are an extreme rarity. And to shed light on the absolute truth of unquestionable aliens spacecrafts' crashes, even though only one bona fide alien UFO's crash occurred in modern time.

Scandalous ignorance, and bogus translations of ancient texts!

First of all, forget all about the childish and idiotic theories, statements, and claims you hear about the Anunnaki, ancient aliens and ancient astronauts, coming from some TV shows hosts, and conspiracy theorists, because they don't know!
And why they don't know?
Because they can't read and can’t understand the Mesopotamian tablets referring to the Anunnaki written in Sumerian, Akkadian, and Assyrian.
Some very well-known authors, and ufologists are unfamiliar with Akkadian, and Sumerian. And since they could not read, and understand the Mesopotamian cuneiform texts (Akkadian, Sumerian, Old Babylonian, Chaldean, Assyrian, etc.) and the cuneiform clay tablets of ancient Iraq, they fabricated fantastic tales, created their own stories, came up with erroneous and bogus translations of ancient texts, and intentionally distorted the truth, for they assumed that the general public is not familiar with dead or ancient languages, and consequently would not notice the difference between the truth and their fabrication.
Thus, readers, fans, followers, thousands of websites, a fleet of ufologists, TV show hosts and producers who are not familiar with those ancient languages were misled; they took their words and fake translations for granted. Despite their total ignorance of dead and ancient languages many ufologists and advocates of the ancient aliens and ancient astronauts theorists always referred to, and used bogus translation and false info as reference and foundation for their elaborate theories.

Authors who claim to be so-called experts on the Anunnaki and Sumerian language, and their duped followers could not check historic and linguistic sources in the original Sumerian, Assyrian, and Akkadian languages, because they were written in languages they couldn't read, couldn't write, and couldn't understand!
This was a big and irreparable mistake.
Even their translation of the Word "Anunnaki" is outrageously wrong and shows their ignorance of the Akkadian and Sumerian languages.
Those theorists, every host of a TV show on aliens and UFOs, and every website on UFOs and Anunnaki define the Anunnaki as follows: 1- "Those who from heaven to earth came" or

2- "Those who came to earth from above."

These definitions are WRONG, because they do not define the word Anunnaki, but refer to where they came from. If you want to define "New Yorker", you would -I assume- simply say, a person who is from New York, as simple as that. You do not say, "Those who George Washington sent from Virginia to New York" or "those who from the mountains or the plains of Georgia to New York came."

These two false definitions have been circulated by ancient aliens and ancient astronauts' theorists and unfortunately blindly accepted by the masses, because of their lack of knowledge of Akkadian-Sumerian-Old Babylonian languages.

The Akkadian word Anunnaki is composed of two words:

- a-Anunna, which means the entirety of the gods (All the gods and goddesses of Mesopotamia).
- b-Ki, which means Earth, and the underworld, the netherworld, and the world of death.

Thus, the correct definition of the word Anunnaki is: Gods of Earth and/or gods of the underworld.

The Akkadian/Sumerian Anunnaki word is used in a plural form to represent the deities of heaven and Earth, called Anunna in Sumerian and Akkadian.

Later on in history, and in order to differentiate between the Anunnaki and the Igigi, the scribes called the Anunnaki, the gods of Earth (Ki), also gods of the netherworld, and the Igigi, gods of heaven.

This differentiation is very clear in all the Mesopotamian clay tablets, particularly in the Ishtar Descent to the Underworld (Ki), the poem/myth of Gilgamesh, the Enuma Elish, etc…

Thus, their definition of the Anunnaki as "Those who from heaven to earth came" is an absolute NONSENSE!

Please refer to section: "Race 1: The Anunnaki", page 210.
And Item#5. Definition of the word Shumu" on page 20.

It's the extraterrestrials!
It is a UFO from another world. Really?

According to a great number of ufologists, ufology's fanatics, and some ancient astronauts/ aliens' theorists, any event, occurrence and incident, science can't fully explain, and our mind can't fully grasp, must be the doing of extraterrestrials!
Have you noticed how some producers and hosts of TV shows on aliens, ancient astronauts, extraterrestrials and UFO present and explain their case and idiotic theories?
First and almost always, they start their shows and statements by asking questions such as:
1- "Is it possible that aliens did this or did that…etc…etc…"
2- "What if extraterrestrials from….. did this or that….?"
Or,
3-"Does this or that (Picture, carving, a letter or a symbol on ancient Egyptian, Indian, Mayan, African inscription, figurine, slab, etc.) represent ancient astronauts, UFOs, extraterrestrial flying machines and alien technology?" Of course it does, they add! Have you noticed that they always ask wild and silly questions, followed by an avalanche of irrational claims and absolutely ridiculous assumptions, thus misleading themselves and the public, instead of giving rational or at least reasonably intelligent explanations to what they are theorizing about?

In their minds, everything we do not fully understand, anything science cannot fully explain, and any mysterious and unfamiliar aspect or facet of ancient civilizations Is always the product of extraterrestrials!!
Every time there is something which cannot be explained and/or understood rationally, they rush to say: The extraterrestrials did it.
Who built this ancient Hindu temple?
Their answer: The aliens did!
Whose skull is this one?
Their answer: An alien's skull!
What does this sign, carving, picture or illustration on an Egyptian slab mean?

Their answer: Ancient aliens' spacecraft; a chopper!
What is this gadget?
Their answer: OH! This one? Alien technology!
Why this soil is too dark?
Their answer: The aliens were here and they dropped an atomic bomb.
Why the forehead of the Pharaoh is elongated?
Their answer: He is part alien.
Why Martha looks funnier than Thelma?
Their answer: The Grays worked on her.
Why Elmer has a lump under his skin?
Their answer: Don't you know? It's an alien implant.
Why and how the German SS officers knew about anti-gravity flying saucers?
Their answer: They are aliens in disguise!
Rubbish! Idiotic! An insult to our intelligence!
Really embarrassing to the ufology community! And yet, they are still on the air, on the tube, and entering our living rooms every single week!!

Outrageous claims!! How can an intelligent and rational person take some ufologists and especially ancient aliens and ancients astronauts' theorists seriously, when:

1-They claim that Stonehenge (Site and stones) were built by ancient aliens as a station to refuel their UFOs! You probably heard this on their TV show.
2-Atlantis was not a continent but a huge alien spacecraft…it did not sink but flew away!!! You probably heard this on their TV show.

3-They claim that Queen Elizabeth, President George W. Bush, Prince Charles, and Hilary Clinton are reptilians!

4-They claim that ancient aliens came to Earth to mine gold, and later on to use it to patch the atmosphere of Nibiru, in order to save their planet from a cosmic catastrophe! And to add alarming insult to injury, they claim that it was written in the Sumerian tablets. Nowhere in any Sumerian, Akkadian, Babylonian or Assyrian tablet, such a claim exists!

More on this subject in item #23.

5-They claim that ancient aliens/ancient astronauts bombarded Earth with atomic rockets and missiles called Shumu as mentioned in the Sumerian tablets.
First, no such claim exists anywhere in the Sumerian, Akkadian, and Assyrian tablets. It is their own fabrication and a disgraceful lie.
Second, because they could not read or understand Sumerian and Akkadian, little did they know that the words Shumu and/or Shamu in Assyrian and Sumerian do not mean rocket or missiles at all.
The word Shamu in Akkadian, Assyrian, and Sumerian means: a-The sky.
b-The heaven.
Samamu (Shamanu) in Akkadian.
Samuu (Shamuu) in Akkadian.
Samamu (Shamanu) in Assyrian.
Shmayya in contemporary Assyrian Eastern dialect.
Shayo in contemporary Assyrian Western dialect.
Sama in Arabic.
Shama in Phoenician.
Sham in Phoenician.
Sham in Ugaritic.
Shamu in Ugaritic.
Cennet in Turkish.
Sema in Turkish.
Shamu (Šamu) and Shumu ((Šumu) in Akkadian, Sumerian, and Assyrian also means: A name.
Shim in Syriac.
Shim in Chaldean.
Shumu (Šumu) in Sumerian.
Shumu (Šumu) in Akkadian.
Shumu (Šumu) in Ugaritic.
Sham in Hebrew.
Ism in Arabic.
Ismu in Arabic.
Esm in Farsi (Persian).

Shmu in Phoenician.
Isim in Turkish.
Not to confound it with the Akkadian, Assyrian, Arabic, Turkish, Ugaritic, Phoenician, and Sumerian words:
Sumerian word Shamu (Šamu).
Shmaya, in contemporary Assyrian Eastern dialect.
Shayo in contemporary Assyrian Western dialect.
Shmo in contemporary Assyrian Western dialect.
Sama in Arabic.
Sema in Turkish.
Shama and Sham in Phoenician.
Sham and Cham'u in Ugaritic.
Shamau in Akkadian.
And Shamau in Assyrian which mean sky, and heaven.
Shamu (Šamu) in Akkadian, Sumerian, and Assyrian also means: Fame, reputation, and a reference made to location (s) of cities, districts, and provinces.

6-They claim that the "saucers" Mr. Kenneth Arnold saw flying over Mount Rainier in the Cascades, in Washington State were aliens' UFOs. What Arnold saw was a formation of the German Horten 229. More on this subject on page 118. Section: Kenneth Arnold Saga.

7-They claim that the Nazca lines in Peru are runways for extraterrestrial and alien UFOs.
Well, the anti-gravity flying machines and spacecrafts of highly advanced civilizations don't need runways. They can land and take off vertically. Besides, those Nazcas lines are less than three feet wide. How could an extraterrestrial spaceship possibly land on a 3 foot-wide runway?

7-They claim that circles drawn around the heads of prehistoric figures, cavemen and ancient people on caves' walls represent astronauts' helmets from outer-space.

8-They claim that the drawings of lines above the skulls of cavemen, found on the walls of prehistoric caves represent the antennas (antennae) of extraterrestrial visitors.

9-They claim that the Egyptian drawing of a triangular object topped with the beak of a bird represents an alien airplane.

10-They claim that the Pit of Oak Island is where the Ark of Covenant is hidden by aliens and their cronies.

11-They claim that the Holy Grail is hidden in the basement (the underground) of Rosslyn Chapel.

The interior of Rosslyn Chapel.

Some ufologists and 99.99% of ancient astronauts and ancient aliens theorists claim that the Knights Templar hid the Holy Grail, and other extraterrestrial treasures (Knowledge and objects) in the basement, the underground or the foundation of the Chapel. These are wild and silly assumptions.

Excavations of the Rosslyn Chapel site in the 19th century, as well as recent excavations carried out by Niven St Clair using very advanced fibre optic cameras, and a series of holes drilling beneath the chapel did not find any extraterrestrial link, a Holy Grail, or hidden treasures left by aliens. A short documentary film was made about the scientific excavations. Bottom line: No Holy Grail, no aliens' remains and no extraterrestrial link!

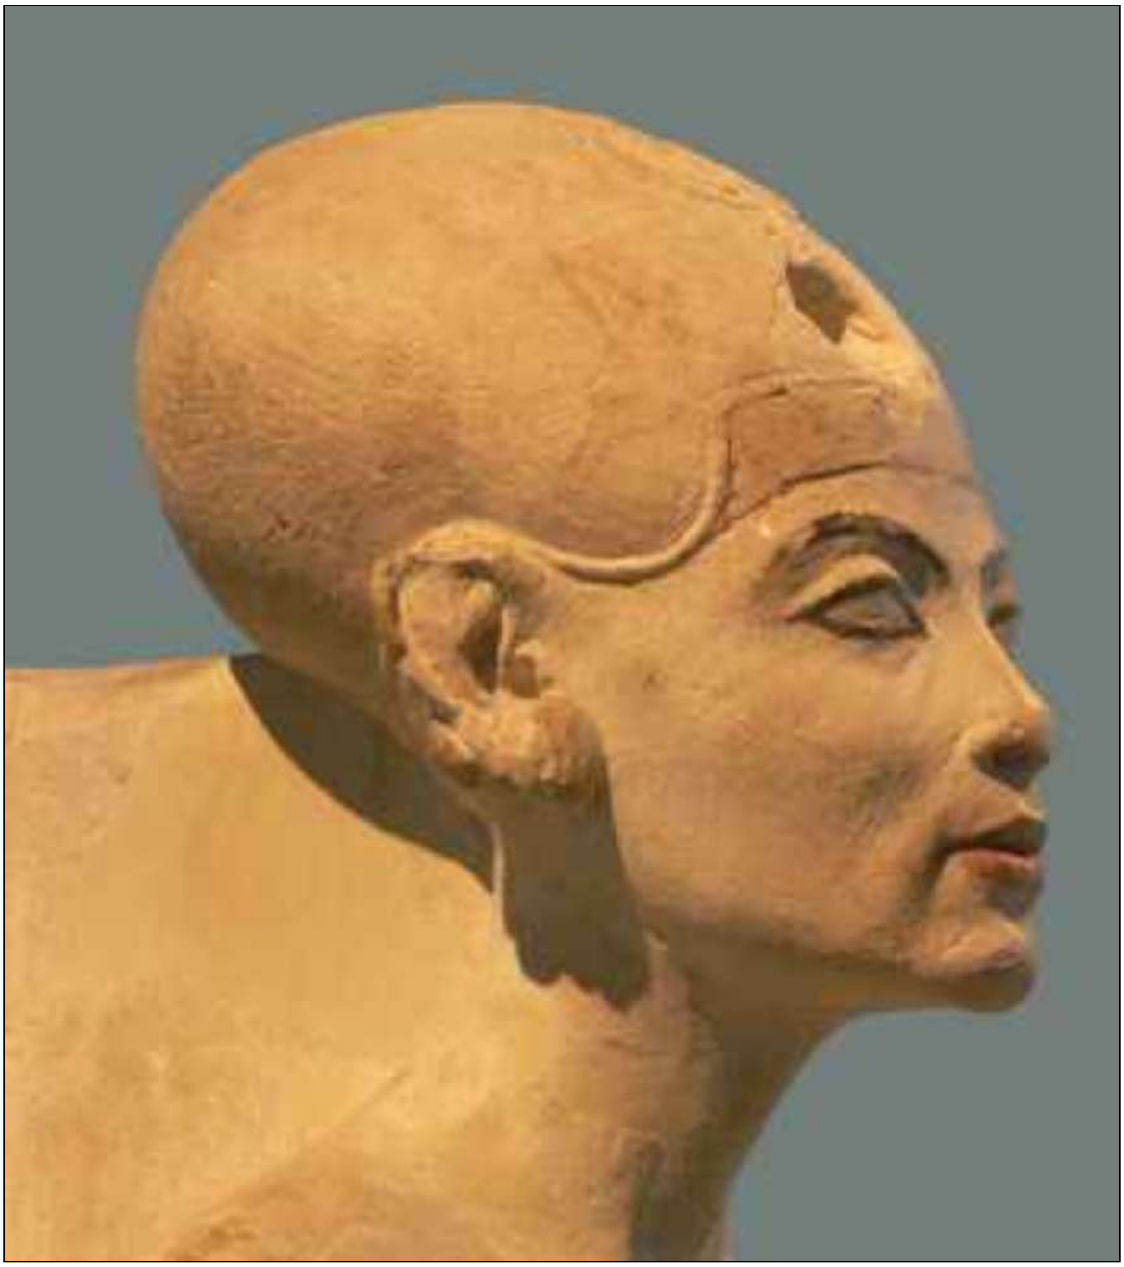
12-They claim that Pharaohs who had deformity in their skulls (Elongated skulls, elongated heads, so on) are alien gods because they had elongated skulls which resembled the skulls of the Grays and the little green men!!

Pharaoh Amenhotep IV.

Amenhotep IV, also known as Akhenaton and Akhenaten was baptized an alien pharaoh by ancient aliens and ancient astronauts theorists, simply because he had an elongated skull!! They attributed the skull (Head) deformation to his divine (Royal) extraterrestrial status (Rank, authority).
Ironically, archeologists in Siberia have found several elongated skulls from the 4th century A.D., and none belonged to a king or to an alien.



Queen Nefertiti’s statue showing an elongated skull.
I can assure you she is not an extraterrestrial!

Drawings of people with elongated skulls and disproportionately large heads were found on the 70 million year old South America’s “Iki” plates or stones. And none of them belonged to a royal, divine or extraterrestrial heritage.

Another famous elongated skull was the Pyatigorsk skull which was found during the excavation of Khasaot burial site nearby Kislovodsk. Vladimir Kuznetsov, PhD. in historical sciences, a world authority in the field and prominent author of many books about the history and archeology of the North Caucasus said, “The skull is part of the culture of the ancient Alani.

Rameses II elongated skull. He was human, not an alien.

Approximately, it dates back to the 3rd – 5th centuries A.D.

These strange skulls appeared at the same time when the Sarmatian and Alani hordes came around. Some of the nomads moved for the North Caucasus in 15th century.” Those “dead” folks were nomads and not divine/extraterrestrial kings.
A great number of elongated skulls of peasants and nomads was discovered by Russian archeologists. Scientists clearly stated that these elongations were a “biological response”, and a “cranial deformation”, and were not caused by a divine or extraterrestrial intervention.
But the ancient astronauts and ancient aliens theorists, as well as many ufologists’ claim that “the ancients wanted to look aliens”, and/or were aliens-humans hybrids, or even real aliens, like the Pharaoh Tutankhamun and Queen Nefertiti.
Southern Malakula’s Ambat also had an elongated head.
And the most elongated skulls were found in Tomman Island, and none of the inhabitants of that island ever heard of aliens or extraterrestrials.
In the megalithic temple of Hal Saflienti located in Malta, we found the remains of people with a huge cranial deformation.

13-They claim that SS Nazi officers are extraterrestrials disguised as humans in German military uniforms.

14-They claim that Queen Elizabeth II, and our former President George W. Bush are reptilians, and suck people’s blood in secret macabre ritual ceremonies.

15-They claim that Zetas and small gray aliens creatures are invading people’s apartments in Manhattan, swamps in Louisiana and cowboys bars, abducting them, lifting them up in the air like sacs of potatoes and throwing them on surgical tables inside UFOs and stuffing their bodies with alien devices, and instructing them to go preach the celestial alien message of love and hope to humanity.

16-They claim that extraterrestrials eat humans’ flesh and drink animals’ blood.

17-They claim that the Nazca Lines in the Nazca Desert in southern Peru are the “marking” of extraterrestrials’ landing; runways for UFOs and aliens’ spaceships?
Don’t you feel offended by those idiotic claims!
Do you really believe that the Nazca lines in Peru are blueprint left by ancient astronauts as claimed by numerous ufologists and aggressively theorized by ancient aliens theorists?
Do you honestly believe that extremely advanced extraterrestrial civilizations need miles upon miles of landing areas bordered by 2 lines and/or a runway to land their spaceships?
Are the aliens still flying DC 3 or DC 4 airplanes?
How about vertical landing and take-off? This should be a child’s game to extraterrestrials!
Why do they need miles upon miles of landing runways to land their crafts?
Have you seen military jets landing on an aircraft carrier?
How long is an aircraft carrier?
The Nimitz-class super carriers have an overall length of 1092 ft (333 meters); enough length (Lines-length) for a super jet fighter to land and take off. So why do the aliens and ancient astronauts need thousands of miles to land their spacecrafts?
Are we more advanced than the aliens?
You got my point!

Nimitz CVN-68 aircraft carrier with an overall length of 1092 ft (333 meters).

Others have claimed that those lines were made by aliens to mark their landing spots, so next time when they return to Earth, they will not get lost!!

Maybe some of the ancient aliens theorists should make it easier on the aliens to find their way around, and give each one of them a Radio Shack GPS (Global Positioning System) gadget. The Nazca lines are simply a map for underground water supplies and scattered wells, similar to thousands of wells found in Bolivia, Chile, Guatemala, Mexico, Syria, Bahrain and Lebanon.

And this was confirmed by scientists, biologists, mineralogists, and archeologists who have studied the Nazca lines located over the underground water reservoirs. Other lines and drawings were of a religious ritual nature, as simple as that. They were created by the inhabitants of the region between 210 B.C. and 650 A.D. There are numerous Nazca geoglyphs-lines types in various areas in South America (Paraguay, Chile and Bolivia).

Don’t you find these statements an insult to your intelligence?

Cubist artists since 1909 in Russia and France used lots of circles and Nazca lines types in their compositions, yet none of them claimed that their circles were ancient aliens’ helmets, and their lines were runways for their gods and muses from 0uter-space!!!

The pampas Nazca Lines.

No relation whatsoever to extraterrestrials!!

Some ancient astronauts, and ancient aliens theorists claimed that these lines were made by extraterrestrials, either as part of their spacecrafts runway, or “Positioning System Marking”, so they would easily recognize and/or remember where they have landed previously.

Have you ever seen any airport’s runway like these overlapping lines? What would happen to airplanes if they had to use such runways? No airplane on earth will ever fly again!!

Nazca Lines are not made by extraterrestrials as claimed by ancient aliens theorists.
They are simply a net-map for underground water supplies, and other lines are of a religious (Ritual) nature, as confirmed by archeologists, scientists, and scholars.

18-They claim that Nibiru is the 12th Planet! No, it is not!
The Anunnaki (Anu.Na.Ki) and their offspring (2 categories/2 classes) came to Earth from Ash.Ta.Ri (Aldebaran) constellation as exactly Maria Orsic, the Anunnaki Ulema have said, and as mentioned in various archaic Middle Eastern and Near Eastern inscriptions. Is there any passage, any line, any reference in the Enuma Elish “Epic of Creation”, the “Epic of Gilgamesh”, and/or any Akkadian/Sumerian clay tablets, mentioning Nibiru as the 12th planet? None whatsoever!

There are no records to that effect in the ancient Assyrian, Akkadian, Sumerian, Babylonian and Mesopotamian texts.
The Akkadian/Sumerian scribes used the word Nibiru, more correctly Ne.Be.Ru as a name for Jupiter, and later on, referred to Mercury as Nibiru.
Even their god, the mighty Anunnaki Marduk was called Nibiru.

Where do we find the word Nibiru (Ne.Be.Ru) in the Sumerian, Akkadian and Assyrian Tablets?
1-In the Epic of Enuma Elish, Tablet 7, Lines 124, 125
Akkadian/Sumerian text (Transliteration):
d Ne.be.ru ne.be.re-et same, u erseti lu tamehma
Translation:
Let him be the holder of the crossing of heavens and earth.
Note: “Let him” means Nibiru and Marduk.
And Mercury and Jupiter were associated with god Marduk.
This is documented in the epic of “Enuma Elish”, in Tablet VII, lines: 126,130,131.
It is also translated by some Assyriologists as follows:
Let Nibiru be the marker “Holder” of Heaven and earth crossing place.
Note: “Same” (Pronounced Shameh) means heaven.
Sama in Arabic. Shem in Phoenician, Shama in Ulemite.
Shamayim in Hebrew; a plural form meaning heights.
“erseti” means Earth. Other words: Ersetu, Erdsetu.
Erd (Ard) in Arabic. Heretz (Eretz) in Hebrew. Erda in Ulemite.

2. Neberu also appeared in lines 130 and 131.
Akkadian/Sumerian text (Transliteration):
d Ne.be.ru kakkabu- su sa ina same usupuu
Translation:

“Ne.Be.Ru is his star, which he made appear in the heavens.”
Also translated as follows: “Nibiru is his star which in heavens made it appear.”
Note: “His star” refers to Marduk.

3. Also in the Epic of Enuma Elish, Tablet 5, Line 6.
Here is the text:
usarsid man-zadaz
d Ne.Be.Ru ana uddu-urik-si-suun
Translation:
He promptly set the position (Place) of Nibiru to fix their limits (Frontiers, boundaries).
Or
He created the station of Nibiru to determine their bounds.
Note:
He, refers to Markuk.
Their, refers to planets or stars.
Interesting information in the following lines:
8. He (Marduk) fixed the station of Bel and Ea along with him.
9. He opened great gates (Ba’abs) on both sides.

4. In Tablet 7, Line 109.
Let his name be Nibiru, the capturer of the midst.
Note: His name, means Marduk.
Also in Tablet 7, Line 126.
Translation of the Akkadian/Sumerian text: “The stars of heaven, let him set their course; let him shepherd all the gods like sheep.”
Note: “Let him” refers to Ne.Be.Ru.

In the Sumerian/Akkadian texts, we found this line:
“Nebarti Asshur.”
Meaning: “The Crossing Point of Asshur.”
Note: Asshur “Assur” was an ancient Mesopotamian-Babylonian-Assyrian city.
In another passage, we found this line:
“ina Abani nibiru uchaduu.”

Meaning: To “have cut off the crossing way of the river Abani.”
Note: This passage refers to the Elamites.
Reference: The Epic of Gilgamesh.
Text from the Epic: “Straight is the crossing point, and narrow is the way that leads to it.”

The Akkadian and Sumerian word Ne.Bi.Rim means crossing.
Akkadian/Sumerian text (Transliteration):
shiqil kaspum sha ne.bi.rim.
Translation: Silver paid for the crossing.
Meaning: A fee was paid for a person who transports people, across the waters.
Ne.bi.rim as a word, means crossing.
Nebiri as a verb, means to cross something or cross over.

In 1902, L.W. King provided us with the following translation of Tablets 5 and 7 of the Enuma Elish “Epic of the Creation”:

In the Fifth Tablet we read:

He (Marduk) made the stations for the great gods;
The stars, their images, as the stars of the Zodiac, he fixed.
He ordained the year and into sections he divided it;
For the twelve months he fixed three stars.
After he had … the days of the year … images,
He founded the station of Nibiru (the planet Jupiter) to determine their bounds;
That none might err or go astray,
He set the station of Bel and Ea along with him.
He opened great gates on both sides,
He made strong the bolt on the left and on the right.
In the midst thereof he fixed the zenith;
The Moon-god he caused to shine forth, the night he entrusted to him.
He appointed him, a being of the night, to determine the days; In the Seventh Tablet, we read:
He (Marduk) named the four quarters of the world, mankind he created,

The Creator of the earth.
May he hold the Beginning and the Future, may they pay homage unto him, Saying, "He who forced his way through the midst of Tiamat without resting,
Let his name (Marduk) be Nibiru, “the Seizer of the Midst!”
For the stars of heaven he upheld the paths,
He shepherded all the gods like sheep!
He conquered Tiamat, he troubled and ended her life,"
In the future of mankind, when the days grow old,
May this be heard without ceasing; may it hold sway forever!
Since he created the realm of heaven and fashioned the firm earth.

Mul.Apin:
Here is the text (Transliteration):
Kima kakka-bu sut $_{d}$Enlil ugdammiruni isten kakkabu
Rabu sessu da mat same ustamsalma izzaz kakkab
$_{D}$ Amar.Ud Ne.Be.Ru sagme. gar mamzassu
Ittanakkir same ibbir
Translation:
When the stars of Enlil were completed (Finished)
One star with big dim light, he (Enlil) divides the heaven (Sky) in half and stands there
That is the star (of Marduk) Ne.Be.Ru Jupiter which keeps Changing its position and traverses the Heaven (Sky).

Note: The last two lines: sagme.gar mamzassu Ittanakkir same ibbir. The text seems to tell us that Nibiru did cross the sky! Is it a contradiction, or simply, the two lines meant that Nibiru was rotating around another star? The Akkadian/Sumerian texts do not provide any explanation.
The Anunnaki and the Anunnaki Ulema identified Aldebran (Ash.Ta.Ri) as their constellation, and Ne.Be.Ru as a crossing point to other dimensions.
Linguistically speaking (Epistemologically and etymologically), the Arabic words of “Aldebaran”, “Abirun”, the Arabic verbs, “Abara”, “Abra”, the Sumerian-Akkadian word “Ne.bi.rim”, and the Ana’kh/Ulemite words “Ashtari Aldebaran barazat Ne.Be.Ru” refer in essence to the very same thing: Aldebaran (The Constellation of Ashtari) home of Maria Orsic Alderbaran’s extraterrestrials and Anunnaki.

19-They claim that the Mayan sculpture in Tikal, Guatemala represent an alien astronaut. They claim that this sculpture (shown below) is a depiction of an astronaut wearing a space helmet.
They are wrong.
Check ancient Phoenician art found in Tyre (modern day Sour), Sidon (modern day Saida), Byblos (modern day Jbeil), Ugarit and Amrit artifacts, Carthaginian statues and figurines, plates and slabs from Dilmun (modern day Bahrain), and you will find plenty of similar artifacts.

A Mayan sculpture in Tikal, Guatemala. This is not an ancient astronaut’s helmet, but an ornamental hat used in ritual ceremonies. Even Native Americans and several African tribes used almost identical so-called helmet!!

The sarcophagus or coffin of K’inich Janahb Pakal, circa 603-683 AD, discovered in the Temple of Inscriptions in Mexico, 1952.

20-They claim that the Mayan sarcophagus or coffin of K’inich Janahb Pakal, depicts an ancient astronaut flying an extraterrestrial rocket.

The truth is this: The original illustration of the sarcophagus (Which was doctored by them) represents Pascal, a Mayan ruler with the Quetzal bird. They intentionally camouflaged the bird to hide the true meaning, which is a scene of a Mayan ruler with Quetzal bird situated between two worlds; the world of the afterlife, and the world of the living.

This scene represents the rising of the Sun God suspended on a cross made from corn plants, which to the Mayan people meant fertility. But because they were unable to read pertinent Mayan inscriptions, and because they are not familiar with the history of traditions and religious symbols of the Mayans, they interpreted Pascal as an alien pilot and the cross as an extraterrestrial UFO!!

21-They claim that the Eastern Island monolithic stones were carved and moved by ancient aliens.

Eastern Island monolithic stone statue (Mo’ai of Rapa Nui).

Ancient astronauts’ theorists claim that the inhabitants of the island did not have the means or the technology to transport these massive stones. And the people who lived there, centuries ago, did not have wood and ropes needed for the construction and transportation of the statues. Their claims show their lack of knowledge of the ancient history of the island.

Archeology and history of the island tell us that the island was covered with trees, but unfortunately they were totally cut to make room for agriculture. And the inhabitants were capable of cutting and transporting those massive statues.

In fact, in 1955, Norwegian explorer, Thor Heyerdahl saw with his own eyes how natives of the island used archaic tools to cut new statues of the same size, and how only 180 men moved one huge statue to its destined place without any problem; they used different kinds of ropes to drag the massive statue.
And it required only 12 men to elevate the statue using round and rectangular rocks and strong wooden legs.
It took them only 11 months to complete the whole project.

Summary of findings in one short line:
99% of ancient astronauts and ancient aliens theorists don't "understand even the rudiments of geology, mythology, psychology, chemistry, astronomy, and physics." (Ostriker 1973, p. 239).
They think that our ancestors are dummies, and aliens were all over planet Earth building humanity's greatest edifices, and nothing of any historical significance was ever accomplished without the interference of ancient aliens and ancient astronauts!

22-Spheres, clouds, circles and globes in medieval religious art, Renaissance art and classic Italian paintings are UFOS! Ancient aliens, ancient astronauts theorists, numerous ufologists, and thousands of ignorami who post all sorts of things on their UFOs websites, without any familiarity with classic painting and art history insist that the symbolic and religious motifs such as a dove, a fish, a circle of light, and globes (which are a metaphoric expression of the Church) ARE aliens' spaceships!!
I wrote extensively on the subject.
Please read on the next pages a scanned article of mine published in "Art, UFOs and Supernatural Magazine". And please pay attention to enlarged sections of classical and religious paintings, which are the center of their claims.
The article has a strong emphasis on: Their total ignorance of art history, meaning of symbolism in the early Christian Church, how a cardinal's hat was interpreted as a UFO, The Annunciation painting by Crivelli, and The Eucharisty Painting by Salimbeni.

Total Ignorance of Art History

Ancient aliens theorists, ancient astronauts theorists and a great number of ufologists have claimed that UFOs and their occupants the extraterrestrials, have appeared in many classical art and religious paintings. They are wrong. Their claim show two things: Total ignorance of history of art in general, and classical art and religious art in particular. In many instances, and intentionally, they published on their websites and showed on their TV show, fuzzy and unclear photos of paintings they alleged they contained clear drawings of UFOs. But if you blow up the pictures, and enlarge the sections or parts of the painting they claim that they show an UFO, you will see that no UFO and no extraterrestrials appear anywhere. And all those who saw the original paintings in the Vatican, the Louvre and other museums came to the same conclusion: No UFOs! No extraterrestrials! Case closed.

Ignorance of the meaning of symbolism in the early Christian paintings

A few examples.

1-Celestial bodies around the cross:

Those who have studied the history of Byzantine art, know very well that the early Christian Orthodox paintings (Byzantine) of the crucifixion always contained similar celestial objects such as the Sun and the Moon. And usually are depicted on both sides of the cross. And in many instances, those celestial objects take on a human physical form. This is what me might call, the style of the era. The ancient aliens and ancient astronauts theorists don't know that, for they interpret those celestial objects as extraterrestrial UFOs! Any person who is familiar with the artistic symbolism of ancient religious paintings knows very well what these objects represent. They are lucky, they didn't live at the time those artists painted their frescos and paintings.

2-The globes:

The globes (or large circular objects) as illustrated in classical art and religious paintings were interpreted by ancient aliens theorists, ancient astronauts theorists, and numerous ufologists as extraterrestrial UFOs.

Little did they know that "Globes" were the artist and the Church religious representation of the "Globe of Creation", and the "Celestial Sphere". The globe illustration appeared in numerous paintings and all referred to the very same thing. It was the traditional and most common way to illustrate and represent the Church's view. The Globes do not depict UFOs!!

3-Celestial objects around the cross, and faces of people inside a circle:

Some Byzantine icons, miniatures and frescos contained small illustrations of faces inside a circle or a ball of fire. Ancient aliens theorists, and ancient astronauts theorists interpreted circles as UFOs, and faces inside the circles as aliens flying those UFOs.

It is absolutely ridiculous. They know nothing about the religious symbolism and artistic expression/representation of the era. If you read in Greek, the explanation of these balls of fire and the faces inside the balls by the historians and artists of the era, you will find out that: a-The bright circle represent the Sun, and the redemption of mankind. b-The dark circle represent the dark side of the Moon. Placed face to face, the two circles illustrate man's fight on the road of salvation and his redemption through Jesus Christ death and resurrection. There is no relation here with UFOs. But somebody has to know Byzantine art to understand this religious symbolism and art expression of the era. In addition to the Christian Orthodox explanation, we have an older version of the explanation of ancient icons, and it goes like this:

The two objects (Globes) around the cross represent two witnesses for the crucifixion, and the mystery of Jesus death; The Sun and the Moon, because they are the strongest and the brightest celestial bodies.

In this context and according to the early Doctors of the Church, the Sun symbolizes Jesus Christ, and the Moon represents the Holy Church. And the faces inside the objects give a human property to the two cosmic witnesses. It is the abstract espousing religious symbolism. However, this abstract expression was not totally abstract, for the Sun and the Moon were depicted in numerous Christian paintings are real people (Humans not aliens) pushing forward two chariots as seen in the 11th century book "Libro delle Pericopi di Enrico II".

There is absolutely no relation between any style of Byzantine art, Renaissance art, religious painting and UFOs!

A Cardinal's hat becomes a UFO!!

Look at the painting on the left.
Many ufologists and almost all ancient aliens and ancient astronauts theorists claim that what you see on the lower right side of this painting is a UFO. They are wrong.
They are mistaken because they are not familiar with the early religious (Catholic) arts, and especially the various phases of the Italian religious art, and the frescos of the Vatican.
So, let me prove to you step-by-step, how ignorant they are. First, let's talk about this painting. It is called "Scene di vita eremitica" (Scene of hermitic life), by Paolo Uccello.
The painting you are looking at is an enlarged section taken from the original painting of Uccello.

See full size of the painting below.
"Scene of hermitic life", by Paolo Uccello.

Section taken from the painting.

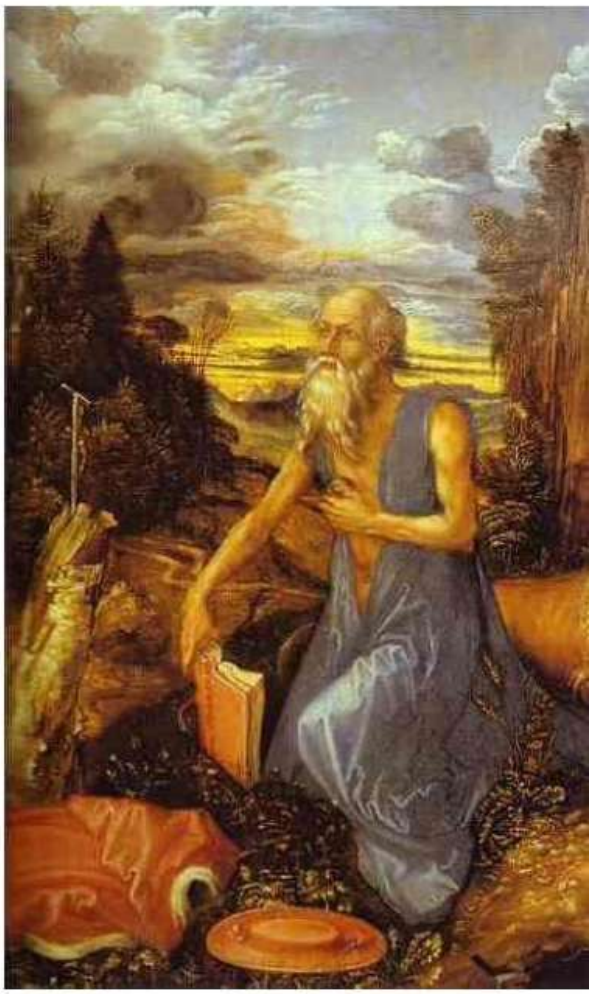
This enlarged section, always from the same painting reveals that the red circular object on the lower right is not a UFO, but simply the hat of a Roman Catholic Cardinal.

Left: The person who is kneeling before Jesus on the cross is St. Jerome, himself a Cardinal.

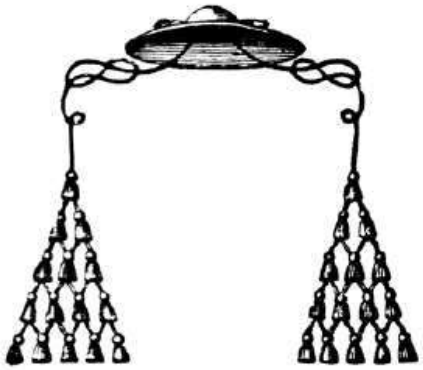
St. Jerome renounced his title as Cardinal and relinquished all the powers and privileges bestowed upon him and his title by becoming a hermit. This fact is documented by the Vatican as well as in books on the history of St. Jerome and a multitude of books and writings on the saints of the Catholic Church.
St. Jerome's renunciation is clearly depicted by the red hat of a Cardinal thrown on the floor as illustrated in the painting. And has nothing to do with an extraterrestrial UFO!! The theme of St. Jerome's renunciation was also depicted in several paintings by other Masters of the religious Roman Italian art in the 16th and 17th centuries, and was visibly illustrated in famous paintings by Agnolo Bronzino, Benozzo Gozzoli and Albrecht Dürer.

Another religious painting of St. Jerome after he has renounced his title as a Roman Cardinal. His red Cardinal hat appears on the lower right side of the painting.

Ancient astronauts theorists who did not study Italian religious art and the history of the early Roman Saints interpret the Cardinal's red hat as an alien UFO!!



From left to right: 1-Enlarged section representing the red hat of a Roman Catholic Cardinal; the very same hat St Jerome's wore when he was a Roman Cardinal. As you can see, there is no UFO here!! 2- Painting of "St. Jerome in the Wilderness", by Albrecht Dürer,1495.



The same red circular red hat of a Roman Cardinal (Lower left side of the painting) was painted in numerous paintings to remind us of St. Jerome's renunciation of his position as a Cardinal and his decision to become a hermit.

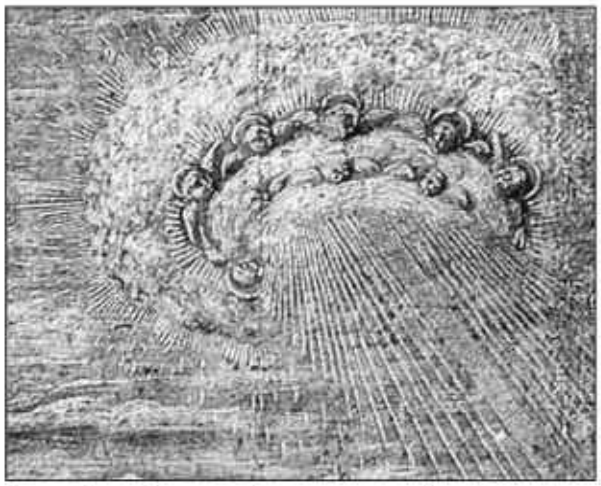
The "Annunciation" Painting" by Crivelli

The Annunciation" by Carlo Crivelli.

Now we look at a painting "The Annunciation" by Carlo Crivelli (left) that was aggressively used by some ufologists, ancient aliens theorists and ancient astronauts theorists to back up their claims that UFOs did appear in ancient religious art. Basically what they did with this painting was reproducing it on their websites and TV shows in an unclear manner, meaning you could not really see what they were talking about. But all those who saw the original painting in a museum could not see any UFO in the painting.

But when the theorists mentioned above published a photo of the painting, intentionally they did not show you an enlarged photo of the whole painting, in order to hide the truth from you. What you see in the ancient aliens and ancients astronauts' theorists reproduction of the original painting is a distortion of the truth, and I am going to prove it to you. They claim that the circular object painted on the upper left side of the painting is a UFO, an alien spaceship.

But when we enlarge the photo of the original painting, or if you are looking at the painting in a museum, you will find out that this object is not a UFO at all. So, let's enlarge the photo of the painting, and find out.

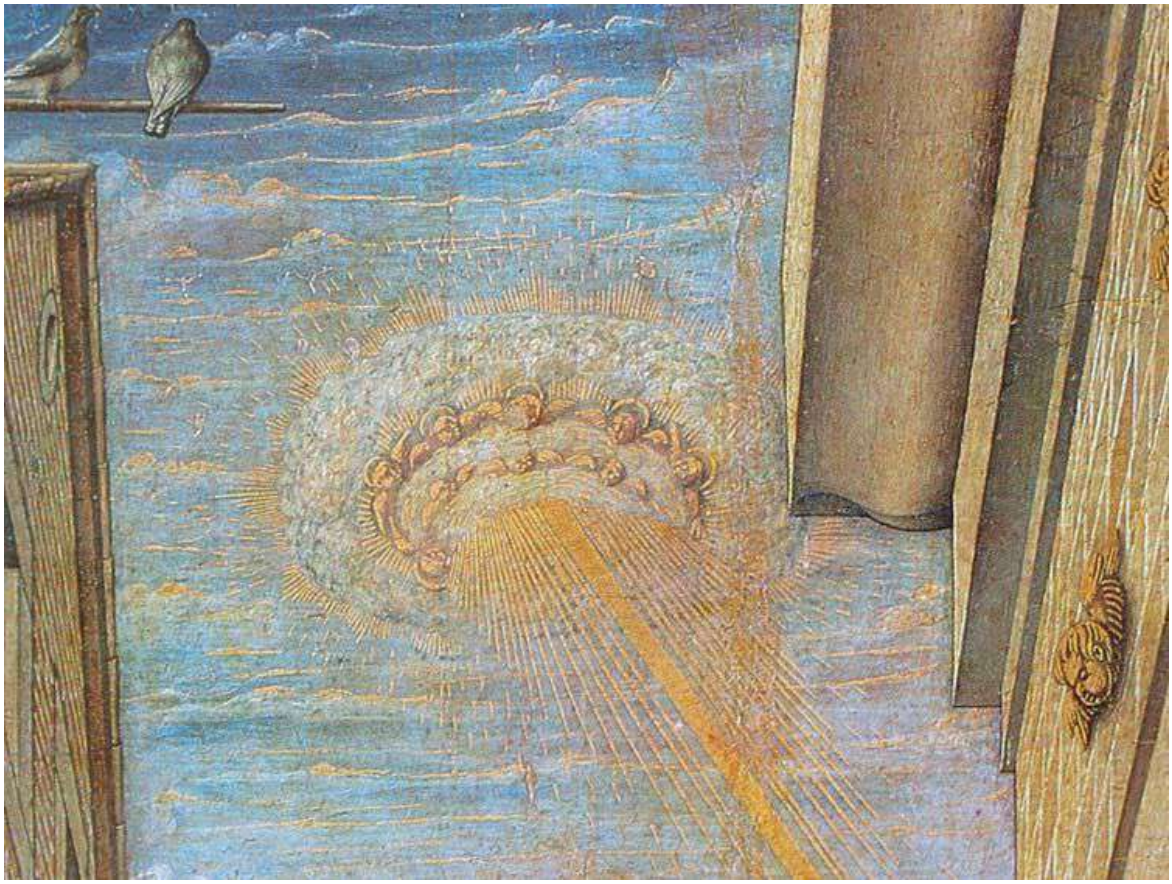


Left: Enlarged section from the original painting. Enlargement of the section containing the so-called UFO. It is not a UFO but a circle of angels with divine rays.

The rays or light emanating from a circle was a visual illustration of divinity in Byzantine Art, early Christian illustrations, Roman art and the Renaissance art.

But in the eyes of ancient astronauts and ancient aliens theorists, this religious illustration is simply a UFO. Yah right, they know better than the artists who painted these masterpieces and the historians of art. This illustration of a circle of light was very common in the work of the Masters throughout the centuries, encompassing the artists of the Armenian Illuminated Manuscripts, the painters of the early epochs of Byzantium art, the Coptic calligraphers and painters, Renaissance Masters, the Syriac scribes and illustrators, etc. Those who have studied Byzantine art would understand what a circle of light means. Historians, experts and students of the arts (painting and architecture) of the Christian era of Constantinople know very well that a circle of light, or an oval form of clouds and lights represent the "Divine Source", "Divinity", and God. In many instances, those circles contained the faces of angels, and were surrounded by bright rays representing the celestial nature of the message.

See on the next page an enlargement of the circle emanating a beam, ancient astronauts and some ufologists interpreted it as a UFO!!

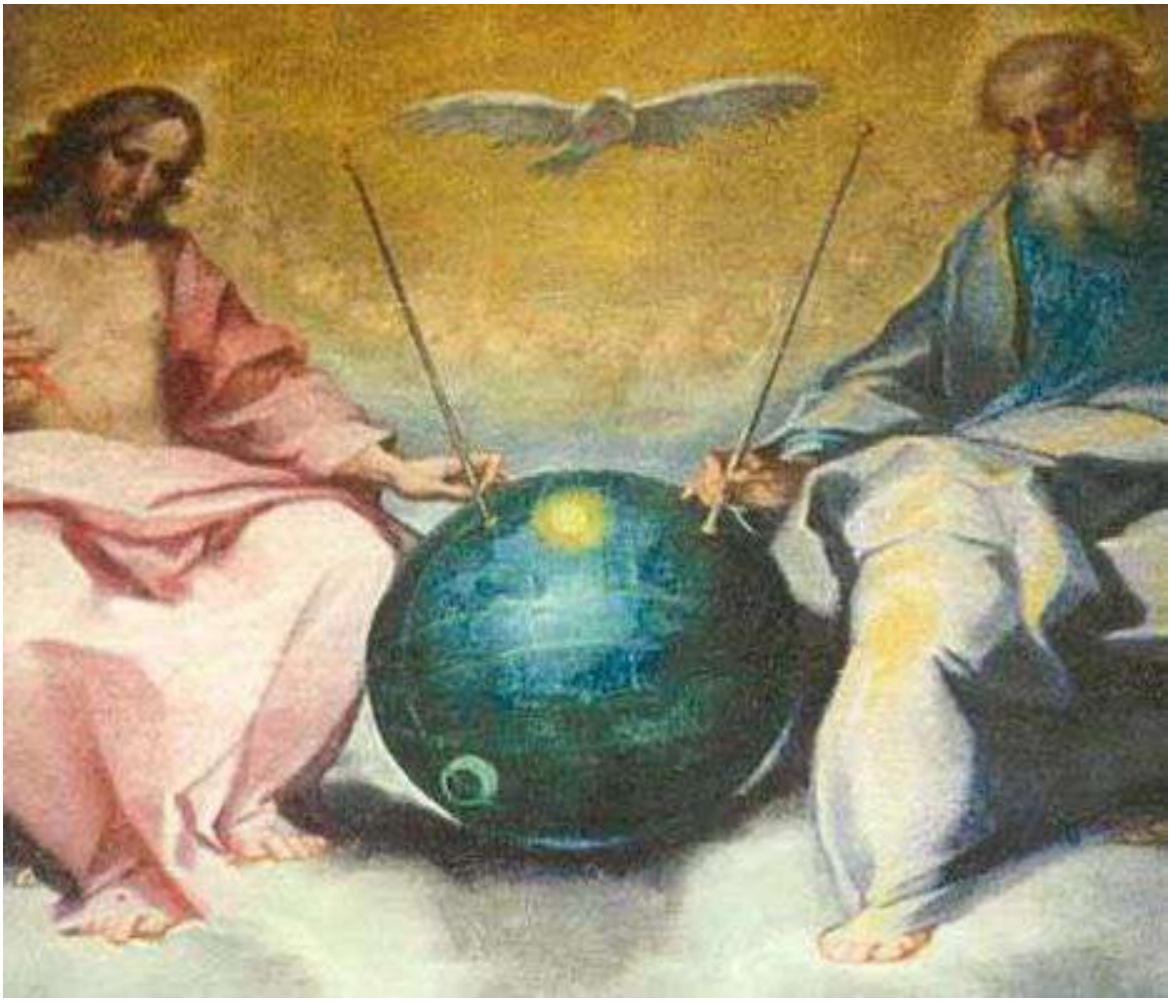


This is not a UFO! But a sphere of divine light/rings of angels! It is simply two circles of angels inside a cloud. See enlargement below.

The Eucharisty Painting of Salimbeni.

Ancient aliens and ancient astronauts' theorists claimed that the globe in the center of this painting is a UFO with 2 antennas (antennae).

They are wrong as usual. Let's blow up the picture and see what we can find out. See next pages, with a pertinent explanation.



Explanation:
The globe is not a UFO, but the terrestrial globe, representing the Creation. And the two rods are not UFOs' antennas (antennae), but rather the Divine Scepters of the Holy Trinity, and God/Jesus authority over the world.

23-They claim that the extraterrestrials (ancient aliens and ancient astronauts) created men (The human race) as slaves in order to mine gold for them, as it was written in the Sumerian tablets. This is utterly false.
There is no such thing, there is absolutely no reference made to such claim in any of the Assyrian, Babylonian-Assyrian, Sumero-Akkadian, and Chaldean clay tablets!
As a linguist who wrote more than 60 books in the field, and 43 volumes encyclopedic dictionaries (Lexicon/Thesaurus) of the ancient languages of Mesopotamia, Asia Minor, the Near East, and the Middle East, and translated the Sumerian, Akkadian, and Assyrian cuneiform clay tablets, I can assure you that the Anunnaki (Ancient aliens/Ancient astronauts) did not create us to mine for gold.

You will find on the following pages my translations of the Sumerian, Akkadian, and Assyrian texts, and tablets, exactly as they were written by the Mesopotamian scribes. According to the ancient texts, we were created to till the land, to farm, to dig ditches, to work the fields (The lands of Mesopotamia), in order to feed the ancient gods; a hard labor which was assigned to the Igigi.
We were created to replace the Igigi! And not to mine gold.

Cover of the dictionary “Sumerian-English Dictionary”, in 4 volumes.

The Mesopotamian texts contradict what ancient aliens and ancient astronauts theorists' claim.

Here is the translation of the original Sumerian texts:
Nintu and Enki plan the creation of the human race (I: 178-220); Enki, rather than Anu, is speaking at this time.
In these versions, Enki reveals his plan for creating the human race. Enki said:
"While Nintu the birth-goddess is here, let her create the offspring...
let man carry the basket of labor of the Anunna (gods)."

Enki and Nintu called the goddess and said to her:
"You are the goddess of birth and the creator of man.
Create for the Gods, the Lulu (man),
Let him bear the yoke, let Lulu carry the basket of labor of the Anunna. "

Important note: The Anunnaki did not come to Earth to mine gold. The Sumero-Akkadian phrase on the Sumerian tablet: "the labor-basket of the gods" means that first humans were created to work the fields and feed the Anuna (Gods), fill up the basket of food, fruits and cereals, and not to mine for gold.

Geshtu-e: The slaughtered Igigi god and the creation of the "First Man".

Geshtu-e is the Akkadian/Sumerian name of the Igigi god whose blood and intelligence were used by the Anunnaki Mami to create the first man.

In the beginning, before men were created, the Anunnaki, (the extraterrestrial gods living on planet Earth), had to till the land and water it to grow their food. And this was hard and extremely demanding labor.
Enlil summoned the Igigi, and asked them to do the job.

The Igigi's revolt:
In addition to cultivating and working the fields in ancient Iraq (Babylon, Sumer), Enlil assigned to the Igigi, the hard tasks of digging trenches, canals, and riverbeds.
And the Igigi kept on doing this hard labor for centuries, until they could not take it anymore. They threw down their tools and went en masse to Ekur, Enlil's citadel at Nippur, to protest this hardship, and to demand immediate relief.

When the Igigi reached the citadel, Enlil ordered Nusku, his doorkeeper, to keep them out of Ekur.
Nusku asked Enlil:
"Why do you fear your sons?
Call the other gods and let t hem help solve this thing."

So Enlil summoned the gods, including Anu and Enki.
Together, they rushed to help Enlil, and stood firm on the ramparts of the citadel, and spoke to the furious Igigi:
"Why are you attacking us?
And the Igigi answered:
"The work you have assigned to us is killing us;
we can no longer bear it.
We have stopped digging the trenches and we are declaring war."

Enki asked the gods for advice, and said to them:
"Why do we blame the Igigi?
Their tasks are too hard.
Goddess Mami is with us.
Let her create human beings to serve us and to do the work of the Igigi.

So we can put the yoke of Enlil on these creatures and let the Igigi return to heaven."

The Anunnaki decided to create humans:
The gods agreed, and asked goddess Mami to create beings to do the work of the Igigi, not to mine for gold.
Mami said:
"It is not wise for me to do all this.
You should choose Enki instead, because he is wise and does things right.
But if he prepares the clay needed to complete the task,
I will create these beings."

Enki replied:
"If we use only clay to create new beings,
they will be like animals, without intelligence.
Instead, we must slaughter one of the gods, to make these creatures capable of bearing Enlil's yoke.
We can mix his flesh and blood with clay to create a Man."

The Anunnaki seized Geshtu-e, and slaughtered him:
The Anunnaki seized Geshtu-e, the Igigi god of wisdom and knowledge, and slaughtered him. As soon as his flesh and blood were mixed with the clay, a Shabbah (Ghost) manifested, and took the shape of a human being.
Mami seized the ghost, and divided him into fourteen pieces, to create seven females and seven males. These creatures were the first prototypes of the human race.

Mami presented her creatures to the Anunnaki, and said:
"I have done everything you have asked.
I have created Man (Men and Women).
And I gave them the faculty of speaking, so they could talk to each other and do the job.

Let each Man choose a wife.
And Ishtar will bless them with healthy children, to fill the whole Earth with generations of servants.”

Note: This is why and how Man was created by the Anunnaki at that time in history. Humans were created to do the Igigi’s hard labor in the fields, and to feed the Anunnaki. And not to mine gold as erroneously claimed by ancient astronauts and ancient aliens theorists, and famous authors in the West!!
The Mesopotamian tablets NEVER, EVER mentioned that the Anunnaki came to planet Earth to mine for gold, or they created humans to mine for gold either!
The Mesopotamian tablets made it clear to us that the Anunnaki created mankind to replace the Igigi who complained constantly because of the heavy agricultural work which included working the fields, digging waters’ canals, irrigation, planting, harvesting, feeding the gods, and an avalanche of other hard physical works at Nippur, the Anunnaki imposed upon them for many years.

AUNTY EDNA & UNCLE ELMER DISCUSSING THE ANCIENT ALIENS TV SHOW

Many of ancient astronauts' theories, accounts and explanations are a farce! And no one has explained it better than Elmer and Edna from the swamps of Louisiana, in their candid chat; here it is: Ask Elmer!

Edna: So happy to see you back old timer.
How was your trip to Peru?

Elmer: Out of this world aunty Edna. I saw everything…all the aliens I could see.

Edna: Get out of here!

Elmer: It is true sugar. They were there jumping and bumping like jambalaya crawfish pies all over the Nazca Lines. But they had some problems.

Edna: What did you do to them? Did you steal their pies?

Elmer: Nope. Nothing like that! It was their damned UFOs! They could not land on those lines, they were too narrow, 2 to 3 feet wide. And their leader was so disoriented. He asked me if I had a GPS.

Edna: Geepee ess? Gee wiz…What is that Elmer? Did you make it up?

Elmer: Global Positioning System. You can get it at Winn Dixie. I told the alien I can get him one. He was pissed off, because the lamas' cows were shitting all over the place, and the poor alien could see no more the lines! He broke my heart. You see the aliens made those lines as runway for their UFOs. Really! I heard it on "Ancient Aliens"…on the history Channel…you know the teevee show.

Edna: Bullshit! Who would say stupid things like that. Are you pulling my legs?

Elmer: I wish Edna, you are still soooo sexy…and I love those skinny legs of yours…bounce with me honeybunch. Well let me tell you what the aliens told me. Are you interested? Great stuff!! They are going to make me a big star yessiree!!

Edna: Have you been drinking this moonshine shit again?
Elmer: Listen sweetheart. I am damned serious. The big head alien told me I am the CHOSEN ONE! And the aliens gave me a message for all the good folks in Louisiana to hear. Reverend Jesse will be proud of me.
Edna: A chosen one, a message, my ass! You barely know how to read. I am out of here!
Elmer: Will you listen…you old tree! The big head alien took me inside their UFO and introduced me to a very nice guy who was kidnapped in California while eating oranges and now lives on planet Zambar Ortis 300 in the Anciento Aliensos Constella-yashen with Huey Long, Johnny Carson, Johnny Cash and Andrew Jackson! A nice man, not bright but a good man, God bless his heart. He introduced himself as George Adamski and he said to me I am a very lucky man because the aliens are going to take me to England, you know the country of Queen Victoria. You bet your gazebo.
Edna: Did you fall on your head or something?
Elmer: Okey dokey don't believe me. Admaski…Adamski knew what he was talking about. He said the aliens were organizing a Pickick…Piclick? Oh I remember the word now Picnic…Picnic to England. There is an old church there and under the church there are treasures, the cross of Jesus, The Ark of Covenant, the Ten Commandments and the Holy Grail.
I know that's true because I heard it on the Ancient Aliens teevee show. Adamski told me the aliens chose a few good folks to go to England and start digging under Rosslyn Chapel. Johnny Carson will be there, Lucy and her husband, Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, Merle Haggard, Waylon Jennings, Mollie B., all the outlaws, Elvis and Tammy Wynette too, Stand by your man…and show the world you love him…
Edna: They are dead knucklehead!
Elmer: They are not dead.
They are alive, but are little bit different now. You see Edna when we leave from here we don't die. The Lord almighty gives us a new body.

And I know that for a fact. I heard it on the teevee.
Edna: Where did you hear this crap?
Elmer: I heard it from Machoo Kashou…no no wait a minute… Michio Kaku that's the name, he teaches in New York, he is a city boy. He said all of us live in different worlds and the Lord made copies of us so he wouldn't forget.
I told Admaski…Adamski I am going. You take care now of my turtle and the truck…you hear?
Edna: You go to the barn and you stay there and take with you Crazy Glue and sit on it. I am going to see Reverend Rodney…he knows what to do with you.
Elmer: Go ahead drive your truck with expired registration, no license plate, no driving license, no insurance, no spare tire, no brakes, no lights, no front seat, no engine…

Elmer in England:
Uncle Elmer is now digging with the 3 stooges in England…there are ETs' treasures in the Rosslyn Chapel basement. The aliens are watching and the stars of "Ancient Aliens" TV Show are reporting live from the basement! Stay tuned, but keep your remote control handy!

Uncle Elmer flew with the aliens to England.
Destination?
Rosslyn Chapel's underground basement and tunnels, where extraterrestrial treasures are buried according to ancient astronauts theorists and the stars of Ancient Aliens TV show. Yah Right!
Before landing on the lot of the Chapel, the UFO hovered over the site of Stonehenge for 50 seconds, and boom kaboum zoomed back into a space-time tunnel toward the Chapel. Elmer asked Adamski what is going on and what are those huge stones. Adamski replied they are refueling. Uncle Elmer asked again, "Refueling what?"…refueling the UFO said Adamski, and added, "This is something I did not know before, even though I have built a few of those babies with Campbell soup cans and Popeye spinach."
Elmer asked, "How did you know they are refueling?"

And Adamski replied, “I learned about it from the Ancient Aliens show…people on the show said the extraterrestrials built the Stonehenge to charge their UFOs, they have to recharge their batteries, they cross the universe to come here and charge their spacecrafts.”
Elmer: “You mean like Leroy’s gas station in Baton Rouge?”
Adamski: “Yes, something like that.”

Elmer was puzzled by the size of the stones and said:
“Gee wiz…man! They are huge.
So the aliens built these monsters?”
Adamski: “Yes, some, and few stones flew in the air under the command of Merlin the magician.”
Elmer: “What are you talking about? Stones don’t fly in the air!
No foolin Mr. Adamski!!”
Adamski: “Merlin moved the stones by the magical power of his stick, didn’t you hear it on Ancient Aliens?”
Elmer: “You mean like the sticks we use back home to catch snakes and rats?”
Adamski: “Exactly!
Elmer: “Where did you learn all this stuff?”
Adamski, “I told you Elmer, from the Ancient Aliens show, are you deaf or something?
The show the show Elmer.”

Edna: Who watches shows like that?
Elmer: Everybody I know honeybunch!!
George “The Animal Steel”, the wrestling champin, Jessie “The Body” Ventura, Jack “The Snake” the son of Ruth, who got out of jail on Tuesday, Crystal the wicked witch from Beaumont who wrecked her Subaru last week and her fayancee (Fiancé), Ramesh Karesh Bandoor Bonjour the guy who owns seven eleven store, Harvey “The Alligator Man”, Bernie the bouncer at the strip joint…
Edna: Wow! What a crowd! La karim dee la karim (La crème de la crème).
Elmer: There are more, Rose the midget from the swamps who hit the sheriff on the head…

Edna: Stop here you knucklehead! Rose is deaf!
Elmer: It doesn't matter, Raoul is helping her…he listens to everything and tells her what's going on.
Edna: Raoul? Are you nuts?
Raoul does not understand English!!!
Elmer: It doesn't matter, half of what the folks say on the show nobody understands anyway.
Edna: Is this show for retarded people?
Elmer: No Edna, they are not retired.
Edna: I meant not very bright.
Elmer: They are bright alright. Some finished high school, yes yessiree. And the people who advertise on show are mighty good… Joey advertised his joint, you know "Joey Nacho The Macho" diner…all you can eat. Edgar too who has "Beaver The Happy Coat" store, you know…buy two get one free, and KLXDKP, the teevee station, I hate their weatherman when he says, fifty fifty chance of rainin'… and 33 degrees at the airport, for God's sake who lives at the airport!!
Edna: You are learning something.
Elmer: Yes sugar, I am learning everything, the show is great. It's good for business.
Edna: What business?
Elmer: Potatoes chips, crawfish in the bucket, popcorn, you name it…they are selling like hot cakes since people start to watch the show. They sit on the couch and yum yum gooly gooly and eat the whole damned thing…I love this show.
It is better than Sesame Street!!

However, I still believe that:
1-Extraterrestrials, intraterrestrials and aliens exist.
2-UFOs (anti-gravity spacecrafts) appear in our skies, and are man-made. However a minimal number of alien crafts made an acte de presence, but are no longer en force.
In other words, what we see today in the skies –hovering, jumping, appearing and disappearing, flying and zigzagging- are not extraterrestrial UFOs!

3-Some extraterrestrial/intraterrestrials and alien species have met with representatives from our governments, the military and the best of our aerospace scientists.
4-United States' most adanced weapons systems are of a German origin, and our military secret spacecrafts (Triangular, circular and cigar shape) were based upon Nazi-German technology.
5-The New World Order which encompasses the United States, The United Kingdom, and "reformed" Germany are behind, the cause and effect of the intentional and unintentional "Display" of UFOs.
6-The Remnants of Nazi Germany (Ideologists, financiers and scientists) who created the GNWO, and operating from no-fly zones in Canada and other territories created and flew the most astonishing, largest and most menacing so-called UFOs over the United States, Great Britain and other European countries, to warn the United States and remind our government of the treaty we signed with them in Argentina, after the Second World War.
7-An alien UFO did crash nearby Roswell. And that incident is the only documented and bona fide crash of an intraterrestrial-alien spacecraft in the history of American ufology.
8-Germany's Maria Orsic and Dr. Otto Schumann were Earth's first designers and builders of what the masses, the public, and ufologists call UFOs!
9-Intraterrestrials established colonies on the Moon and Earth, and are meticulously and constantly monitoring our progress and nuclear development.
10-Alien abductions ceased some 6 years ago.

Intellectual Autopsy of Ufology.

The world of ufology and aliens as seen from the front window of Dr. Lynne Kitei.

No ufologist and/or any author of books on aliens and UFOs has ever, so candidly, honestly and realistically explained in a few sentences, the known and unknown, the accepted and highly debated aspects and layers of ufology as did Dr. Lynne Kitei.
With affection they called her the first lady of American Ufology. And to many, Dr. Lynne Kitei is a national treasure.
They were right! Dr. Lynne Kitei is an extraordinary woman on so many levels; a physician, a world leader in health education, a producer, a lecturer, and author of the formidable book “The Phoenix Lights”, the most convincing, powerful and authoritative book ever written on UFOs’ sightings.

The magazine I publish monthly in New York and Europe, “Art, UFOs and Supernatural” interviewed Dr. Lynne in December 2011.
In this interview, Dr. Lynne Kitei has eloquently and rightfully depicted the true world of ufology as perceived and/or accepted by people from all walks of life; ufologists, journalists, ufology’s enthusiasts, ardent believers, debunkers, skeptics, those who are still searching for the truth and the right answers, those who still ask unanswered questions, some who knew something, and those who have no clues.
I found her answers extremely enlightening and informative, for they project ipso facto what is going on today on the landscape of ufology.
I am herewith including in this book, the interview with the remarkable Dr. Lynne Kitei, for it is very a propos, and I took the liberty to comment on some of Dr. Lynne’s answers, something I have never done in the past, since it is against my nature, and my business' practices to critisize others' works, and give a personal opinion about their ideologies, concepts and beliefs.

Dr. Lynne Kitei.

The Interview with Dr. Lynne:

Q: In your opinion, what is the strongest and irrefutable evidence of the existence of extraterrestrials and UFOs?

Dr. Lynne: Besides the still unexplained and historic March 13, 1997 AZ mass UFO sighting, called the "Phoenix Lights", to my surprise and delight, when I began searching for credible UFO cases in 1997, I discovered that there is a plethora of compelling data that to this date cannot be explained or denied.

It also seems that these elusive phenomena have been with us since human documentation began.

From pre-history Pakistan cave drawings of long extinct animals with UFOs etched in stone above them to various ancient art fragments suggestive of ETs in 15000-3000 BC cave art in France, rock paintings and engravings in Italy, Sahara, as well as petroglyphs in the Americas to references of these mysterious phenomena in the Bible to 15th & 16th Century Frescos and paintings of UFOs to the earliest known photograph of a UFO, taken at Mt. Washington, New Hampshire in 1870 to the sighting reports of a massive “airship with removable lights” seen throughout the western U.S. from November 1896 to April 1897 [six years before the Wright Brothers aircraft took flight] to the WWII “foo fighters” of 1942-1945, which were advanced aerodynamic orbs similar to the “Phoenix Lights” following planes, disrupting aircraft electronics and studied by U.S. and British intelligence, with no definitive conclusion as to what they were.

And what of the multiple sightings in 1946 of ‘ghost rockets’ seen in Sweden and throughout Europe and on June 24, 1947 when Pilot Kenneth Arnold was flying his airplane near Mt. Rainier, Washington and noticed a string of nine very bright metallic objects.

After telling the press that they moved like saucers skipping over the water, with an estimated speed of 1,200 to 1,500 mph, twice the speed of the fastest conventional craft of that day, these enigmatic discs became known as “flying saucers”.

Then the Roswell incident.

Then on July 3 or 4, 1947, the Roswell incident occurred, that many believe was an ET craft that crashed near Roswell, New Mexico, in close proximity to the 509th bomb group, the only squadron in the world that packed a military arsenal of atomic weapons.

Fast forward to the 1951 Lubbock Lights, and the 1980’s Rendlesham Forest Incident where USAF were witness to strange lights or craft, and the Hudson River Valley, N.Y. unexplained giant boomerangs, and the Belgium and UK triangle UFO flaps of the late 80’s and early 90’s, and the St. Petersburg, Russia mass sighting on February 19, 1997, one month before ours, as well as the 2008 Stephenville, Texas UFO sightings of similar phenomena captured on radar and film.

Even though rumors abound that crashed UFO craft have been back engineered gleaning such advanced technology as fiber optics, lasers, microwave, Velcro, etc., the strongest evidence available to the public would be the thousands of credible reports from military, pilots and astronauts that our skies are periodically graced by advanced aerial phenomena - most likely not of our world.
From 243 cases studied in 1948 alone, a report entitled An Estimate of the Situation by the Air Technical Intelligence Center concluded “flying saucers are probably real extra-terrestrial spacecraft”.

There are many more compelling cases of the existence of UFOs and ETs, including our own 1997 “Phoenix Lights” incident. Most impressive is France’s Cometa Report July 16, 1997, just a few short months after our extra-ordinary March 13, 1997 statewide event, entitled “UFOs and Defense: What Must We Be Prepared For?” is a 90 page in-depth study of UFOs, complete with photos and physical evidence, authored by an esteemed team of French military, scientists, pilots, researchers, and administrators.
Their conclusion: “UFOs are real and extraterrestrial origin cannot be ignored.”
Even though I witnessed and photographed the Phoenix Lights anomalies up close and personal, I have no idea what these ‘otherworldly’ phenomena are, only that they are and that it is time we get this topic out in the open – address it, accept it, and study it – so we can find out who is driving these things and move forward in our own evolution. We may or may not have the irrefutable evidence of extraterrestrials and UFOs yet, but in just the past few years, countries around the globe, including UK, France, Brazil, Mexico, Belgium, Russia and others are releasing thousands of “UFO files” in hopes that science will take a hard look at these compelling cases so perhaps one day soon we will.

Commentaries:
My comment on Dr. Lynne’s statements, “the still unexplained and historic March 13, 1997 AZ mass UFO sighting, called the "Phoenix Lights…", and “…Even though I witnessed and photographed the Phoenix Lights anomalies up close and personal, I have no idea what these 'otherworldly' phenomena are…"

The "Phoenix Lights" are not anomalies, or otherworldly. What Dr. Lynne saw and filmed represent the massive "V6" as called by the USAF; it is the enormous German V shaped spacecraft called "Die Mutterschiff Einsatzkommando" which is manufactured by the GNWO, in a Canadian no-fly zone.
The same notorious no-fly zone controlled by German scientists who challenged President Harry Truman by a tour de force display of glowing circular-shaped objects which hovered over Washington, D.C. in 1952. And they were totally unrelated to extraterrestrial UFOs, or to another world.
Note: Please refer to "First example: The UFOs sighting over Washington, DC in 1952", page 80.

Civilians, ufologists and the general public will never know the truth about the "V6: Die Mutterschiff Einsatzkommando." For revealing the truth will sine dubio create an immense and irreparable embarrassement to the United States, our military, our intelligence agencies, the United Kingdom, and expose the macabre "Triangle Commission", which serves as the executive committee of the New World Order!!
The "V6" is not something new. Dr. Edward Teller, father of the American H Bomb, and Dr. Openheimer, father of the American A Bomb submitted a preliminary report on the "V6" to President Truman who assessed their report with close advisors and friends who were members of the "National Defense Research Committee", which consisted of Roger Adams, Vannevar Bush, K. T. Compton, James Bryant Conant, Alphonse Raymond, Albert Baird, Jerome Clarke, Frank B. Jewett, Alfred Newton, and Lewis Hill. Truman's National Defense Research Committee played a major role in UFOs' cover-ups.

Nota Bene: Worth mentioning that my sources suggested that some military scientists who were assigned to NASA, confound it “V6: Die Mutterschiff Einsatzkommando” with “Die Schwerkraft Aufhebemaschine”, another anti-gravity spacecraft designed by German scientists after World War Two.

My comment on Dr. Lynne's statements, "From pre-history Pakistan cave drawings of long extinct animals with UFOs etched in stone above them to various ancient art fragments suggestive of Ets…", and "…15th & 16th Century Frescos and paintings of UFOs…"

Dr. Lynne is correct in case she is referring to the Phoenician and Ugaritic slabs and texts, which told us the story of the Creation, the Cycle of Baal, and the fable of Adonis, which are totally unknown to ancient aliens' theorists. As to the 15th & 16th Century Frescos and paintings of UFOs, I encourage you to read very attentively Item #22 on page 38.

Please read section: "The 1896-1897 UFOs' sightings. The Great Airship Scare "Flap" on page 84.
Even though, avalanches of pieces of evidence, hundreds upon hundreds of irrefutable documents, and mountains of historical and scientific findings which demonstrated without the shadow of a doubt, that the unindentied flying crafts and UFOs' sightings of 1896-1897 had nothing to do with aliens, and extraterrestrial flying saucers, ufologists and ufology's enthusiasts still believe that what flew over American cities during the Great Airship Flap were aliens' UFOs! They are absolutely wrong!!

Q: On what ground have you based your conviction that UFOs do exist, alien abductions did occur, and contactees or witnesses are telling the truth?
Dr. Lynne: From the extensive and meticulous investigation I have undertaken since the inexplicable 1997 AZ mass sighting, called the “Phoenix Lights”, I have accumulated an abundance of credible data that speaks for itself.

My own photographic evidence of these anomalous phenomena captured two years, two months, during and after the statewide event, has been thoroughly analyzed by universities, physicists, and Navy optical experts. To this day my 35mm evidence cannot be explained in any “Earthly” context.
I cannot speak for all ‘experiencers’ and certainly cannot verify others’ validity, but as a first-hand witness to the “Phoenix Lights”, I consider my experience, as well as corroborating, detailed reports from thousands of others statewide, as a benevolent ‘contact’. Alien abduction is not my area of expertise, so I cannot address that cryptic scenario. But I can confirm that in almost 15 years since the AZ incident, there has not been one report of harm, threat or abduction associated with the “Phoenix Lights”.

Q: What are the weaknesses and strength of modern ufology?
Dr. Lynne: On the positive, it is heartening that the ridicule and dis-crediting associating with modern ufology is dissipating, as more and more credible witnesses and scientists join in sharing and investigating this fascinating topic.
The “Phoenix Lights” case was the first mass sighting to have Internet chat rooms discussing the event and the enthusiastic blogs continue to this day.
With the popularity of Internet postings of credible sightings and photo evidence, as well as websites and threads discussing the most viable cases, hopefully modern ufology will grow stronger and the stigma of reporting UFO events will be a thing of the past. Unfortunately, with increased sightings and the exploding popularity of ufology, charlatans and debunkers abound. Let’s be clear, most anomalous events can be explained.
Only a small % cannot. But just because we do not have the technology to definitively define what these things are, it does not mean that they are not real. We may just be looking on the AM dial for an FM frequency. That is why it is vital that those in the field of ufology are conscientiously observant, discerning and prudent when evaluating cases, and that all facts and data are studied diligently before proposing a conclusion.

Most in the field bring their own special background, expertise and opinion to the plate. It would be my hope that ufologists put aside their egos and prejudices to join forces, as a team, so we can move forward and lend credence, as well as respect to this growing field.

Commentaries:
My comment on Dr. Lynne's statement, "…On the positive, it is heartening that the ridicule and dis-crediting associating with modern ufology is dissipating…"
Not totally accurate. And I know this from a personal experience. A few years ago, I began to work on a lexicon of Anatolian and Asia Minor's languages and dialects. I found out that there is an adjunct American-Turkish professor in California who wrote a profound paper on the subject. I emailed him and asked him if by any chance he would be interested in contributing to my work.
Within 10 minutes, I received a favorable answer, in which he wrote verbatim, "I will be honored…tell me what do you need…"
Twenty five minutes later, the distinguished scholar emailed again to express his reluctance in this manner: "I have an academic position to keep, and a reputation to protect…I highly admire your literary work, and the impressive dictionaries you wrote, but I am deeply sorry I can't associate myself with anyone who writes about aliens and UFOs…" In other words, ufology is poison to him, and associating himself with a person who writes about extraterrestrials and UFOs is an academic career's assassination. I don't blame him.

My comment on Dr. Lynne's statement, "…Unfortunately, with increased sightings and the exploding popularity of ufology, charlatans and debunkers abound.
Dr. Lynne is absolutely correct. Charlatans, and ignorants have infested the Internet with lies, idiocy, and stupidity.

I hope so! Unfortunately and as stated by Nancy Birnes "Ufology is not a healthy place." And from my personal experience and intensive investigative work, 92% of ufologists envy the success of others, hate each other, and discredit the work of peers and colleagues!

Some have made a carrer for themselves by trashing others, and especially authors who appeared to be fierce competitors!

PART ONE

Leave the Aliens Alone!!
Today's UFOs Are Not Extraterrestrial!!

Q&A

Question #1: Are UFOs real?
Answer: If you ask a simple-minded person, are UFOs real, and are they extraterrials, he/she will rush to say Yes!
The skeptics and debunkers' answer would be No!
Ancient astronauts theorists' would tell you, of course, and add -without being asked to elaborate on the subject- everything and anything that science or our limited knowledge of the universe can't explain must be extraterrestrial!
Astronomers and quantum physics' theorists would "elegantly" answer why not? Surely we are not alone in the universe.
Sine dubio, you already know the answer of conspiracy theories' advocates, abductees, contactees, experiencers, ufologists, UFOs' hunters, and those characters who post on the Internet all sorts of idiotic claims about the Anunnaki, little green men, aliens and UFOs, and their ridiculous/shallow personal explanations of phenomena, Earth's most brilliant minds could not explain or fully understand!
Yet, none of them had interviewed an alien, worked with an alien inside a government's laboratory, or a controlled research facilty conducting tests, research and exploration of the multiple facets, aspects, classes, categories and nature of aliens, extraterrestrials, intraterrestrials, and their enigmatic flying machines.
However, if you ask an insider, his/her answer would/could be, what do you mean by UFOs?
For the question by itself and per se is vague and uneducated.

Besides scientists, technicians, engineers, test-pilots, inventors, linguists, high echelon military “participants” from a three stars general to a sergeant, a guard, a “loader”, and an MP, working at governments’ facilities, laboratories, research centers, a military base, and hangars, involved with aliens’ technology and reverse engineering don’t use the word UFO!
Instead, various terms are used, such as:
1-AGM (Anti-gravity Machine).
2 M2 (Module 2).
3-M3 (Module 3).
4-RC (Reverse-craft).
5-The Tube. Referring to an unconventional propulsion system.
6-Schumann’s disk (SD), also fondly called the “Rotary Engine”, or RE.
7-The Straw.
8- IC (Intraterrestrial Craft).
9-The Hook. Referring to a shiny triangular-circular anti-gravity module (Craft) used by the military in various parts of the Midwest, usually over uncultivated fields and far distant farms.
10-Delta. Refering to a triangular anti-gravity craft (TAC).
11-The Beast. Referring to a huge, multi-levels, multi-purposes mothership, similar to the “UFO” which intercepted a Japanese Boeing 747 cargo aircraft (Japan Airlines Flight 1628) on November 17, 1986 over Alaska.
12-Rotunda. Refering to a type of flying saucers, similar to the ones which flew over Washington, DC in 1952.
13-VBH (von Braun Hat). Referring to a type of a flying module similar to the one which crashed in in the small town of Kecksburg in Pennsylvania on December 9, 1965.
14-V6. Referring to the enormous V shaped spacecraft which flew over Phoenix, Arizona, and Sonora, Mexico on March 13, 1997. (Note: Read the book “The Phoenix Lights” by Dr. Lynne Kitei.) 15-6F. Refering to the unidentified flying craft which flew over the 6th Fleet sent by Dwight Eisenhower to the shores of Lebanon in 1958.
Who came up with all these colorful names and terms?
The CIA? No!
The NSA? No!

NASA and USAF, of course.
Except for the cartoonish term “Space Monkeys” attributed to President Harry Truman, and referring to the retrieved dead bodies of aliens-hybrids.
Some German scientists working for the United States have used terms such as:
1-Die Mutterschiff Einsatzkommando. S1 & S2. It flew over many areas in the United States, including Arizona, Texas, and Nevada
2-Neuer Bestellugsstrom.
3-Schwarzer Wind. It flew over Belgium, Brazil, Mexico and the United States.
4-Deutsche Tornado-Wut. It flew over Brazil, Belgium, Mexico, Chile, Peru, The Bahamas, Bermuda Triangle area, and the United States.
5-Mehrlagige Kuppel. It flew over Russia, Poland, Holland, and the United States.
6-Die Schwerkraft Aufhebemaschine. It flew over Mexico, Chile, The Bahamas, Bermuda Triangle area, and the United States.
7-Jenseitsflugmaschine (Version V-12).
8-Die Glocke (Version UV3).
9-The Vril.
10-Geist 7.
11-Haunebu.
12- RFZ.
13-Rundflugzeug.
14-Reichsflugscheiben.
15-Hauneburg-Geräte.

So Yes! What the masses call UFOs are real, nevertheless, they are not what the general public, abductees, New Age enthusiasts, new-born Christians, ancient aliens/ancient astronauts theorists, Internet wackos, and ufologists believe to be; they are not the ships of our heavenly aliens-brothers and aliens-sisters, the UFOs and chariots of Gods of the Bible and Hindu lore, Joseph Stalin and the Soviets’ flying saucers, sent to the United States (The Roswell UFO crash-site) to create mass hysteria and national panic as claimed by some bestselling authors; the extraterrestrial flying saucers from Zeta Reticuli; the United States secret UFOs!! And flying machines from the future. Even though, the term “Time-Machines” should be seriously considered, only, in the context of intraterrestrials’ spacecrafts; a phenomenal display rarely manifested in our skies.

For the Record:
The 2011-2012 Statistics Sheet Of The Origin And Nature Of UFOs Sightings In Modern Times.

b-1% built by American scientists. (Including scientists from Australia, Canada, and German scientists who were brought to the United States under the umbrella of Operation Paperclip.) c-4% made by intraterrestrials; they are the USOs.
2-UFOs over the United States:
a-90% made by German scientists; remnants of the Third Reich, and Neo-German and/or Neo-Nazis in remote secret locations.
b-6% built by American scientists. (Including scientists from Australia, Canada, and German scientists who were brought to the United States under the umbrella of Operation Paperclip.) c-3% made by intraterrestrials; they are the USOs.
d-1% of unknown origin.

Origin Of UFOs

Origin 1: At the dawn of Earth’s birth:
UFOs came from various extraterrestrial civilizations, including our creators the Anunnaki, the Lyrans (Lyrians), the Zetas (Zeta Reticulians) and the Ashtari-Aldebaran beings exploring the cosmos. In other worlds, some were from our galaxy, and others from beyond.
This primordial phase ended millions of years ago.

Origin 2: In ancient times:

This origin goes back to 10,000 t0 11,500 years ago, and ended with the departure of the Anunnaki. However, this phase is an interrupted continuation of phase one, since the extraterrestrial Anunnaki continued to live on Earth for a few thousand years, and the Zetas who landed on planet Earth, millions of years ago, remained here on Earth.
So, the origin of the UFOs during that period/phase is both extraterrestrial and terrestrial, since the Anunnaki who lived among us in Mesopotamia (Modern day Iraq), Africa, Anatolia, the Near East, and part of South America, and the Zetas (aka Grays "Greys") who lived and still live on Earth (Underwater habitats) were still using their spaceships.
Some of these crafts came directly from their planets, and others were manufactured here on Earth by the Anunnaki, and others by the aliens "Greys" (Grays) in their underwater habitats and installations.
Note: Please refer to my book "Anunnaki Chronology and their Remnants on Earth from 1,250.000 B.C. to the Present Day."

Origin 3: Circa 30 B.C.-1898 A.D.:
The Anunnaki are no longer with us. The Zetas are still here; they co-inhabit planet Earth with us. Consequently, the spacecrafts they use are part terrestrial and part extraterrestrial. Part terrestrial, because the ones that are frequently used are manufactured at their underwater facilities. Part extraterrestrial, because occasionally, they pilot spacecrafts which originated on Zeta Reticuli; these occurrences are extremely rare.
Their flying machines, spacecrafts and spaceships are referred to as USOs, meaning Unidentified Submerged Objects. Personally, I use the expression: Underwater Submerged Objects, because we already know their origin and nature.

Origin 4: 1896: The early American phase; the very beginning.
The first recorded event of a UFO sighting in the United States goes back to 1896, which took place over California and the Midwest.

Origin 5: 1900-1916: Over Europe.

We don’t have enough data.

Origin 6: Circa 1917 or 1921-1947.

- a-95% German made.
- b-4% made by intraterrestrials.
- c-1% unknown.

Origin 7: Circa 1948-present:

- a-95% built by German scientists (Remnants of the Third Reich) and Neo-German and/or Neo-Nazis in remote secret locations; some are known and some are unknown to Earth’s superpowers.
- b-4% made by intraterrestrials; they are the USOs.
- c-1% built by American scientists. (Including scientists from Australia, Canada, and German scientists who were brought to the United States under the umbrella of Operation Paperclip.)

Now you got the whole picture!

Man-made or extraterrestrial?

Question #2: How do we know that UFOs are man-made and not extraterrestrial?

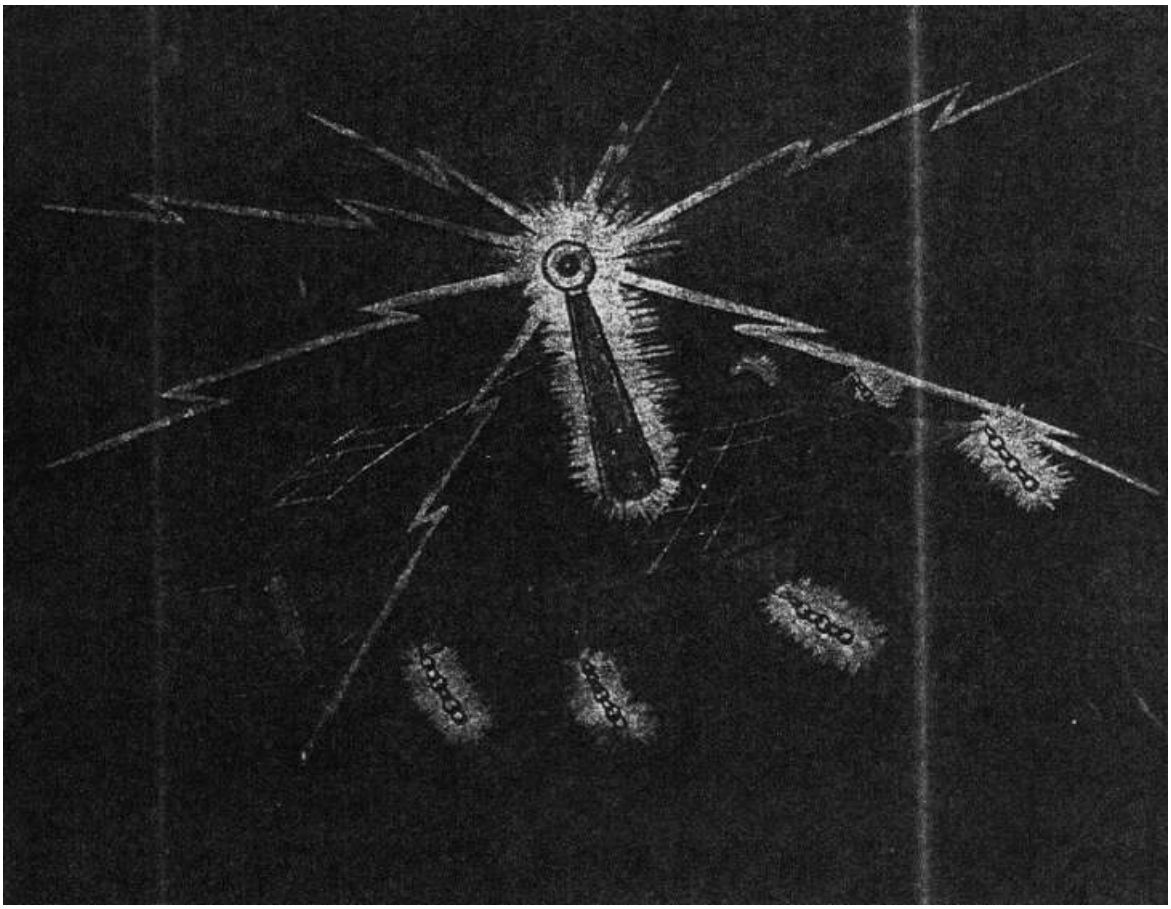
Answer: Always ask the “expert-insider”, and listen to those who were engaged by our governments and affiliated contractors to deal with German technology, UFOs and extraterrestrials’ affairs. (Nota Bene: Good luck if you can, for almost 99.99% of those fortunate and privileged ones will keep their mouth shut!)

Let me give you some extraordinary and convincing examples.

First example: The UFOs sighting over Washington, DC in 1952.

Summary: Civilian and military radars spotted a formation of glowing circular-shaped objects hovering in the sky.

The glowing circular-shaped objects hovering in the sky of the nation’s capital, were totally unrelated to extraterrestrial UFOs.



This drawing of the German UFOs over RCAF Station North Bay, Canada was published by the Daily Nugget, on August, 31 1954.

Ufologists claimed that these objects were extraterrestrial UFOs, and ancient aliens' theorists wanted you to believe that ancient aliens are back! They were wrong.

I can assure you that --after having reviewed official top secret documents-- these objects were not of an extraterrestrial origin.

These flying discs were made by German scientists at one of their secret bases in Canada. And our government knew about it!

Dr. von Braun told President Truman "Mr. President, this is simply intimidation, nothing to worry about, we are working on it." Dr. Ed Teller commented as follows: "It is harassment!"

You interpret the meaning of “Intimidation and Harassment”! In my opinion, it is German blackmail.

Here is a synopsis of the sightings, based upon absolute facts and secret reports, and the background of the story.

On April 18, 1952, the United States Air Force issued a secret report on the sighting of unknown spacecrafts seen in the skies of the United States, and described those unidentified spacecrafts as “dangerous”.
The word “dangerous” was underlined. Said report which was kept secret for a few days was related to unknown crafts spotted near Nome in Alaska. This is a fact.
The United States Air Force issued an order to intercept the UFOs. Less than 45 minutes later, the order was lifted when the USAF received a “communication” from an intelligence agency explaining the scope and nature of the sighting.
An insider alleged that the UFOs flew directly from a “No-Fly Zone” in Canada, and hovered for 3 minutes over a Canadian airbase in North Bay, Ontario, Canada en route to Washington, DC.
The commander of the Canadian air base in North Bay informed the intelligence agency that 8 German UFOs flew over his base and were heading toward the nation’s Capital.
Furthermore, the commander advised the intelligence agency not to intercept the German spacecrafts; this was transmitted to the USAF, the Pentagon, and The White House.
The intelligence agency explained to President Harry Truman that the German flying saucers (UFOs) are not jeopardizing national security, and there is no reason to worry.
In other words, they are no threat to the United States.
In addition, the agency informed President Truman that the German flying saucers will be displaying a tour de force over Washington, DC.
President Truman asked the intelligence agency “Should we prepare a statement?” And the answer was “No, Mr. President, we will handle this…”

President Truman was not fully convinced and satisfied. And as sightings became to intensify, he sought the opinion of Dr. von Braun who commented on the sightings as follows:
“Mr. President, this is simply intimidation, nothing to worry about, we are working on it.”
Some insiders have alleged that Dr. von Braun’s answer was something like that: “Mr. President, we know who they are.
Nothing to worry about, we know how to deal with it. It is simply a matter of intimidation. I know this type of spacecrafts.
We know how to deal with it…”
Dr. Edward Teller’s (Father of the H Bomb) brief comment was slightly different. He said: “Mr. President, it is only harrassment, that’s all…the bastards (NAZI)…we know very well who they are, and where these “UFOs” came from…”
Simply put, executive decision makers, national security and intel top echelon knew they were German UFOs…they knew what they were capable of, and where they came from!
President Truman asked John R. Steelman, (Then Assistant to the President of the United States) to prepare a statement (A brief release for the press).
But upon listening to General Omar N. Bradley (He served as Army Chief of Staff, and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff), President Truman changed his mind.
On July, 20, 1952, at exactly 12:40 A.M., the C.A.A. radar of Washington, DC traffic control center registered on its screen 8 unidentified objects nearby Andrews Air Force in Maryland, flying at a speed ranging from 100 to 130 miles per hour.
At 1:00 P.M., the radar’s blips vanished from the screen, and 2 minutes later, the flying objects were spotted over Washington, D.C.
For reasons behind my comprehension, at that critical moment, neither the CIA nor the NSA got a reading/chart/report/graph or a print out of the C.A.A., and the A.T.I.C. radars.
On July 26 at 9:08, twelve German UFOs were spotted over Washington, D.C., and were caught on the C.A.A. radar.
Two jets tried to intercept them without success.
And on July 29, the mysterious crafts reappeared again over Washington, D.C, flying at a speed of 100 miles per hour.

The White House received full report on the sightings from Harry G. Barnes, senior controller at C.A.A. Another report came from Washington's National Airport indicating that the unidentified scpacecrafts flew at an astonishing speed of 7,200 miles per hour. The President read the reports, and no further action was taken.
Minutes later, they vanished from the face of the earth… nowhere to be found. As the records/reports show, and in virtue of the statements of Dr. von Braun and Dr. Edward Teller, the spotted UFOs over Washington, DC were not extraterrestrial; they were German-made. Yet, ufologists kept on insisting that the UFOs over Washington were of an extraterrestrial origin. I can't blame them, because they are outsiders. And I fully understand their reaction and allegations. Please folks, leave the aliens alone!

Second example: The flying object, saucer, disc or UFO that crashed in Pennsylvania.

I will be brief on the subject. On December 9 of 1965, an object in the form of a fire-ball landed or crashed if you prefer in the small town of Kecksburg in Pennsylvania.
a-The military's version: We were told by the military that it was a meteorite. Wrong! Canadian, Australian and American space scientists working for the military and NASA unanimously stated on record that the landed or crashed object was one of Nazi Germany Bell-UFO types, built during the Third Reich.
However, the German scientists who were brought to the United States under the umbrella of Project or Operation Paperclip and were still working for our government in various capacities and at different facilities and agencies stated very clearly that the object was indeed a very particular type of Bell-flying discs very similar to the original Nazi Bell anti-gravity flying discs, but it was not built during the Third Reich; it is rather a new version built somewhere else, possibly in a secret hideout or a military base under the control of other German scientists or remnants of the old group of Nazi scientists, outside post-war Germany.

b-The ufologists' version: They claimed that the crashed object in Kecksburg, Pennsylvania was an extraterrestrial flying saucer.
They were wrongagain, for the German scientists who were very familiar with various types of German "UFOs" recognized the crashed object as a different or a new version of one of their own Bell-UFOs anti-gravity flying discs.
Case closed, no aliens here and no extraterrestrial UFOs!!

Third example: The 1896-1897 UFOs' sightings.
The Great Airship Scare "Flap".

Even though, avalanches of pieces of evidence, hundreds upon hundreds of irrefutable documents, and mountains of historical and scientific findings which demonstrated without the shadow of a doubt, that the unindentied flying crafts and UFOs' sightings of 1896-1897 had nothing to do with aliens, and extraterrestrial flying saucers, ufologists and ufology's enthusiasts still believe that what flew over American cities during the Great Airship Flap were aliens' UFOs! They are absolutely wrong!!

Here is the full story. You will be the judge.
The first sighting of a single luminous flying saucer occurred on October 26, 1896, in San Francisco, California, as reported by a local resident .
On November 1, 1896, a man reported seeing an airship over Bolinas Ridge.
On November 17, 1896, many local residents reported a huge bright light moving in the sky, and flying at an approximate altitude of 300-400 feet.
It was beaming some sort of a light coming from under its belly.
Some witnesses, even stated, that they saw people inside a dome on the top of the airship.
It appeared to them as if they were directing the flying object.

On November 20, 1896, several flying objects in the sky of Oakland, California were seen by thousands of witnesses. Many witnesses reported seeing different kinds of crafts on the ground with crew repairing the airships.

For the next three days, more flying objects with a visible round cockpit with people inside were spotted in various parts of California. A businessman and a former attorney general of the State of California, who became extremely interested in these sightings, told the media and the public that those flying objects were airships invented by a man who works for General Marco, then the commander-in-chief of the national military forces in Cuba.

Many believed that the attorney general's story was a cover-up. Even back then, conspiracies and cover-ups seemed to be part of official procedures, but what is very distinct and different from nowadays cover-ups, is the fact that the 1896's cover-up was not of a military or a governmental nature, but rather of a secretive business and entrepreneurial nature, as investigative discoveries and findings would later suggest.

Many embellished stories and fabrications began to circulate, and some leading newspapers fueled the curiosity of the public.

Many witenesses reported seeing such airships with highly visible wings.

Artist’s illustration of one of the airships that appeared over California, and published by the San Francisco Call newspaper, on November 22, 1896.

But everything changed, when the airships, all of a sudden began to appear all over the country by March 1897, and especially on April 1, 1897, when a huge luminous airship, thirty foot long, displayed an astonishing flight pattern in the sky of Kansas City, which was witnessed by thousands of people, and reported by the New York Sun newspaper on April 3, 1897.

Different shapes of flying objects:

One judge in Texas claimed that he spoke to a crew of a two hundred foot long airship who told him that they came from the North Pole and were en route around the world.
Several witnesses from Wisconsin, Iowa, Kansas, and California described the mystery airship as a long metallic cigar flying at a low altitude. While other witnesses stated that the airship was round like a balloon with a shiny metallic body. A third group reported that the airship had the shape of a cigar which lifted a rectangular compartment underneath.

The compartment which looked like a cabin was well-lit, and a crew of three people was seen inside the dome maneuvering the craft. The different versions of the shape, speed and altitude of the flying object led observers and concerned investigators to believe that there were more than one airship in the area, especially when latest sighting's reports described the object as a round airship with huge dome (cockpit) attached to two wings on both side of the airship.
It got more interesting, and perhaps more complicated when numerous witnesses reported that the crew of the airship was beaming some sort of light over houses and particular areas on the ground.

The varied versions of the description of the mysterious flying objects were published in the Chicago Tribune, the New York Sun, the Chicago Times, the New York Herald, and the New York Times.
The New York Times published 3 photos of the airship, and other newspapers sketched the flying object according to eye witnesses' reports.

1897 Wellner’s airship.

Airship over Sacramento, California, in 1896, as published by the San Francisco Call.

Articles in the papers of the era mentioned John W. Keely’s airship which he built and kept on developing between 1888 and 1893. The airship flew successfully and was acknowledged by the United States War Department in 1896.
By now, everybody has heard of the mysterious flying objects.

Press clippings:
On April 12, 1897, the Chicago Tribune published the following, and contributed to Max L. Harmar, the Secretary of the Chicago Aironautical Society, “One person knows all about the airship. He says: These thousands of people didn't see a steel hull because this is the airship my friend built in California and is on its way here to Chicago.”

On April 2, 1897, the Chicago Record reported, “Missouri people excited: Mystical black object casting before it red light startled whole city for the last two weeks! Ten thousand people swear they have no hallucinations! Scoffers and disbelievers claim the people have been seeing the planet Venus or the Evening Star, even though according to the almanac this planet should have set below the horizon at least an hour before!

An artist illustration of an airship over Chicago published by the Chicago Times-Herald, on April 12, 1897.

Object appeared very swiftly, then appeared to stop and hover over the city for ten minutes at a time, then after flashing its green-blue and white lights, shot upwards into space....light gradually twinkling away and looking like a bright star.”
On December 1, 1896, the Oakland Tribune newspaper reported that an airship was seen over Oakland, California, on November 26, and a witness described the object as a big black cigar…it was100 feet in length, and a triangular tail was attached to it. It appeared that the main body of the airship was made of aluminum. It flew at a tremendous speed.

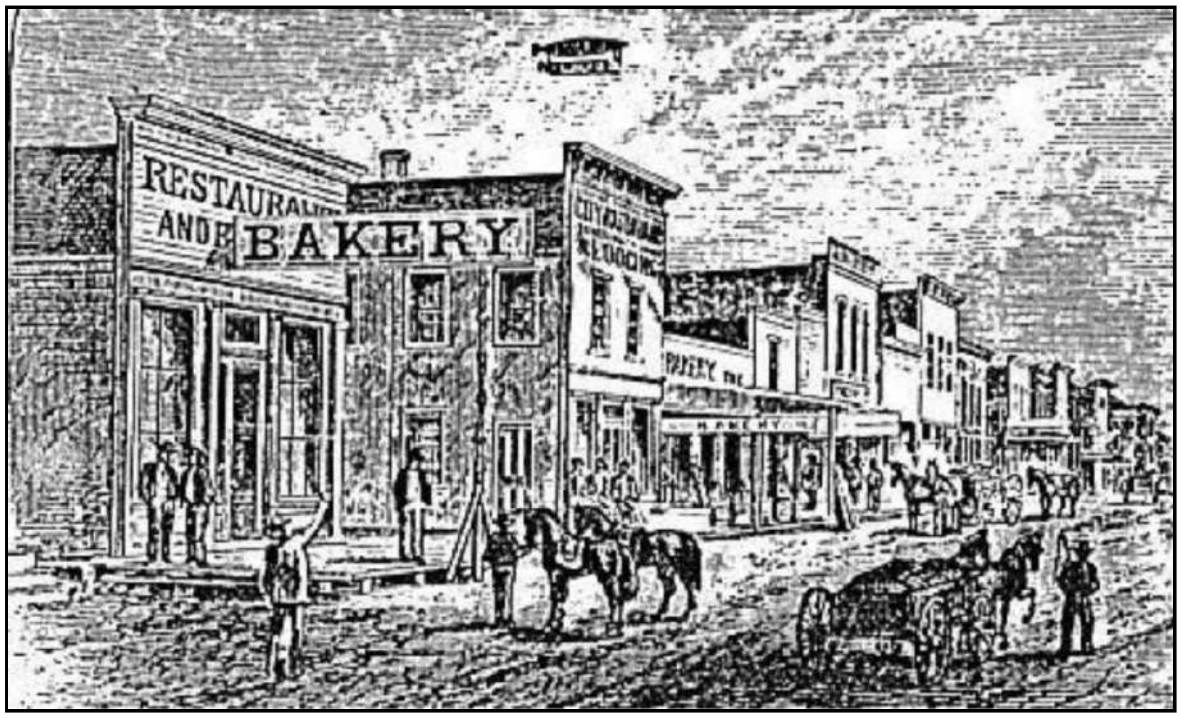
Deputy Sheriff John McLemore of Garland County, and Constable John Sumpter Jr. stated that on the night of May 6, 1897, they noticed a brilliant light in the sky, and later saw two persons moving around the airship carrying lanterns. One of the men approached them and told them that he and two other persons were traveling around the country in an airship.

Artist’s illustration of one of the airships that appeared over California, and published by the Oakland Tribune and other San Francisco newspapers, in 1897.

The Deputy Sheriff and the Constable described the airship as a cigar-shaped airship, sixty feet in length, similar to those the newspapers wrote about.

On May 13, 1897, the Arkansas Weekly World paper wrote, a man was filling a sack with water and a woman was standing in the dark. The paper stated, word for word, “The man with the whiskers invited us to take a ride, saying that he could take us where it was not raining."

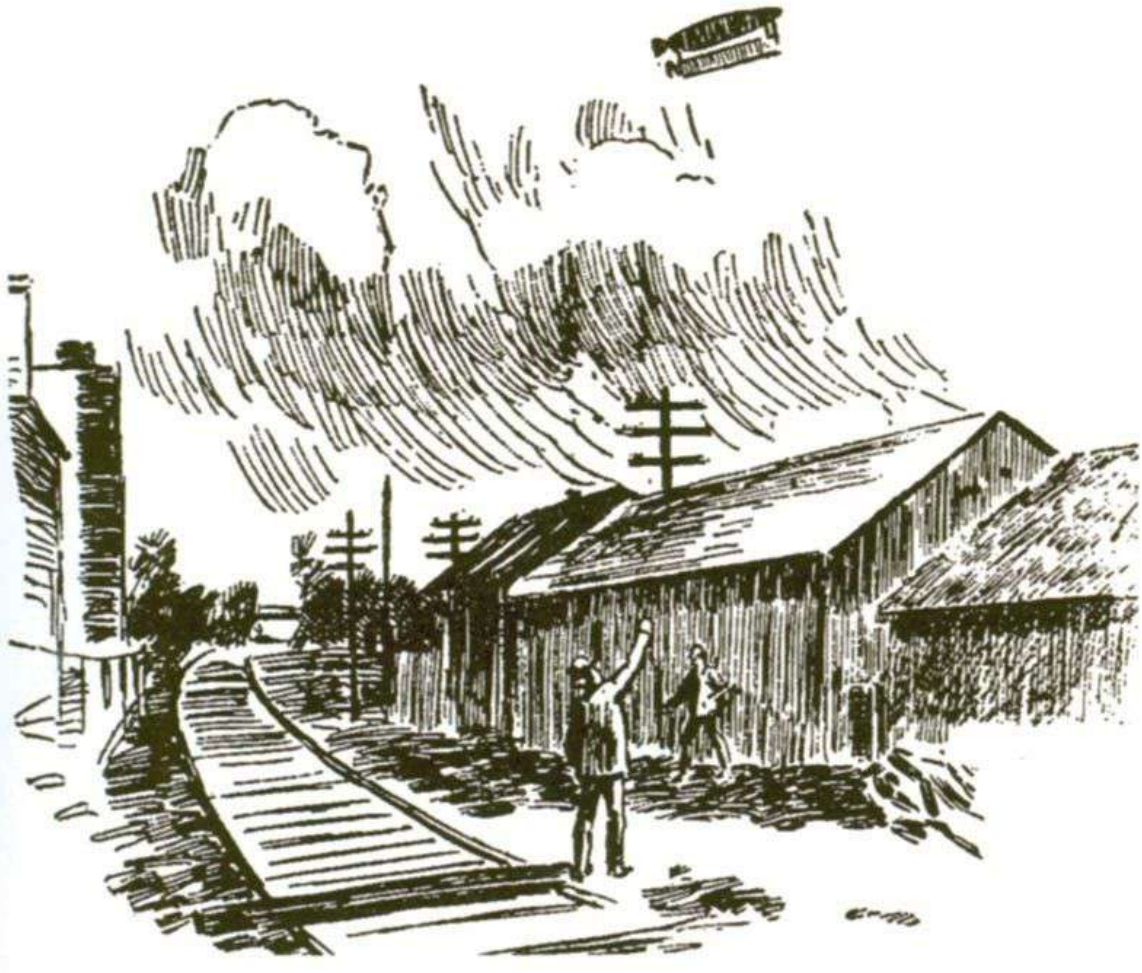
"We told him we preferred to get wet."



Artist’s illustration of the era of an airship over Arkansas, 1897.

"Asking the man why the brilliant light was turned on and off so much, he replied that the light was so powerful that it consumed a great deal of his motive power. He said he would like to stop off in Hot Springs for a few days and take the hot baths, but his time was limited and he could not. He said they were going to wind up at Nashville, Tennessee, after thoroughly seeing the country.”

On April 26, 1896, The Houston Daily Post, Merkel, Texas, published the following article*:* “Some parties returning from church last night noticed a heavy object dragging along with a rope attached. They followed it until in crossing the railroad it caught on a rail. On looking up they saw what they supposed was the airship. It was not near enough to get an idea of the dimensions.
A light could be seen protruding from several windows; one bright light in front like the headlight of a locomotive. After some ten minutes a man was seen descending the rope; he came near enough to be plainly seen.
He wore a light blue sailor suit, was small in size. He stopped when he discovered parties at the anchor and cut the ropes below him and sailed off in a northeast direction.



Artist’s illustration of the mysterious airship of 1896-1897.

The anchor is now on exhibition at the blacksmith shop of Elliott and Miller and is attracting the attention of hundreds of people. Des Moines Leader, April 11, 1897, reported that the residents of Waterloo, Iowa, found a 36-foot airship made from wood and canvas and fitted with generators compressors. The airship was directed by a large crew. The “operators” of the craft told the residents of the area that they flew from San Francisco.

Testimonies and affidavits:

Alexander Hamilton, member of the House of Representative, E. W. Wharton, State Oil Inspector, M. E. H.unt, Sheriff, W.L.auber, Deputy Sheriff, H. H. Winter, Banker, H. S. Johnson, Pharmacist, J. H. Stitcher, Attorney, Alexander Stewart, Justice of the Peace, H. C. Rollins, Postmaster, and James W. Martin, Registrar of Deeds, signed an affidavit on April, 21, 1897, in which she stated (Excerpts), “We are awakened by a noise among the cattle.
I rose, thinking that perhaps my bulldog was performing some of his pranks, but upon going to the door saw to my utter astonishment an airship slowly descending upon my cow lot, about forty rods from the house…the ship had been gently descending until it was not more than thirty feet above the ground, and we came within fifty yards of it.
It consisted of a great cigar-shaped portion, possibly three hundred feet long, with a carriage underneath. The carriage was made of glass or some other transparent substance alternating with a narrow strip of some material. It was brilliantly lighted within and everything was plainly visible-it was occupied by six of the strangest beings I ever saw. They were jabbering together, but we could not understand a word they said.
Every part of the vessel which was not transparent was of dark reddish color. We stood mute with wonder and fright, when some noise attracted their attention and they turned a light directly upon us. Immediately on catching sight of us they turned on some unknown power, and a great turbine wheel, about thirty feet in diameter, which was slowly revolving below the craft began to buzz and the vessel rose lightly as a bird.

Era’s illustration of an airship.

When about three hundred feet above us it seemed to pause and hover directly over a two year old heifer, which was bawling and jumping, apparently fast in the fence. Going to her, we found a cable about a half inch in thickness made of some red material, fastened in a slip knot around her neck, one end passing up to the vessel, and the heifer tangled in the wire fence.

We tried to get it off but could not, so we cut the wire loose and stood in amazement to see the ship, heifer and all, rise slowly, disappearing in the northwest.
We went home, but I saw so frightened I could not sleep. Rising early Tuesday, I started out by horse, hoping to find some trace of my cow. This I failed to do, but coming back in the evening found that Link Thomas, about three or four miles west of Le Roy, had found the hide, legs and head in the field that day. He, thinking someone had butchered a stolen beast, had brought the hide to town for identification, but was greatly mystified in not being able to find any tracks in the soft ground.
After identifying the hide by my brand, I went home. But every time I would drop to sleep I would see the cursed thing, with its big lights and hideous people.
I don't know whether they are devils or angles, or what; but we all saw them, and my whole family saw the ship, and I don't want any more to do with them."
The Great Airship Scare ended in April 1897 with the last sighting of an airship over Yonkers, New York.

No aliens, and nothing extraterrestrial here!
In conclusion, the airships were man-made, and had no relation whatsoever to extraterrestrials. They were built in Europe, and few were constructed in the United States, as documented by historical facts.
Many witnesses have reported that the airships made several landings, and their crew conversed with people, and asked for direction, supplies, and water for their crafts.
The crews were polite, spoke in perfect English, and were dressed very normally; nothing to indicate that they were aliens. Some explained why they were flying those crafts, what their destination was, and where they came from.
The majority would say that they were exploring the countryside. Others were more discreet and didn't say much. Nevertheless, they were humans, and from the United States.

The bottom line is this: All those airships were the earliest types and categories of dirigibles, motor-driven, and crews-manned crafts, and had nothing to do with extraterrestrial UFOs.
Yet, ufologists still insist that they are of an extraterrestrial origin and piloted by aliens!

Ufologists' false claims, accounts and explanations:

Ufologists have claimed that what people saw in the skies of 1896 and 1897 were extraterrestrial UFOs piloted by aliens. As usual they are wrong, and I am going to prove it to you. They argue that back then, no airship or any kind of a spacecraft was built, and/or was man-made in 1896 and 1897, simply because we did not have the technology of space-flight.
Little did they know that de facto in 1852, several types of crafts were built in Europe, and in 1894, 1895, 1896, and 1896, American entrepreneurs, businessmen and pilots began to build their own flying crafts, and kept them shrouded in secrecy, so competitors and business entrepreneurs would not know about it.

Several types of crafts were built in Europe:

In early 1852, French Henry Giffard built the world first three-horse-power steam engine airship; a mechanical flying machine. And on September 24 of 1852, Giffard flew his craft from Paris to Trappes at an approximate speed of 8 kilometers per hour, covering an approximate distance of 27 kilometers.
In 1853, Sir George Cayley created the world's first airplanes' model and flew an airship at a speed of 6 kilometers per hour.
In fact, in 1809, Sir Cayley wrote mathematical formulae for space powered flights, and established technical data pertaining to drag and thrust.
In 1872, German flyer Paul Haenlein flew his airship at a higher speed and at a higher altitude, and took Europe by storm.
In 1883, French engineers and pilots Gaston Tissandier and Albert Tissandier built the world first flying machine powered by an electric engine "Moteur Electrique".
In 1884, French Charles Renard and Arthur Krebs built and flew "La France", an airship powered with an electric motor at an approximate speed of 23 kilometers per hour.
In 1894, Australian Lawrence Hargrave invented a motorized kite-plane which lifted a load of 208 pounds.

In 1897, German engineer David Schwartz built a revolutionary airship powered with a gasoline engine.
In 1898, Brazilian-French aristocrat Alberto Santos-Dumont flew a gasoline-powered dirigible, (round-trip) from Saint Cloud to the Eiffel Tower.
Santos-Dumont was the world's first pilot-entrepreneur to charter regular passengers' flights with his airship called No.9 dirigible.
Austrian German Otto Lillienthal (See below), nicknamed "The "Birdman of Berlin" had to his credits over 2,000 flights, but unfortunately his illustrious career ended in 1896 with a fatal crash.

Various types of airships of the era.

Several types of airships were built in the United States. American inventors and builders of airships:

Do not underestimate the American entrepreneurial spirit!
During the American Civil War, Solomon Andrews built an airship and flew short distances.

- In 1869, British-American Frederick Marriott developed a model for transcontinental travel.
- On July 2, 1869, the 37-foot-long hydrogen filled balloon, “Avitor” powered with a steam engine and propellers mounted on its two wings flew, and became America’s first controlled-flight aircraft.
- And at the San Francisco’s Mechanics Fair, the “Avitor” flew 7 days a week, and transported thousands of spectators.

- In 1889, in Chicago, French-born Octave Chanute wrote “Progress in Flying Machines,” which was considered back then as the world most authoritative aviation's technical reference and manual.
- In 1891, The Smithsonian Institution published “Experiments in Aerodynamics”.
- In 1895, Cornell University granted Bachelor of Science degrees in aeronautics.
- In 1895, “The Aeronautical Annual” on flying machines was published.
- On August 11, 1896, Charles Abbot Smith received a patent number 565805 for his airship.
- On April 20, 1897, Henry Heintz received a patent number 580941 for his airship.
- In 1896, S.P. Langley flew two types of airships.
- In 1896, MIT began to offer courses in aeronautics and aviation, and MIT first degree in aeronautics was granted in 1892.
- In 1896, MIT built its first wind tunnel.

So, back then, in 1896 and 1897, we had the technology, the know-how, and the means that could have allowed us to fly. And there is no doubt that airships were built in America during those years.

But many pilots, inventors, businessmen, entrepreneurs and financiers of airplanes construction enterprises kept their inventions, airplanes and plans wrapped in secrecy for obvious reasons; business secrets and competition threats were two justifiable reasons for utmost secrecy.

The Kenneth Arnold's Saga

Question #3: Well, how about the extraterrestrial UFOs spotted by Kenneth Arnold? Ufogolists are absolutely sure that what Arnold saw were alien UFO?

Answer: On June 24, 1947, Kenneth Arnold took off from Chehalis airport. At 3:00 P.M., he spotted 9 silvery flying objects over Mount Rainier. Estimated speed of the flying machines: 1300 miles an hour.

What did he see?

Ufologists claim that Arnold saw extraterrestrial UFOs. They are mistaken! In fact, what he saw was a formation of 9 German Horten 229.

Alderbaran, and Earth's first man-made UFO. Question #5: What do we know so far about Aldebaran and Maria Orsic's first man-made UFO?

Answer: Aldebaran's UFO, the Jenseitsflugmaschine:
Here is the story of Maria Orsic and Earth's first man-made UFO.
February, Saturday 10, 1917; Maria's first telepathic transe-contact: On Saturday 10 of 1917, and at the age of 19, Maria Orsic, a medium and psychic from Munich, Germany, fell in a trance (or perhaps in a coma, for no apparent reasons) which lasted several hours. As soon as she came out of her coma and began to regain her senses, Maria Orsic told her mother that she saw tall beings of lights not from this world who came to her and said that they will be back once she starts to feel better. During her state of trance, two tall beings talked to her in a language she could not understand. Her mother thought that Maria was deeply affected by what had happened to her, and made no remarks. But Maria Orsic was absolutely convinced that something extraordinary has entered her life.

February, Sunday 11, 1917, Maria's second trance-extraterrestrial contact: Maria could not figure out what is happening to her, until she fell once again in a deep trance on February, Sunday 11, 1917; it was an event Maria will never forget. On that Sunday, the strange beings of light appeared to her and told her that very soon, she will be receiving a very important message from them. The extraterrestrials warned her not to tell anybody about what she has experienced, except to mediums Traute, Gudrun, Sigurn, and Heike. Maria rushed to talk to them about that extraordinary event. The women did not seem to be surprised at all. On the contrary, they were very quite and understanding and told Maria that they were expecting her to come to them. Maria became confused and perplexed.

Sigurn reassured her that everything is going to be OK, and to expect to hear from them again.

February, Monday 19, 1917; Maria’s third contact with the extraterrestrials: On Monday, February 19 of 1917 in the afternoon, Orsic was revisited again, but this time, the beings of light gave her a clear message; they revealed themselves to her as messengers (Extraterrestrials) from Aldebaran (Alpha Tauri), a solar system 65-years away from planet Earth, located in the constellation Taurus, in front of the sprawling Hyades star cluster.
The extraterrestrials communicated with her telepathically using mind transmission, Maria was able to receive “mediumistically”, as she would later explain to members of a society she will soon create with the help of Traute, Gudrun, Sigurn and Heike.

Maria Orsic, the woman who created Earth’s first man-made UFO.

Maria Orsic and the Ladies of Vril had a total of five meetings with various scientific groups in Germany, members of Thule and DHvSS (Die Herren Vom Schwarzen Stein), as well as, with some of Germany’s most distinguished personalities and leading figures in science and various disciplines, occupations and professions, including physicians, linguists, engineers, theorists, writers, philosophers, financiers, and politicians.

All the meetings took place in Munich. They met to discuss the possibility of building a new kind of a super flying machine called Jenseitsflugmaschine, as well as other types of wonder-machines (These machines were discussed much later) which in ufology’s jargon are referred to as UFOs.

The first meeting; Tuesday 16, September 1919: Maria met with Professor Winfried Otto Schumann in a cafe on Arcisstraße, not far from the Technical University of Munich.

They had a preliminary discussion about a technical data on how to build a super flying machine, Maria Orsic received from extraterrestrials from Adelbaran. Maria asked him if he was interested in exploring the possibility of building such a machine. Dr. Schumann was very perplexed but did not reject the idea. He suggested to Maria to gather more data and any other pertinent information for further consideration.

It was a brief meeting but promising.
The second meeting; Friday 19, September 1919: Maria Orsic met once again with Dr. Schumann and gave him a few pages which contained a script written in a language totally unknown to her. Dr. Schumann recognized part of the script and told Maria that he will consult with Friedrich Delitzsch, a noted Assyriologist and expert on ancient languages.
The third meeting; Wednesday 17, December 1919: Maria Orsic, the Ladies of Vril and Dr. Schumann met with other mediums, and members of Thule and DHvSS (Die Herren Vom Schwarzen Stein) in an old printing house near Berchtesgaden.
Everything went well, but not as good and not as fast as Maria wished, for they explained to Maria, that her technical data must be studied very thoroughly and this could take a few months.
They asked Dr. Schumann to submit a detailed scientific report on the material presented by Maria.
It took Dr. Schumann two months to create a concise scientific dossier, and almost 5 months to get the financing, even though members of Thule and DHvSS were wealthy and affluent, and two additional meetings to put everything in order.
The delay seemed to slow down the enthusiasm of Maria, but Dr. Schumann reassured her that everything will be fine.
The fourth and fifth meetings: We don’t have the precise dates, but we know that they occurred between January and mid February of 1920.
Worth mentioning here that Maria was overwhelmed by the presence of some attendees (listed below) because of their political affiliations and by a few intellectuals known for their controversial ideologies, but she had no other alternatives for the time being. Of course, in the following months she would distant herself from some of them, especially when she learned about their true agenda, and the reasons for their interest in building her flying machine. The only person she could fully trust was Dr. Schumann who has become a father figure for Maria.

In order to build the Adelbaran's spaceship, many things had to be done:
1-All the messages received in an unknown script must be accurately translated.
2-The images Maria received telepathically must be interpreted and explained scientifically.
3-Joint effort with other psychics/mediums and financiers to get the financing.
4-Contact scientists and engineers to decipher and explain the technical data on how to build the spaceship, and especially the Jenseitsflugmaschine's sketches.
5-Secure financing from sources not affiliated with the authorities.
6-Keep the whole project secret.

Preliminary notes and comments by Dr. Schumann.

Nota Bene: The following notes were given to Tomislav Orsic, Maria's father, who for a short time, worked at the Technical University of Munchen. Said notes and/or comments were reported by SS General Hans Kammler to the OSS, and later confirmed by General Dr. Walter Dornberger.
Excerpts from Dr. Winfried Otto Schumann's notes on the Jenseitsflugmaschine:

"…I am not sure if Jenseitsflugmaschine could be built. In theory it is possible. I am familiar with the concept of implosion, which has already been discussed by Mr. Schauberger…
Dr. Schapeller's experiments were successful, and in essence the technical data as outlined by Maria do not contradict the findings of both Mr. Schauberger and Dr. Schapeller.
I found it fascinating…I am concerned with her request to keep everything secret; I don't think it is possible, especially if the project is to be discussed with other colleagues whose expertise is much needed to develop the project.
I need more time to consider the whole situation. But definitely I am very interested. This could be an unprecedented exploration of a new kind of science. May I suggest to your daughter to not mention the extraterrestrials' role in all this?

It could alienate reputable scientists, who could show a serious interest in building Jenseitsflugmaschine…"

Karl Haushofer

Viktor Schauberger, father of the “Implosion” technology, and diamagnetism anti-gravity, which closely resembled Maria Orsic’s technical data received from the Aldebaran’s extraterrestrials.

Viktor Schauberger’s Repulsine

Viktor Schauberger’s legendary Repulsine partially used the levitational power of water, Maria Orsic referred to, and based upon technical data she received from the extraterrestrials. Thirty years later, MIT and Caltech would conduct successful experiments in this field.

Viktor Schauberger’s Repulsator.
Believe it or not, MIT and the United States Air Force succeeded in manufacturing a fully operational replica of the Repulsator!!

Comparing Maria Orsic's data with Viktor Schauberger and Karl Haushofer data:

Professor Schumann began to change his opinion about Maria's scientific ignorance, when he finally realized that a wonder-flying machine could be built according to the data she gave him; and this made his efforts much easier in convincing his distinguished academic colleagues to take part in the project of building the Jenseitsflugmaschine. He went two steps further and compared Maria's data with Viktor Schauberger and Karl Haushofer data, and to his astonishment, he found out that: a-Maria' data was scientifically valid, b-The data of Haushofer and Schauberger were not as developed and progressive as her data.

Notes on Maria Orsic's mind-bending extraterrestrials' technical data

The dossier on Maria Orsic Aldebaran's Technical Data (OLPS-17/AGSP: Orsic Levitational Propulsion System 17/Anti-Gravity Spaceship), and particularity:
a-The section on the use of a certain type of "Water" needed as "A propulsion fuel". (Note: the Intraterrestrials, called by colorful ufologists: "Grays or Greys" in their meetings with our military, told us that some of their "Time-Machines" UFOs use water as fuel.) b-Maria Orsic's notes included a fascinating section on water's "levitational properties". Worth mentioning here that in 1932, Viktor Schauberger was able to convince Germany's most distinguished scientists and obviously Heinrich Himmler that water can be used as a fuel, and his Wunder Wasser did in fact use water-powered motors (Called Implosion Motors) to propel a certain type of UFOs. This was documented by scientists who were recruited under the umbrella of Operation Paperclip and military scientists who worked for NASA. In 1958 and later in 1963, the United States Air force experimented with the "Water Vortex", -a top secret project-, the use of water as a source of electro-magnetic energy and propulsion power for the mysterious underwater unidentified submerged objects (USOs). And most recently, AUTEC conducted experiments on the aliens "Corridor-Plama", which allows aliens to navigate underwater at an incredible speed (856 miles per hour) and remain undetected by sonar systems and satellites!

c-The centrifugal movement of the Jenseitsflugmaschine before taking off vertically.

d-The theoretical explanation by Professor Winfried Otto Schumann, who is de facto, the acknowledged father of Germany's UFOs. His Jenseitsflugmaschine gave birth to all the forthcoming UFOs types and classes, including the Rundflugzeung "RFZ", Haunebu I, II, III, and Vril flying discs (Seven types).

e-The file AG002/OM22-C; (I don't know what it stands for!) on the mode of operation blueprints of Germany's first anti-gravity UFOs.

f-The "Implosion Motor" as renicknamed by the United States Air Force and NASA. It Remain classified to this day (Above Top Secret).

Very very few scientists who left Germany and/or worked with the United States on the development of a fully operational UFO had access to those files, to name a few:

1-Dr. von Braun

2-Professor Oberth

3-John Frost

Finally in March of 1922 in Munich, the first secret prototype of Aldebaran’s Jenseitsflugmaschine (Otherworld flight machine; After-Life Flying Machine) saw the light.
It looked impressive and “Out of this world”. But nobody was hundred per cent sure if this thing could really fly, for first, its design was so strange, bizarre and unconventional, and second, making a machine fly without a combustion engine seemed irrational. A flight-test was scheduled for March 23, 1922.

March 23, 1922: The 1st flight-test of the Jenseitsflugmaschine

A fiasco! It was a total failure as many have expected. A gigantic fiasco! Eye witnesses' reports indicated that the machine blew up after spinning and spinning like fireworks, and the upper layer (Top of the machine) disintegrated, and the lower part (The third level) defragmented like a hand-grenade. Those were the actual words ("disintegrated", "defragmented") used by some of the builders of the Jenseitsflugmaschine.
Dr. Schumann was devastated, but Maria never gave hope.
They went back to the drawing board, and began laboriously to reexamine their data. But all their efforts remained in vain. And by now everybody was convinced that it was a crazy idea! Until, three days later, when Maria Orsic rushed to Dr. Schumann's office with an apparent solution.
She provided him with "Guidance" she claimed she just received from the extraterrestrials.
Dr. Schumann sent her back home, and politely said, "Maria, it was a very exciting project, but gravity is much stronger than any idea I came across. Please go home and forget the whole thing." Maria Orsic did not argue with him, instead she handed him a few sketches and a series of formulae…and left with a big smile.

Yes, it can be done!
It took Dr. Schumann only two hours to change his mind, "I thought it was useless until I saw something unusual in Maria's drawings…(We don't know what he saw in the new sketches) and then I realized that yes, it can be done…" said Schumann.-
From Dr. Professor Winfried Otto Schumann's diary/notes.
Upon hearing the news from Dr. Schumann, Maria was relieved, and for the sake of argument she asked him why did he change his mind? We don't know what he said. However we do know that Maria suggested to him to focus his attention on the “Space-time electromagnetic forces”; another concept totally unknown back then.

Dr. Schumann could have not solved the problem without Maria’s help!

Mental command and channeling:
My personal opinion is that Dr. Schumann did not solve the problem in its entirety without the help of Maria Orsic, for we know for sure that Maria Orsic brought up the subjects of:
a-Stargates,
b-The 33.33 degree line,
c-Space-time electromagnetic forces,
d-The mental command of the spaceship.
These four items, Professor Schumann was not familiar with, and especially the “Mental Command” of the ship.
By mental command, Maria meant channeling. And I can guess what the reaction of Dr. Schumann was when he heard Maria Orsic talking about MENTAL COMMAND and CHANNELING!!
In fact, the mental command was of a metaphysico-scientific nature based upon very sophisticated aliens’ technology, and which consisted of a magnetic band attached to the forehead of Maria which would allow her to command the craft at distance.

Headband Mental Command Device:
Maria explained to Dr. Schumann that the Jenseitsflugmaschine failed to perform as expected because it did not have her mental command. Dr. Schumann went ape, and threatened to quit.
But once again, he changed his mind when Maria Orsic gave him instructions on how to design and build the “Headband Mental Command Device”.
It was one surprise after another, but he finally complied with Maria’s request. To many of us, this headband thing seems far fetched, a sort of hallucination in the mind of Maria, but it did materialize, and one set was built.

In fact, a similar headband was retrieved from the debris of a crashed UFO near Roswell in 1947 by the United States Air Force, and was sent to General Arthur Trudeau, then, head of the Foreign Technology Desk at the United States Army's Research and Development Department.

*** *** ***

General Trudeau, the father of the reverse engineering of alien technology program.

General Arthur Trudeau was fascinated by the aliens’ gadget and right away, he solicited the help of two scientists to unlock its mystery, and thus, the reverse engineering of alien technology program began.

Later on General Carl “Tooey” Spaatz became heavily involved with the program.
This is an absolute fact, no question about it!!!
The “Aliens Transcripts of 1947 and 1948” show beyond the shadow of a doubt that the UFO which crashed near Roswell was mentally commanded from and by a metallic (Unknown alloy) band attached to the skull of the aliens, and their suits which were “glued” to their skin, as part of their bodies were also “animated” by the headband.
The spacecraft of the aliens had no apparent navigation devices and/or dashboards.
The aliens’ headband became a major part of the military’s alien reverse engineering research/program. The very same headband, Maria Orsic talked about!

A new spaceship is built.
December 17 of 1923: A new model of the super Jenseitsflugmaschine came to life.

Rebuilding a new spacecraft from scratch was not an easy task.
New material was needed, and it was hard to find. Besides, it was time consuming, and some of the major investors/financiers of the project lost interest, and insufficient funds became a major obstacle, at least in the first stage of rebuilding a new spaceship.
Maria and Ladies of Vril were penniless; money did not mean a thing to them. Maria Orsic earned very little by teaching ballet to beginners and foreign languages to wealthy children.
Her mediumship-channeling séances and services to others were free of charge. And being the oldest in the Society and the leader of her movement, Maria was responsible for the daily expenses of the Vril-Gesellschaft, as well as the welfare of its members.
It was hard time for everybody, except for the wealthy members of Thule and DHvSS who have invested very heavily in the first ill-fated project. Luckily, they did not mind to refinance the new project from A to Z. And thus, by December 17 of 1923, a new model of the super Jenseitsflugmaschine came to life. And the big day arrived; the day of the second flight-test of the spaceship.

Is it going to fly?
Maria was absolutely confident, but not everybody in the group shared her enthusiasm.
Nota Bene: Before, during and after the Jenseitsflugmaschine's successful test-flight, Maria and Sigrun made eight consecutive visits to the hangar where the machine was built, and gave their input and channeling findings to the engineers, especially during the initial stage of construction and the channeled flight-test.
Overseeing the construction of the Jenseitsflugmaschine was not the only reason behind Maria and Sigrun frequent visits to the construction site; they needed to become familiar with the facility, in and out, for one day, Maria and the Ladies of Vril will seize this super flying machine and fly to the stargate of the 33 degree line, where she will rendezvous with the mother-ship of her friends from Adelbaran.
I tend to believe that Dr. Schumann was aware of that fact, but did not say a word to his colleagues.
Why?
I don't know. It is a mystery to me!
Dr. Schumann was a delightful human being, and had lots of respect and admiration for Maria.
He knew she was an extraordinary woman with high ethical standards, and one of a kind. Maria's farewell to Dr. Schumann showed how much they cared for each other.

January, 1924: The first successful flight of Jenseitsflugmaschine

It was a very successful and a spectacular test-flight.
The spacecraft flew at a speed of 300,000 km/hour. But the Jenseitsflugmaschine landed after fifty five minutes as an archaic machine, looking like a young girl who suddenly has aged 100 years. Maria explained this anomaly by referring to what she called "Parallel Zones".

According to Maria, when an object enters a different dimension, its properties are instantly modified, and in some instances totally altered. And this applies to humans too.
The damaged Jenseitsflugmaschine terrified all the engineers, but understandably not Dr. Schumann, because by now, he could tap into the inexplicable metaphysical world of Maria Orsic, and understand the occultic-metaphysical aspect of the project.

Maria: “I am not interested in bombing people and cities.”

Worth mentioning that Maria’s technical data was used to build other types of UFOs; the most noted one was Vril 7 Geist which was built at Arado-Brandenburg, and flew in 1944. Maria guided the Geist mentally via her channeling abilities; it did not need the headband, Dr. Schumann built for her.
In March of 1944, the engineers who previously worked on the successful Jenseitsflugmaschine asked Sigrun if they could use the Vril Triebwerk in the recently built strategic bomber “E.555”, and Sigrun refused categorically.
Maria reacted strongly and said, “I am not interested in bombing people and cities.”

Professor W. O. Schumann from the Technical University, Munich.

The first German UFOs project was led by W. O. Schumann from the Technical University in Munich. Under his guidance, seventeen disk-shaped flying machines with a diameter of 11.5 m were built.

Secretly manufacturing two small flying machines

Maria Orsic asked Professor Schumann to tell the members of the Thule and DHvSS that the project needed more work and the flying machine was not perfect yet.
Maria had justifiable reasons; she feared that if the fanatic members from DHvSS and supporters of Hitler discover that the spacecraft in its actual condition could be successfully and immediately deployed, they would not hesitate a second to use it as a destructive war weapon.
Thus, based upon Schumann's recommendations, Maria Orsic's Vril was sent to a hangar in Munich, for further improvements, and consequently, all flights ceased temporarily.
At the same time, Maria and Sigrun were thinking about secretly manufacturing two small flying machines with all the flying properties of the big one, in case, something should happen to it, be confiscated by the authorities, or even stolen.

Maria Orsic's new two circular crafts:

a-OSS records,
b-CIA Helms' files,
c-Statement by Dr. Eugene Sänger, d-Statement by Major Erich Hartmann, e-Statement by Lt. Colonel Walter Horten, f-And of course Professor Shumann's own testimony,

Show that de facto, Maria Orsic's two circular crafts, 27 feet in diameter were produced with the help of four retired engineers.
RFC-2 was one of the two small spacecrafts, designed by Maria, and developed by Dr. Winfried Otto Schumann and four recently recruited engineers. It was elegant, with a shiny metallic surface, made from an unknown alloy; it was this kind of alloy the Russians were extremely interested in, because we know that Stalin's NKVD discussed with Dr. Eugene Sänger how it could be obtained.
The RFC-2 was spotted and reported on Sunday 18, March 1945, by Lt. Col. Walter Fellenz, serial number 0-23055 from the United States Army, 42nd Infantry Division, 1st Battalion. The sighting was confirmed by Brigadier General Henning Linden.

To this day, nobody knows the properties of the unprecedented alloy of RFC-2 except -as it was leaked out by NASA insiders in 2007-, by a bunch of engineers and metallurgists working for NASA, and especially on the Shuttle's programs.

Dr. Eugene Sänger

The alloy research program began years ago under the guidance of three German scientists who were recruited by Dr. von Braun for Operation Paperclip, right after the Second World War.
The records show that Dr. Schumann recruited four engineers to develop and build Maria's discs:
1-The first was an engineer/architect who previously worked for Messerschmitt's Kokothanki, on the BF 109 G6-14, 2-The second was from Focke-Wulf,
3-The third was from Heinkel,
4-The fourth, from the Bayerische Flugzeugwerke, also known as Bavarian Aircraft Company.

All were carefully and intelligently recruited by Dr. Schumann, because the four scientists had access to material, he desperately needed.

Story confirmed by Major Hartmann:

This story was also confirmed by Major Erich Hartmann when he returned to Germany in October 1955, after spending a 10 year sentence in Russia.

The statements of Major Hartmann appeared in the secret files of Richard Helms (a former CIA director in 1970).

Major Erich Hartmann.
He confirmed that Maria Orsic’s two small circular crafts, 27 feet in diameter were built by Dr. Schumann.

Helms kept a voluminous file on Maria Orsic. In 1945, while serving as the United States intelligence chief in Berlin, Helms obtained vital information on Maria and her Vril spacecraft, yet he kept everything buried in his secret vaults for years.
Major Erich Hartmann died on September 19, 1993 at Weil im Schönbuch. He was considered Germany's greatest fighter ace.
General Dwight Eisenhower admitted that Major Hartmann was the greatest fighter pilot of all times.
Hartmann flew 825 missions and scored 352 victories.
Nota bene:
Professor Schumman did not totally abandon the project.
Records show that he continued with the development of new types and classes of UFOs.

American and Russian interests in the Jenseitsflugmaschine:
From 1946 to 1949, the Russians were extremely interested in the Jenseitsflugmaschine, the German Bell UFOs, and the Nazi extraterrestrials "Super Flying Machines" designed by:

- SS top scientists
- Mediums from "Thule-Gesellschaft"
- Members of the "Thule Society",
- Members of the "Brüder Des Lichts",
- Members from the "Schwarze sonne" and so on.

And of course, Joseph Stalin received numerous reports on Maria Orsic, founder and leader of "Vrilerinnen", the Vril, and her direct contact with extraterrestrials from the Aldebaran.
This is an absolute fact; the original German sketches of the super flying machine and other circular and crescent-shaped flying discs were seized in Germany by a special military task force created by General Dwight Eisenhower, 6 months after the end of World War Two. So everybody, Americans and Russians, British and Poles, French and Italians have heard rumors about Maria Orsic, the German UFOs, and luckily for us, our armed forces in Germany, at the end of the Second World War, put their hands on Germany's secret files on UFO, the RFZ 1 (Rundflugzeug 1), the Horten 229, and several anti-gravity projects carried by Germany's top scientists.

This is documented in:
a-United States naval intelligence files;
b-OSS’s files (Precursor to CIA);
c-British Secret Service (MI6) files;
d-General Dwight Eisenhower Special Task Force reports.
As soon as the Red Army captured Berlin, the Russians began looking for Germany’s top military scientists, and particularly those who worked on Maria’s Vril, the V1, V2, and projects related to UFO.

Andrei Sakharov and Igor Kurchatov.

pausing in front of Konstantin Tsiolkovsky.

The Red Army captured 657 German scientists and shipped them to Moscow. A few weeks later, they were sent to military bases and laboratories scattered in several Russian cities. The secret files of the United States military intelligence during 1945 and early 1946 revealed that: a-15 German scientists died before they began to work on any project related to UFO and similar programs;

b-345 German scientists were immediately deployed in secret locations;
c-32 German scientists were smuggled outside Russia (To Austria and Switzerland) by Allied forces secret agents and spies, and some ended in the United States and Great Britain;
d-100 German scientists became leading figures in the Russian space programs, avionics, weapons systems, and instrumental in numerous space and rockets programs under the leadership of eminent Russian scientists and engineers like: a-Artem Mikoyan
b-Mikhail Gurevich
c-Sputnik's Sergei Korolev
d-Sergey Aleksandrovich Afanasyev
e-Mikhail Tikhonravov

Worth mentioning here that Professor Robert Dopel, Andrei Sakharov, and Igor Kurchatov played an instrumental role in the Russian early study and research of alien reverse engineering.

Question #6: Is there any direct link between aliens and German UFOs?

Answer: Only at the early stage of German UFOs' development, and particularly during Maria Orsic's era.
In other words, the remnants of Nazi Germany scientists and members of the Nazi New World Order have no more ties to the aliens. They have reached a mind-blowing level/standard of technology that allows them to create and operate the most fearsome and complicated machines of all sorts without the help of aliens.

*** *** ***

Question #7: Who had access to Germany UFOs' technology?

Answer: We (Americans) captured tons on files, blueprints and technical data on the early, and mid stage/phase of German UFOs' development production.
This is a well-established fact. Our Allies (Past and present) are well-aware of our findings. In addition, we brought to the United States, thousands of German scientists to work on our space program and the development of anti-gravity flying machines and other exotic and futuristic weapons systems, out of this world. And we have succeeded in designing and building 4 types of UFOs.
The Russians too captured hundreds of German scientists after the collapse of the Third Reich. They were shipped to numerous Russian bases and laboratories in the Ukraine, Armenia, Georgia and others regions of the former Soviet Union. It is my strong belief that the Russians were capable of developing 2 types of UFOs, I should say two classes of UFOs; they are formidable but not exceptionally spectacular like ours.
The Canadians have some 4 classes/types of UFOs, and they are mighty. The British developed 2 types of UFOs, but they look terrible; they are ugly and frightening. They look like avocado.
Les Enfants de la Patrie (The French that is) got nothing.
And they are mad at us. But it's OK, they have Tintin et Milou, and the worst waiters in the world.
The German/Nazi New World Order has the goodies; the most frightening, threatening, powerful, developed and mind-bending UFOs capable of annihilating civilization as we know it.

Question #8: And here is the 46 million Dollars question:

Are UFOs some sort of secret U.S. military crafts? Are they aliens/extraterrestrials' crafts? German crafts?

Answer: 95% of the UFOs people see are German-made.
I am still wondering and asking myself, how come people can't figure it out?! UFOs are not secret American crafts, because if they were, the military and the United States government will not let us see them.
They will not display UFOs floating and overing over our houses, buildings, cities and supermarkets.
They would keep them hidden and secret, and out of our sight.
So the answer is NO, the UFOs doing their ballet dance over our heads are not Americans! Possibly aliens?
No more. In the past, yes!
The bottom line: We are seeing German UFOs.
So why are they here? Why are they invading our space?
Dr. von Braun has already answered the question: Intimidation.
And Dr. Teller told President Harry Truman: It is a challenge…it is harassment. (And he referred to the Nazi New World Order).

Question #9: Are UFOs stored in tunnels under Area 51? Are these tunnels connected to secret aliens' bases?

Answer:
There are no UFOs in underground tunnels. The tunnels are used for different purposes. There are approximately 25 underground tunnels below the main compound of Area 51. And they stretch all the way to Washington, DC, The White House, The Pentagon, the CIA, Langley, Virginia, NASA, Manhattan, Colorado, Maryland, Florida, Pennsylvania, Alaska, Hawaii, the Pacific, and Dulce. You name it.
They are everywhere!!
The UTTC (Underground Tram Transportation Central), also called Central Station, and the Tram is a 55 foot high by 45 foot wide compound of underground tunnels and trains connecting Area 51 to a web of secret undergrounds facilities and locations around the country. Track TR1, like Air Force 1, is a direct track to The White House.

The red tunnel (TR2P) takes you directly to The Pentagon, and to Washington's National Airport. The 2 green tunnels take you to NORAD and Canada.
The gray tunnel (They call it actually "The Gray Line") takes you to Dulce Base.
So there are no UFOs in the tunnels.

Question #10: Where are now Germany's NNWO's UFOs?

Answer:
Everywhere, thanks to the aliens' "Corridor Plasma" and "VT" technologies. Draw direct lines from the Antarctic Circle to the Arctic Circle.
Line 1: This line called W1 (Wind 1), contains their hot spots which include Argentina, Brazil, Venezuela, Bermuda, U.S.A., and the Greenland area.
Line 2: This line called W2 (Wind 2), contains their hot spots which include Galapagos Islands, Mexico, U.S.A., and Canada.
Lines 3: This line called W2 (Wind 2), contains their hot spots which include France, Belgium, Netherlands, Denmark, and Norway.

Question #11: Was the UFO that crashed in Mexico of a German origin?

Answer:
The answer is found in the interrogation of an alien hybrid by a 2 star General at The Pentagon. A senior civilian expert attended the interrogation. Before the hybrid-alien was brought in, the General asked the expert a few questions about the creature.
It went like that:
General: Sorry…, I have to talk to you about this, before we go to the meeting. Sit for a second, please. I received a very disturbing report from the Joint Chief of Staff.

I want your honest opinion, since you have mentioned The Black Shadows S-14, and alien abduction. Am not sure what to believe or who to believe, anymore. I want to settle this matter before the meeting. Look at this photograph. Do you know recognize this man?
Expert: AH Type 3.
General: Correct. Hybrid Alien Type 3.His name is Adril. He works for the CIA at Area 51.I am going to bring him here. He's next room. I want you to listen to him very carefully and tell me what you thing. Don't say a word to him. Just listen. OK?
Expert: General, he doesn't work for the CIA. He works for the Air Force. All AH Type 3 work for the Air Force.
General: You are absolutely sure?
Expert: Yes, General.

The Pentagon's Interview with hybrid Adril.

General…on the phone: Bring him in.
Two guards bring Adril to the room.
General: Have a seat Adril. You still work at Area 51?
Adril: Yes, General.
General: What do you do there?
Adril: Propulsion and reverse-engineering.
General: Where did you work before?
Adril: Holloman, New Mexico. (Holloman Air Force Base, South of Alamogordo, New Mexico).
General: And before that?
Adril: Wright-Patterson, Ohio (Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Fairborn, Ohio), Kirtland, New Mexico (Kirtland, Air Force Base, Albuquerque, New Mexico).
General: Didn't you work also at Andrews, Edwards and Los Alamos?
Adril: For a very short time.
General: What did you do there?
Adril: Reverse-engineering
General: Adril, we have a big problem with your people.
I am not very happy with Colonel… …report. Tell me this…are you still working for the CIA and the Air Force?
Adril: No. For General… …, and sometime at AUTEC.

General: What are you doing at AUTEC?
Adril: I am working on the VT and BCB.
General: The Vortex Tunnel and the Black Conic Box.
Adril: Yes, General.
General: Adril, we found human bodies' parts inside one of your crafts…You know, the one which crashed in Mexico, two weeks ago. And they were Americans!!
Adril: It wasn't our craft, General.
And they were native Mexicans from the Aztec's region, not Americans.
General: You're lying.
Adril: I am not lying. Why don't you check with AUTEC and the Air Force?
General: Whose craft was it then? You can't fool me Adril. It's not ours, for sure. I bet on it! It was one of your updated version Blue Fog T85s. Only you fly those spacecrafts.
Adril: The… …too, fly the T85 and the T85D. You know very well General, the first and second models of T85 and Black Shadows S-14 are flown by the… … and the… … The reactor of the craft that crashed, uses QE, the Quadron Element. Ours use the CW and Plasma AGP (Plasma Anti Gravity Propulsion). And there is a big difference between the two.
Check your catalogue. See Specs… … …
General: We found 2 head-bands inside the craft! Your bands, damned! The bands you use for communication and underwater navigation. I know all about it. You attach them to your forehead to fly the craft. We don't have head-bands in our inventory.
Adril: The… …have head-bands too, General!
General: Adril, abducting people is inadmissible! This is a big problem for us!! We have to stop this. And right now. You promised us no more abductions. What are you anyway?
Ardi-Nishtaar? Hybrid? Aren't you also half human? Don't you feel anything for the abductees?
Adril: We are not abducting anybody, General. All abductions stopped 9 months ago. Somebody else is doing it, not us.
General: Who? Tell me who?
Adril: If not the…, then somebody else from another dimension. Admiral… … knows all about it.

General: Then, you have to do something about it.
Adril: We can't. There is nothing we can do, General.
They are time machines, difficult to spot, impossible to chase.
General: Can't you shoot those bastards?
Adril: No general.
General (Looking at the civilian expert): I know somebody who can. OK, you can go. Hold on.
The General buzzes security. Two guards enter the room, and they escort Adril out.
General: What do you think …(Talking to the civilian expert)?
Expert: He is lying through his teeth.
General: What makes you say that?
Expert: His neck was puffing. That's what happens when hybrids lie.
General: Bastards!

Question #14: The German NNWO's UFOs must be mind-blowing spacecrafts in order to bring apocalypse on Earth?
Are they entirely German or the results of cooperation with aliens?

And how much do we know about their striking force?

Answer:
There are several types and classes of German UFOs which stretch over a period of almost 85 years. The general public and ufologists are to a certain degree familiar with the first types of German UFOs which were either produced or designed during WWII, such as the Arado-Brandenburg's Geist Vril 7, the Jenseitsflugmaschine, Die Glocke, Rundflugzeug RFZ-1 to 7, and Haunebu, etc. Even though, they were the prototype of forthcoming magnificent machines, and considered archaic by NNWO's new technological/scientific standards, these machines can wipe out all the crafts and jets we have at our disposal, in matter of hours.
Those UFOs are no longer in use.
The German UFOs/USOs which were mass-produced between 1946 and 1958 are more sophisticated and deadlier, yet the high command of the NNWO removed them from their inventory, and were replaced by the most formidable and destructive UFOs of all time, such as Die Mutterschiff Einsatzkommando, S1 & S2 types, which is the "Mothership", and the ultimate striking force of NNWO which flew over many areas in the United States, including Arizona, Texas, and Nevada. The triangular spacecraft, the Schwarzer Wind, which flew over Belgium, Brazil, Mexico and the United States, and the multi-acrobatic series of all, the Die Schwerkraft Aufhebemaschine, which flew over Mexico, Chile Argentina, The Bahamas, Bermuda Triangle area, and the United States.
And of course, the super heavy one, the Jenseitsflugmaschine, Version V-12. To compare a WWII UFO to Die Mutterschiff Einsatzkommando, to Die Schwerkraft Aufhebemaschine, or to the Mehrlagige Kuppel, which flew over Russia, Poland, Holland, Belgium, and the United States, is like comparing a Ford T Model to a Concorde.
Their striking force is beyond our comprehension.
They can wipe out the entire United States and Russia air forces in minutes. We don't know much about their mode of operation and technical specifications and characteristics.

Years ago, the American administration compiled extensive files on the earliest types of Germany UFOs.
Few had access to those files. In addition to the top brass at the Pentagon, the USAF, and the elite of German scientists we have recruited during 2 years, few presidents, presidential advisors and scientists were able to construct an idea about the striking force, capabilities and flight mysteries of those spacecrafts, to name a few, President Richard Nixon, President George Bush Sr., Allen Welsh Dulles, Richard Helms, Dr. Dennis Gabor, Dr. Edward Teller, John R. Steelman, Dr. James B. Conant, Dr. Vannevar Bush, and of course Bob Haldeman, President Nixon's Chief of Staff, who was introduced to the world of UFOs by General Robert Landry, President Truman's Air Force Aide Question #15: Did Harry Truman, his administration and the military orchestrate a cover up?

Answer: From day one, President Truman and the Pentagon did not want us to know a thing about UFOs. So for now, let's keep the NSA and the CIA on the back burner.
The President had multiple reasons to cover-up everything, while the military had only 3 reasons outlined as follows:
1-The UFOs are a purely "Military Secret", thus, the whole situation should remain exclusively under military jurisdiction and authority;
2-Preventing the Russians from knowing what the military knew about the German UFOs, and what the military was doing;
3-The military could not come up with a plausible explanation of what these UFOs were in reality, and how to reassure us that the UFOs were no danger to the American people.
Before February 1947, the United States military believed that UFOs were extraterrestrials. The OSS and the legendary Richard Helms concluded that the UFOs were German-made, and the Nazi and occult groups in Berlin and Munchen who had some sort of connection with extraterrestrials were an intricate part of the creation and development of UFOs, and other enigmatic flying machines. In other words, the UFOs were part German, part extraterrestrial. For an extended period of time, top German scientists (Nazi or not Nazi) who were recruited by us would not talk about the true origin of the UFOs.

Some would say that the UFOs were German-made, others, like Dr. von Braun and Dr. Herman Oberth, reluctantly would admit that the German got help from extraterrestrials.
We have on record, a statement by Dr. Oberth which de facto ascertains that the German scientists got help from the aliens.
After April 1947, the military changed its opinion about the nature and origin of the UFOs, and became convinced that the UFOs of the era were the results of the research of Victor Schauberger, General Dr. Dornberger, Dr. von Braun, Alexander Lippisch, Dr. Richard Miethe, Karl Schapeller, SS General Jakob Sporrenberg, General Ernst Udet, Dr. Schumann, perhaps Maria Orsic, so on. They based their original convictions on UFOs' patents registered in Germany, and drawings, maps and sketches of engines, machines, and crafts invented by Nazi scientists, such as, to name a few: Lippisch aerodune,
Lippisch DM-1 (Delta Wing Plane),
Lippisch's supersonic and transcontinental bomber (Prototype of the Aurora), Arthur Sack's circular flying machine,
the German ME 163,
Rudolph Schriever's technical data,
Alberto Fenoglio's sketches and blueprints,
the Horten 229,
Heinrich Focke 1939 patent of his VTOL HW Scnellflugzeug Rochen,
The sketches of the Geist Vril series,
The sketches of UFOs found in hangars in Letow, Breslaw and Dresden,
The notes of Karl Haushofer,
The interrogations of General Friedrich Wilhelm Müller,
The photos of the Andromeda Gerät,
The photos and technical data of the Rundflugzeug RFZ series (7 types) and the Haunebu series, Schauberger's Repulsine and Repulsator, so on.

The UFOs were considered a “Military Secret”:
In summary, the German UFOs were considered by the military as a top secret military affair, and consequently the American public, the media, as well as other intel and national security agencies should not know a thing about UFOs. Only the military should deal with UFOs. It was purely a “Military Secret” and had nothing to do with politics.

General Hoyt S. Vandenberg

General Hoyt S. Vandenberg's intimidation and cover-up:
One of the master-minds of this theory was General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, a hero in his own right, and who was considered to be one of the most feared and powerful generals in American history.
Probably, the General was right, taking into consideration that German UFOs were a "military secret". And military secrets should never be divulged. I totally agree with him.
However, I totally disagree with General Vandenberg's tactics to deceive and even to intimidate all those (military, high ranking officers, scientists) who were assigned the duties to investigate German military technology and report on UFOs and DISTORT the truth! In my opinion, he was the architect par excellence of the most elaborate UFOs' cover-ups in military history.
Here is a brief synopsis of what he did.
In April 1948, intensive investigations and assessment of German UFOs, as well as recent UFOs' sightings reports were sent to General Vandenberg, for in that year, the General was in charge of everything related to UFOs. The reports included very clear photos of the UFOs, new testimonies by German scientists, and witnesses' accounts (Pilots and military-men who saw the UFOs). The General refused the reports and commented that the UFOs' sightings and the witnesses' accounts could and should not be taken seriously for lack of evidence.

In other words, he categorically rejected everything!
Why the General did not believe his own people? And why did he discredit the professional assessment of military experts?
But did he? No, ladies and gentlemen, the General believed every word in the reports, but he wanted to crash all sorts of stories about UFOs, and prevent witnesses from reporting any thing on UFOs, including his own men.
Furthermore, he instructed his people to describe the UFOs' sightings as hoaxes, to discredit and ridicule all those who report UFOs sightings.
In addition, he threatens captains, majors and colonels who pursue and authenticate UFOs sightings and credible reports, and let them know that they will be court-martialed!!

Richard Helms

Note on Mr. Helms: Mr. Richard Helms did not share with President Truman what he knew about the German UFOs. And he had a good reason for not revealing secrets about the German UFOs, for he did not want the Russians to know a thing about the NAZI UFOs' program.
This is quite proper, legal and understandable.

President Truman was the first and most informed American President on anything related to UFOs and aliens.

Harry Truman was the first American President to fully control the CIA, simply because he created the agency by signing the National Security Act of 1947, and after abolishing the OSS (Office of Strategic Services) and getting rid of General William Donovan, a protégé of President Franklin Roosevelt and former head of the OSS. The CIA was his baby. President Truman was also the first and most informed American President on anything related to UFOs, intraterrestrials and extraterrestrial affairs, seconded only by President George Bush Sr., who served as Director of Central Intelligence from January 30, 1976 to January 20, 1977. (Replacing William Colby) President Harry Truman was also the first American President to receive full report and detailed data on the German UFOs, Nazi exotic weapons, and Foo Fighters.

President Truman was delighted to see ufologists and a large portion of the general public spreading stories and allegations about aliens and extraterrestrial UFOs. The CIA warned him; he was told that the whole charade could backfire, but he did not give a damn. Insiders talked about how much President Truman distrusted the CIA. He learned and inherited “distrusting people and agencies” from his boss, President Roosevelt.

By the end of the forties and the beginning of the fifties, President Truman knew that he will be dealing with German UFOs, instead of extraterrestrial UFOs.

Harry Truman, Dwight Eisenhower and George Bush Sr. were vividly interested in the UFOs’ question; but Truman was the first to create a protocol and procedures on how to initiate and conduct investigations, and gather information about UFOs.

President Truman allocated huge secret budgets for research on German UFOs, and how German flying saucers could be used militarily. However, by the end of his presidency, he lost interest in UFOs and aliens, who once he called “Space Monkeys”! But did he?

There are quite a few top secret Presidential memoranda signed by President Harry Truman, President Dwight Eisenhower and President Richard Nixon, which gave full authority to the CIA to disseminate information to confuse, disorient and misinform the Soviet Union.

In one of President Truman’s secret memoranda, a reference was made to the aliens’ influence and remnants of Nazi aerospace engineers’ total control over strategic military points that could cause embarrassment to the United States Air Force, Navy and Army. Nevertheless, the term “Alien Technology” was quickly and secretly replaced by “Nazi UFOs” and “German Technology.”

Truman did not trust anybody.

President Truman made it clear that these subjects should NOT be made public, communicated to the armed forces, and shared with other agencies.

He Okayed operations to uncover and investigate anything and everything related to German UFOs. He ordered the CIA to gather everything they could find, here and abroad on German UFOs, and investigate/assess OSS reports and findings on German technology and scientists.
By the same token, he specifically informed the agency that he is NOT interested in reading their reports on German UFOs and learning about their findings. (One of his deceptive tactics!) He gave the agency carte blanche, with unlimited authority and power.
He also authorized the agency to solicit the help of foreign agents, if necessary. The agency did. European spies, Russian operatives and British agents worked for the agency.
The agency recruited four former British code breakers, who cracked the code of the German Enigma Machine at the signals intelligence center at Bletchley Park in England. In fact, two scientists from Poland were the first to unlock the complicated mechanism of Enigma, and decipher its codes, and not the Brits. Alan Turing, was one of the first British code breakers who joined the agency's efforts to learn more about aliens symbols and codes. Again, the word "Aliens" was replaced by "German Technology".
On more than one occasion, President Truman told the head of the agency not to bother him anymore with UFOs/aliens' stuff.
In the same time, he made it clear to him, that nobody, no other agency, no one, not even the Air Force should know about this.
In other words, and simply put, the agency had to report to nobody, to no one!
Director of the FBI, Edgar J. Hoover and the military found out and were pissed off. Later on, when the Pentagon and the Air Force became heavily involved with UFOs, and took over the whole thing, Director Edgar J. Hoover wrote to them and asked to be permanently informed. In one of his letters he precisely showed an interest in the recovered dead bodies of three aliens.
The military ignored his request, and he went berserk.
But somehow, Hoover managed to get some very important documents from the intelligence agency.

Although President Truman gave full authority to the agency to take care of the German UFOs' business, secretly, he created his own committee to oversee what the agency was doing.
It is very ironic, because in a previous secret memo, and during a verbal communication with the director of the agency, President Truman made it clear to him that he is not interested in reading the reports and findings of the agency on UFOs and aliens (He called them "Space Monkeys!")

In fact, it is not so ironic, if you know a little bit about the character of President Truman.
He did it and said it on purpose, so he would and could legally and "honestly" deny any knowledge of the aliens, and UFOs.
He was protecting the "integrity of the office of the President of the United States." Later on, it was discovered that President Harry Truman’s intention was much broader. President Truman wanted to set the foundation of isolating any politician, any senator, any congressman, including future presidents from knowing anything about German UFOs. It seems bizarre, but it did happen.

His last communications with the Director of the agency would occur exclusively in the Oval Office, and only Marshall was allowed to be present. Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal was barred from all the meetings.

General William Donovan receiving a medal from President Harry Truman. And short after, Tuman fired Donovan. History repeats itself!

George Tenet, a former Director of the CIA receiving his medal from President George Bush. And short after Bush fired Tenet. History repeats itself! Mr. Tenet (A great patriot) was victimized!

To set the record straight:

Yes! They knew about German UFOs and their post-war secret bases.

During the Second World War, Germany was sending fleets of submarines, ships, and exotic spacecrafts (UFOs) to their unofficial colony, the Neu Schwabenland in the Antarctic, and to other secret locations and underground bases known only to Himmler, Kammler and to an elite of their military scientists.
Insiders, as well as United States and British intelligence confirmed that those underground secret bases were later used by the Germans after the war, as their new headquarters and center for their UFOs. Files upon files confiscated by the allies at the secret German bases in the Harz Mountains, Thuringia and Peenemünde referred to the Antarctic's locations.

Allen Welsh Dulles.

The OSS and United States military intelligence compiled lists and dossiers on highly advanced types and new classes of post-war German UFOs which were built at those locations.

In 1950, one of the CIA's secret memoranda revealed that in fact, a highly advanced type of German UFOs, as well as the UFOs seen over the United States and Europe came from the Antarctic's German new headquarters.

In 1951, the Soviet Union and the United States secretly and jointly sent two expeditions to Antarctica to spy on post-war Germany's new UFOs' centers and underground factories in Neu Schwabenland.

The expeditions were mentioned in a secret CIA memorandum issued by General Walter Bedell Smith, then director of the CIA, and in a secret memorandum issued by Allen Welsh Dulles, then the Deputy Director of the Agency.

General Dr. Walter Dornberger.

In addition to the immense Neu Schwabenland's UFOs' centers, post-war Germany's scientists also established secret UFOs' factories in remote areas in Canada; this was confirmed by:
Dr. von Braun,
Major Erich Hatmann,
Erna Flegal,
Rudolph Schriever,
Dr. Hermann Oberth,
General Dr. Walter Dornberger,
Dr. Heinrich Richard Miethe,
Dr. Albert Kochendoerfer,
Dr. Bruno Wolf Bruckmann,
Robert Seamans (Associate NASA Administrator),
Walter Haeussemann (NASA Director of Astrionics Division), Major General John Barclay, and of course, by Lt. Colonels Walter and Reimar Horten.

General John Samford played a major role in the Roswell’s incident’ coverup. He issued a ridiculous statement, but he was following orders.

General Roger Maxwell Ramey distorted the whole truth about the Roswell’s incident. He was also following strict orders from The Pentagon.

General Curtis LeMay was the master-mind behind many UFOs/USOs’ cover-ups. He was tough like steel.

General Arthur Gilbert Trudeau was the most honest one! He was the first high ranking military officer to work on UFOs’ reverse engineering, and to allow German and Nazi scientists and engineers to participate in numeous reverse-engineering programs.

Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, General Nathan F. Twinning revealed explosive information about UFOs/USOS, but was silenced.

PART TWO

YES! Extraterrestrials Were Here
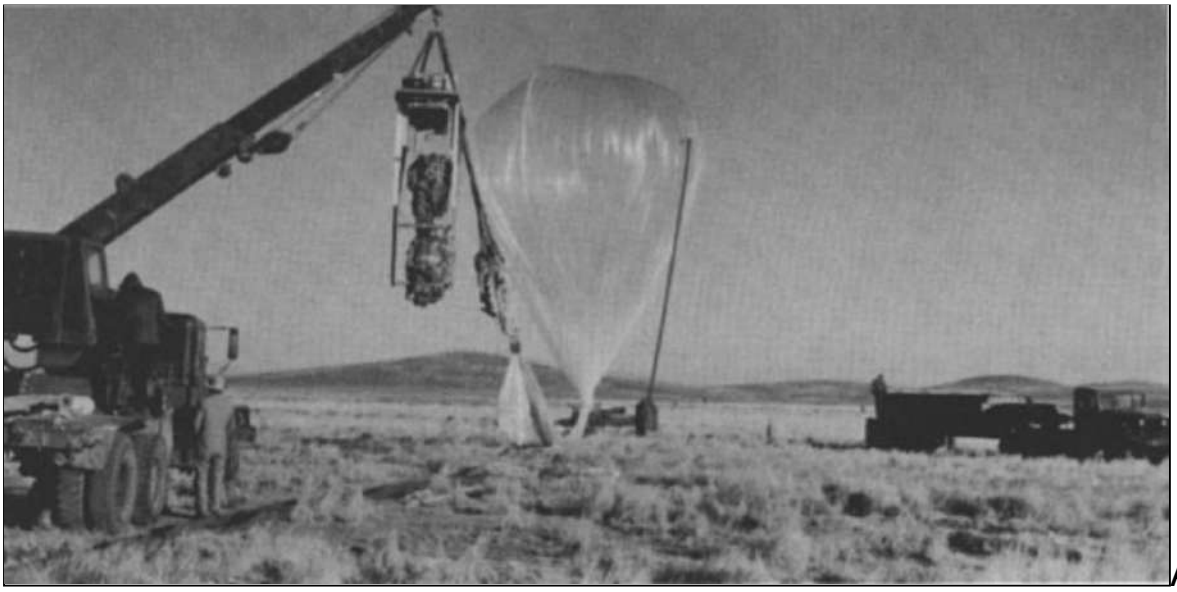
And Alien UFOs Are Real In Certain Instances!

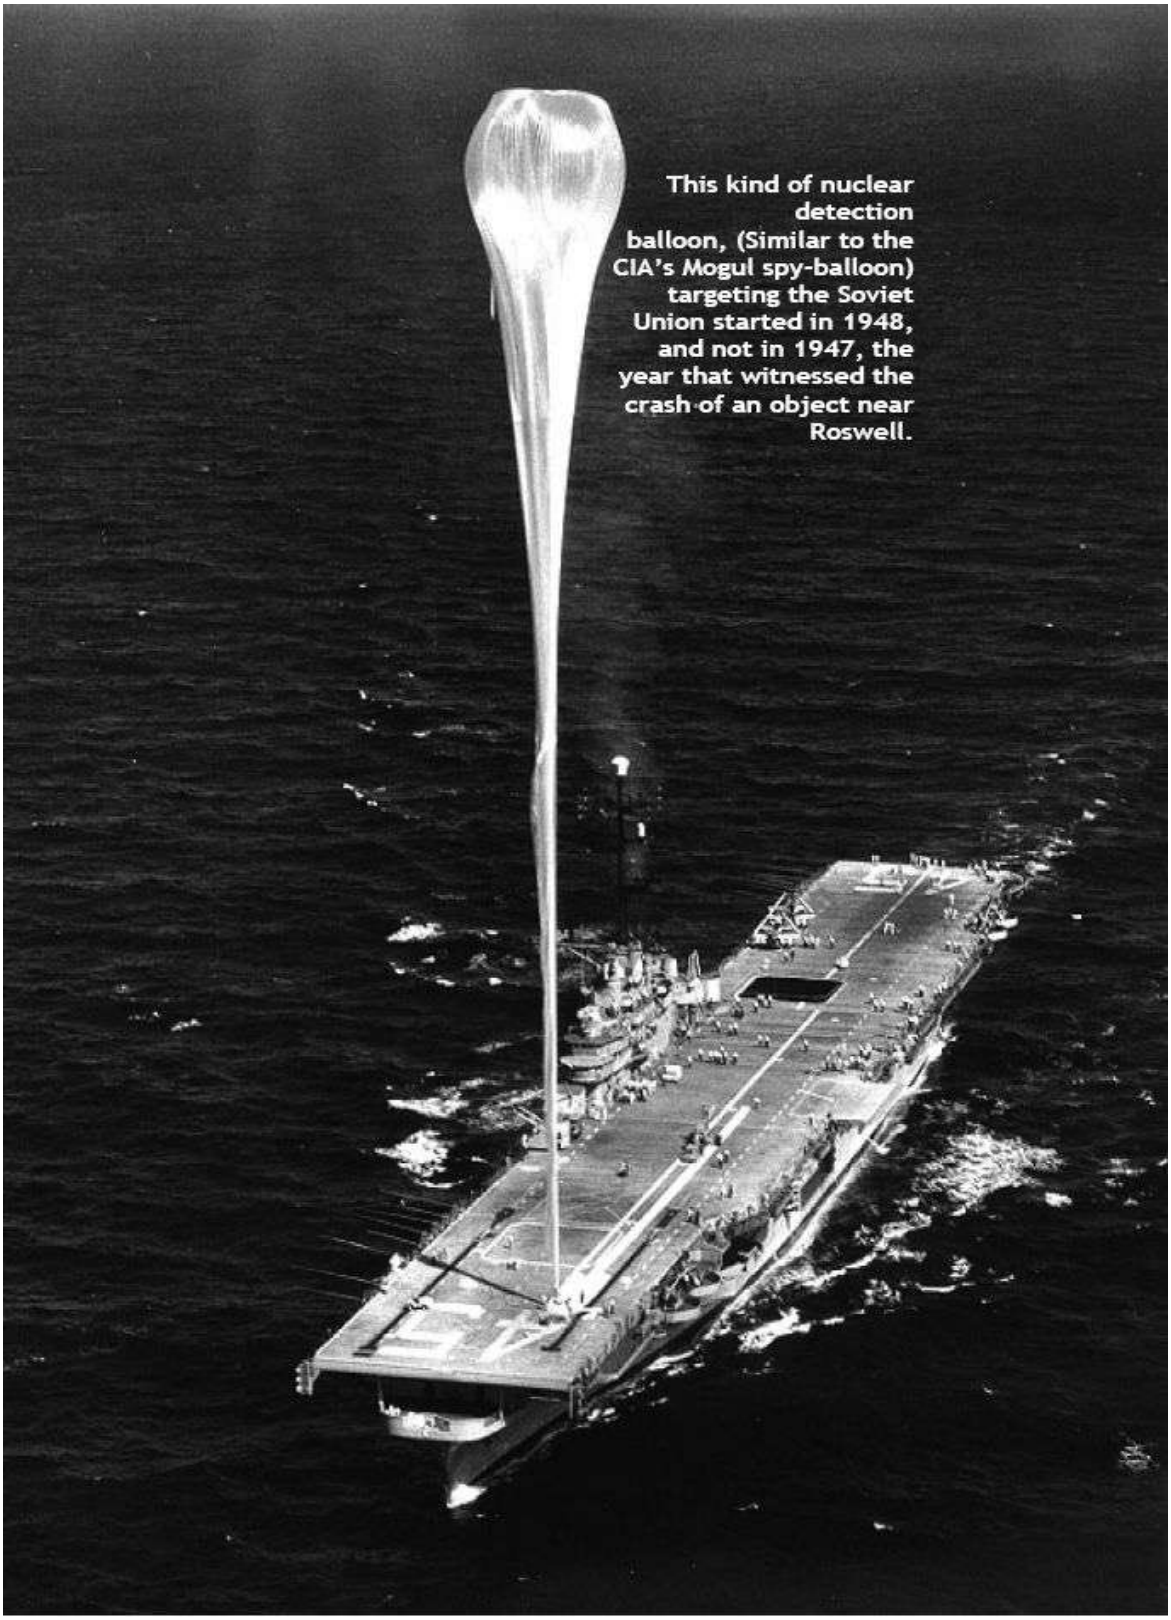
The Roswell Incident



A high-dive military balloon transporting anthropomorphic dummies; this or similar balloons (Weather balloons, Mogul spy-balloon) had nothing to do with the object that has crashed near Roswell.

An alien UFO did crash nearby Roswell. It did happen!

a-The military's version: Some high ranking military officers fabricated false, inconsistent, contradictory and hard to believe statements about the crash of a certain object near Roswell.



This kind of nuclear detection balloon, (Similar to the CIA's Mogul spy-balloon) targeting the Soviet Union started in 1948, and not in 1947, the year that witnessed the crash of an object near Roswell.

I said some “High ranking military officers”, and not the Department of Defense, the United States Air Force, or the United States Government. There is a big difference; pause for a few seconds and think about what I have just said and you could possibly understand what I meant.

First, they told us that they captured a flying saucer. A few hours later, they changed the whole story, and we were told it was a weather balloon. It did work for a while, but they changed their story once again, when people began to dig deeper inside the belly of the saucer and the balloon, and we were told that it was a high altitude top secret spy-balloon from Project Mogul.
Military records show that the United States military did not experiment with high altitude spying balloons to spy on Russians nuclear tests before 1948. This is an ABSOLUTE fact!
Besides, the crashed object was not a saucer-shaped object, but a crescent-shaped object. So they lied to us on all counts.

b-The ufologists’ version:
The ufologists and their followers rushed to conclude that what has crashed near Roswell was an extraterrestrial flying saucer piloted by aliens, based upon eye-witnesses accounts.
So far so good.
But what amuzed me tremendously was their explanation of the crash; an explanation given by some ufologists who have earned masters degrees in nuclear physics, astrophysics, and aerospace engineering. Those learned scientific ufologists told us that the extraterrestrial flying saucer crashed because it was hit by lightning. They should know better.
This explanation does not make sense at all. Most certainly, the extraterrestrials from incredibly high advanced civilizations who conquered space, infiltrated the fabric of time-space, bent time, reversed the laws of physics, and traveled 15 to 150 light-year distance, should know how to shield their spacecrafts from lightning and protect their crafts against electrical charges.
The highly advanced aliens, who are millions of years ahead of us, must have developed by now, some sort of technology, a tool, or an instrument to avoid electrical charges and lightning strikes. We did!

So when the reasoning behind, and the justification for an argument or a theory lack logic, common sense and especially basic knowledge of facts, the theory itself, the argument itself, the explanation itself, the justification itself crumbles instantly. The unidentified flying object or aliens' saucer if you prefer, did not crash for that reason. Ufologists' scientific explanation of the crash is not scientific at all; it shows how little they know about alien' crafts, mode of operation, mechanism, nature, time-space, and related areas of discoveries and knowledge.

According to what it is known to us as the "1947-1948 Aliens Transcripts" or "The 1947-1948 Aliens Meetings Transcripts", the Roswell flying object crashed because it "missed a time-space pocket." But what is a "Time-Space Pocket"?

Always according to the Aliens Transcripts, aliens spacecrafts do not fly, they jump; they jump from one time-space pocket to another time-space pocket.

This is why they have sudden and sharp turns and irregular-angular "flight" patterns and maneuverability that defy our laws of physics. And these time-space pockets open up for a few seconds, sometimes, a fraction of a second. If the alien craft does not penetrate that pocket before it closes up on itself, the craft "smashes itself against a time-space wall."

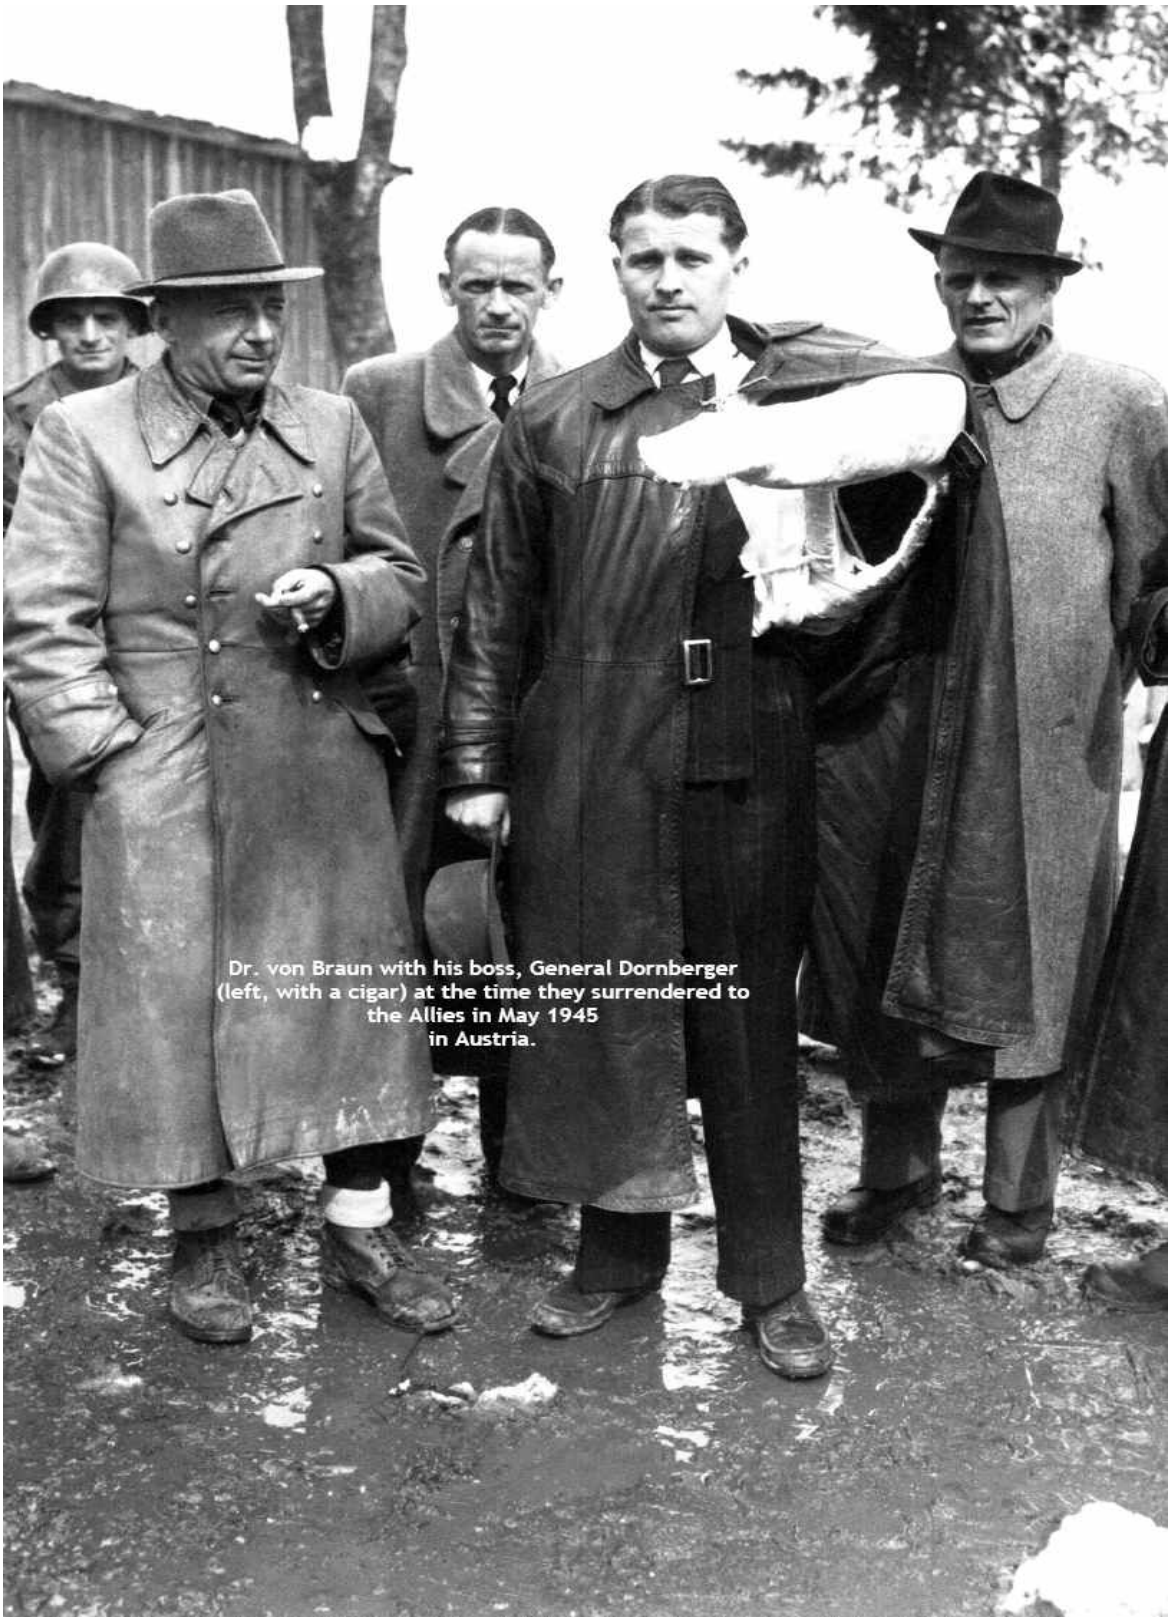
This was the scientific explanation given to us by aliens we met in 1947 and in 1948. And the aliens' explanation was fully accepted some 35 years later, by quantum physics scientists who were contracted or employed by the United States Army, USAF, CIA, NSA, DOD, DOE, NASA, and various governmental intelligence and space research and programs agencies.

c-The Nazi and or German space technology's theorists:

Those who belong to a group of scientists, authors and theorists who believe that all the flying saucers were/are built by German scientists during and after the Collapse of the Third Reich were mistaken when they argued that the flying saucer that crashed near Roswell was built by German scientists.

They were very much mistaken because German rockets pioneer and illustrious scientist, Dr. Oberth, General Dornberger, and Dr. von Braun, father of the American space program who put us on the Moon, and who previously worked on anti-gravity flying discs during the Third Reich, the three of them confirmed in two separate secret memoranda that the crashed craft was neither of a German origin, nor based upon German technology.
They should know better than anybody else, since for years, they have worked on similar flying discs in Nazi Germany.

Dr. Von Braun, right, holds the coveted Hermann Oberth award, presented to him by Dr. Oberth, left, on October 19, 1961, during an Alabama Section Meeting of the American Rocket Society. Early in his career, Von Braun was a student of Oberth, one of the world's foremost theorists on space propulsion. (Source: NASA) _____



Dr. von Braun with his boss, General Dornberger (left, with a cigar) at the time they surrendered to the Allies in May 1945 in Austria.

d-The skeptics and debunkers' version:

They argue that the crashed object near Roswell was nothing but a weather balloon, or a spy-balloon. They are mistaken too, for we already know that the military's version is a pure fabrication, and a messy coverup.

Autopsy of the alien dead body at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

Following the crash of an alien spaceship, indexed as Category AC1 (A=Alien; C=Craft; 1=Type 1), an autopsy was conducted on a dead alien body at Walter Reed Hospital (Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington, DC/Maryland).
And what the pathologists found astonished us immensely.
We did not know how to adequately and scientifically describe the internal organs of the aliens, how they functioned and what gave "a motion" to the alien's body.
The liquid that emerged from the alien's "glands" during the autopsy was of a green color and had an intoxicating odor. At first, we thought it was blood.
But surprisingly, it did not coagulate after it has been exposed to the air, as usually it happens with human blood. The pathologists became very confused, and consequently, more physicians were brought in to assess the situation. Still, no progress was made.

This confusion intensified, once the pathologists discovered that:

- 1-The alien had no glands,
- 2-The alien had no retina,
- 3-The alien had no genital organs,
- 4-The alien's so-called blood (Green liquid) had no cells, as it is the case with human blood which contains three types of cells:

a-Leukocytes (white blood cells),

b-Erythrocytes (red blood cells),
c-Thrombocytes (platelets)

Walter Reed Army Medical Center

The Walter Reed Army Medical Center (WRAMC), where the aliens' autopsy was conducted in 1947. Walter Reed is about six miles from the Pentagon. Walter Reed Army Medical Center is located in Northern Washington, D.C. at 6900 Georgia Avenue NW, Washington DC 20307, between Rock Creek Park and Georgia Avenue near the Maryland (District of Columbia boundary.)

Consequently, more specialists were added to the roster.
And their names were never revealed to outsiders.
However, the number of physicians began to decrease by the mid of 1949, partially because the aliens began to explain to us how:

- 1-Their body functions,
- 2-What was that green liquid we thought it was blood,
- 3-How the tissues react to pulses,
- 4-Why didn’t they have muscles, cells, blood, and genital organs,
- 5-How they reproduce.

By December of 1949, only one surgeon remained on the list of the attendees. And by the mid of 1950, no further medical staff was deemed necessary by the military. However two registered nurses were called upon from time to time.
Later on, the Lt. nurse was transferred to West Germany, and the other one to Walter Reed.
Conspiracy theorists and ill-informed ufologists claimed that a nurse who allegedly attended an autopsy on a military base nearby Roswell vanished from the face of the earth, because the military got rid of her. This claim is false! The Lt. nurse reached the rank of a major and was honorably discharged at age 49. The other nurse retired from the army at age 42, and died at age 81, somewhere in England. And none of them revealed any pertinent information about any kind of alien autopsy…to a certain degree.

14-Project Luna:
Objectives: The investigation and assessment of alien bases and underground facilities on the dark side of the Moon.
Authority or agency: NSA, NASA, CIA and Air Force.
15-Project Crystal Knight: The information came from sources connected to the British intelligence organization MI6.

Objectives/operation: It focuses on the experiences, and assessment of data/information of all those who were directly connected with aliens' projects following initial contacts with extraterrestrials in 1940s.
Authority or agency: U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), NSA, and CIA.
16-Project SERPO: Whistleblowers and some military insiders claimed that a 12-person U.S. military team was sent to the home planet of visiting extraterrestrials during the 1960s and 70s.
The planned 10-year stay was a part of an exchange program and was reportedly called Project Crystal Knight, with the later code name Project SERPO after the team returned home.
Authority or agency: U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), Air Force, and NASA.
17-TAC Star Project:
Objectives: Utilizing a newly created military communication system (TAC-STAR), the US Air Force and NASA were able to somehow (never understood how) wire in instructions to military spatial stations located beyond but nearby Earth's orbit, by using a TAC-STAR keyboard.
Mode of operation: This would enable the military and scientists to type English letters into the alien communication system. One military scientist said: "Our numbering system was similar to that of the aliens, and although our numerical designations were different, we were able to use lines, dots and numbers to indicate the corresponding number. After several exchanges of messages, the aliens got it before we got theirs. It was obvious to us that we were dealing with a highly advanced civilization… they did not send complete sentences, but they sent enough for us to understand the meaning of the message.
From that point on, we communicated only in English except for numbers. We grasped their numbering system pretty quickly and used their numbering system since we did not wish to provide them with wrong landing coordinates.
We eventually provided them with the latitude and longitude coordinates."

Authority or agency: U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), United States Air Force, and NASA. See TAC Star Project.

19-MK Ultra Mind Control Program: Self-explanatory.
Authority or agency: CIA.

Pentagon's interrogation of a hybrid-alien.

Question #2 : Did a 2 star general interrogate an alien at the Pentagon?
Did it happen, or this is a pure fabrication? And if so, did the alien reveal significant information backed up by facts and military data?

Answer: You bet! It did happen. If you are an insider and/or a "contributor" to United States black operations and pertinent programs, you would instantly admit the veracity of the event.
Herewith a brief excerpt from the interrogation.
Note: The names were altered to protect the identity of officials.
General Ramsey interviewing Alien Hybrid Adril.
In General Ramsey's office at the Pentagon: General Ramsey and Dr. Robert Hutton discuss an alien abduction case in Mexico.
General Ramsey: Sorry Bob, I have to talk to you about this, before we go to the meeting. Off the record. Sit for a second, please. I received a very disturbing report from the Joint Chief of Staff. I want your honest opinion, since you have mentioned the Black Shadows S-14, and alien abduction. Am not sure what to believe or who to believe, anymore. I want to settle this matter before the meeting.

Look at this photograph. Do you know recognize this man?
Dr. Robert Hutton: AH Type 3.
General Ramsey: Correct. Hybrid Alien Type 3. His name is Adril. He works for the CIA at Area 51. I am going to bring him here. He's next room. I want you to listen to him very carefully and tell me what you thing. Don't say a word to him. Just listen. OK?
Dr. Robert Hutton: General, he doesn't work for the CIA. He works for the Air Force. All AH Type 3 work for the Air Force.
General Ramsey: You are absolutely sure?
Dr. Robert Hutton: Yes, General.
General Ramsey on the phone.
General Ramsey: Bring him in.
Two guards bring Adril to the room.
General Ramsey: Have a seat Adril. You still work at Area 51?
Adril: Yes, General.
General Ramsey: What do you do there?
Adril: Propulsion and reverse-engineering.
General Ramsey: Where did you work before?
Adril: Holloman, New Mexico. (Holloman Air Force Base, South of Alamogordo, New Mexico).
General Ramsey: And before that?
Adril: Wright-Patterson, Ohio (Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Fairborn, Ohio),Kirtland, New Mexico (Kirtland, Air Force Base, Albuquerque, New Mexico).
General Ramsey: Didn't you work also at Andrews, Edwards and Los Alamos?
Adril: For a very short time.
General Ramsey: What did you do there?
Adril: Reverse-engineering
General Ramsey: Adril, we have a big problem with your people. I am not very happy with Colonel Douglas' report.
Tell me this…are you still working for the CIA and the Air Force?
Adril: For General Hutchinson, and sometime at AUTEC.
General Ramsey: What are you doing at AUTEC?
Adril: I am working on the VT and BCB.

General Ramsey: The Vortex Tunnel and the Black Conic Box.
Adril: Yes, General.
General Ramsey: Adril, we found human bodies' parts inside one of your crafts…You know, the one which crashed in Mexico, two weeks ago. And they were Americans!!
Adril: It wasn't our craft, General.
And they were native Mexicans from the Aztec's region, not Americans.
General Ramsey: You're lying.
Adril: I am not lying. Why don't you check with AUTEC and the Air Force?
General Ramsey: Whose craft was it then? You can't fool me Adril. It's not ours, for sure. I bet on it! It was one of your updated version Blue Fog T85s. Only you fly those space crafts.
Adril: The Dragos too, fly the T85 and the T85D. You know very well General, the first and the second models of T85 and Black Shadows S-14 are flown by the Dragos and the Naftari.
The reactor of the craft that crashed uses QE, the Quadron Element. Ours use the CW and Plasma AGP (Plasma Anti Gravity Propulsion) and there is a big difference between the two. Check your catalogue.
General Ramsey: We found two head-bands inside the craft! Your bands, damned! The bands you use for communication and underwater navigation. I know all about it. You attach them to your forehead to fly the craft. We don't have head-bands in our inventory.
Adril: The Dragos have head-bands too.
General Ramsey: Adril, abducting people is inadmissible! This is a big problem for us!! We have to stop this. And right now. You promised us no more abductions. What are you anyway?
Ardi-Nishtaar? Hybrid? Aren't you also half human? Don't you feel anything for the abductees?
Adril: We are not abducting anybody, General. All abductions stopped 9 months ago. Somebody else is doing it, not us.
General Ramsey: Who? Tell me who?
Adril: If not the Dragos, then somebody else from another dimension. Admiral Roscoe knows all about it.
General Ramsey: You have to do something about it.

Adril: We can’t. There is nothing we can do. They are time machines, which are difficult to spot, and impossible to chase.
General Ramsey: Can’t you shoot those bastards?
Adril: No general.
General Ramsey (Looking at Dr. Robert Hutton): I know somebody who can. OK, you can go. Hold on.
General Ramsey buzzes security. Two guards enter the room, and they escort Adril out.
General Ramsey: What do you think, Bob?
Dr. Robert Hutton: He is lying through his teeth.
General Ramsey: What makes you say that?
Dr. Robert Hutton: His neck was puffing. This is what happens when hybrids lie.

Question #3: What should we do in the event aliens contact us?

Answer: “It depends on the race that communicates with you or suddenly appears in your world. If they are hostile, there is nothing you can do about it because they are far more advanced than you. It would be a bad day for earth.
It is not advisable for your kind to try to communicate with other species, for your own safety…” told us an alien during an initial meeting that occurred in 1947. The alien added, “it is best not to try to contact any of the other species because you cannot be sure who you may come in contact with. You may find yourself contacting a race that has hostile tendencies.”
Numerous scientists were concerned with the possibility of the arrival of aggressive extraterrestrials.They were referring to some alien races they did not meet with. They feared the “Unknown.” Dr. Teller reassured them that the aliens he knew were not a threat to us, on the contrary, if well handled, they could become a “formidable asset.” Many disagreed.

Dr. Stephen Hawking’s comments (Warning) on contacting the aliens.

Ironically, some sixty years later, Stephen Hawking suggested that extraterrestrials are almost certain to exist — but that instead of seeking them out, humanity should be doing all it that can to avoid any contact.
“To my mathematical brain, the numbers alone make thinking about aliens perfectly rational,” he said. “The real challenge is to work out what aliens might actually be like.” The answer, he suggests, is that most of it will be the equivalent of microbes or simple animals — the sort of life that has dominated Earth for most of its history. One scene in his documentary for the Discovery Channel shows herds of two-legged herbivores browsing on an alien cliff-face where they are picked off by flying, yellow lizard-like predators. Another shows glowing fluorescent aquatic animals forming vast shoals in the oceans thought to underlie the thick ice coating Europa, one of the moons of Jupiter.

Such scenes are speculative, but Hawking uses them to lead on to a serious point: that a few life forms could be intelligent and pose a threat. Hawking believes that contact with such a species could be devastating for humanity. He suggests that aliens might simply raid Earth for its resources and then move on: “We only have to look at ourselves to see how intelligent life might develop into something we wouldn’t want to meet. I imagine they might exist in massive ships, having used up all the resources from their home planet.
Such advanced aliens would perhaps become nomads, looking to conquer and colonise whatever planets they can reach.” He concludes that trying to make contact with alien races is “a little too risky”.
He said: “If aliens ever visit us, I think the outcome would be much as when Christopher Columbus first landed in America, which didn’t turn out very well for the Native Americans.” –The Sunday Times, April 25, 2010. Because alien life might not have DNA like us, Hawking warned: “Watch out if you would meet an alien. You could be infected with a disease with which you have no resistance.”-Fox News.

Question #4: So, why some aliens are here? What made them come?

Answer: Because the aliens are “on our way”, meaning that Earth and our solar system and their location/position in the Milky Way, are their passage to other galaxies. This of course applies only to out of space aliens; simply put, extraterrestrials.
The intraterrestrials are here, simply because they live on Earth. They have inhabited planet Earth for millions of years.
More on this point in other parts of the book.
The aliens (From different worlds and dimensions) were here before, and have visited planet Earth occasionally, but not for the reasons given by some colorful ufologists, abductees, contactees, channelers and New Age enthusiasts.
Extraterrestrials did not come to Earth to mine for gold, enslave humans, or to give a message of love, hope and salvation to a few “chosen ones.” They are not our celestial brothers and sisters as many psychics and spiritual healers think, or want us to believe.
Extraterrestrials are scientific entities/manifestations, and not spiritual messengers.
And in many instances, the UFOs people we see in the sky are alien spacecrafts created by intraterrestrials; some are piloted by the Grays, and some are of a robotic nature.
If an extraterrestrial message of an extreme importance is to be given to humanity, aliens would simply reveal it to all of us and use a scientific method of communication/delivery.

Question #5: What do we know about aliens’ communications?

Answer:

Telepathy is not the only method of communication.

Contrary to a general belief, the Grays-Aliens do not always communicate with us, (especially with abductees and contactees) telepathically. Many of them are capable of speaking in English.

This was confirmed by official reports and documented in the Aliens Transcripts.

Telepathic communication between the Grays (Greys) aliens and contactees and abductees:

The alleged telepathic communication that occurred between an alien intraterrestrial and so-called contactees and abductees is a very rare phenomenon. It only occurs when the individual is an exceptionally alert person, who remains coherent, and does not succumb to panic and emotional disturbances, and does not fall into a state of paralysis.

No personal messages from aliens:

Aliens and intraterrestrials do not give individuals, and so-called contactees and abductees, personal messages to be delivered to humanity. Aliens and intraterrestrials rarely talk to abductees, almost never; no reason to. In some rare instances, they express “something” by slowly and gradually raising their hands or directly staring at individuals, who are usually in a state of shock, fear, confusion, and paralysis.

Galactic languages:

Not all aliens have the same vocabulary. There are millions of galactic languages and dialects.

However, there is a universal/cosmic protocol language used and understood by millions of galactic civilizations.

Communicating with an alien during a meeting:

Throughout the entire meeting, the alien was not communicating verbally; no sound was heard from her.

Her communication was directly transmitted from her brain (cellular motor) to the device she gave us.

The device would receive her thoughts and answers in colors, images, frequencies, and dots like we use to send messages through the Morse code.
At the far end of the machine, there is a screen which displayed dots, multiple dots, empty spaces, and slashes and deciphered the letters and forms.
Secondly, after this was displayed on the screen, the machine would talk to us in English, in a very and most unusual English vocabulary. For example, the alien never used pronouns, such as “I” and occasionally she would use “we”.
The alien never said we have a body; instead she said we have an Essence. It took the military quite a while to re-interpret her English into their English. And, quite often they missed the point. A major part of her mind transmission was lost in the translation. Later on the military decided firmly that top notch linguists in the country should be present at all meetings with aliens.
Hopefully to help translate and interpret the alien languages and expressions correctly. Weeks later, I discovered that this was absolutely true because the alien device contained a limited amount of English vocabulary. And the words used mentally by the alien, technologically transmitted and displayed by the machine were those often used by the military in their daily life-normal everyday slang. It was very obvious, to me, that all her answers were not given to us with technological and scientific terms. At one point the female alien told us she avoided that on purpose.

On how extraterrestrials communicate with each other:
The following is an excerpt from the “Aliens Transcripts” 1947-1948
Question: Do you communicate with all (Other extraterrestrials) of them?
Alien: Yes.
Question: So, how do you communicate with all of them?
Alien: In many different ways.
We use our cellular motor. Messages and communications are sent and received via images projected mentally, graphs, mind transmission channels, and collective transmission.

Talking to extraterrestrials:

Anunnaki and extraterrestrials have no intention whatsoever in engaging into a dialogue with ordinary human beings.

If they have an agenda, and/or are on a mission, they either abduct (Not the Anunnaki) humans, or directly contact scientists working with them in secret facilities, laboratories and bases.

Anunnaki do not talk tête-à-tête with humans, nor convey their messages on a personal basis. And most certainly, Anunnaki do not abduct humans. However, direct and personal contact did happen with aliens. They were the “Greys”.

But this occurrence is extremely rare. Ulema Al Bakri said: “ And when and if it happens, extraterrestrials would not pronounce one word and walk away, or stutter as some contactees reported”, including one famous contactee in Switzerland who made headlines worldwide and became the messenger of the Lyrans on earth.

When aliens contact (So to speak) or encounter a human being, they usually complete sentences and engage into a dialogue, even though, as it was reported, the dialogue is short, and their words are incomprehensible, and the voice is mechanic and fuzzy.

In some instances, the aliens transmit their messages mentally, not telepathically, because for the telepathic phenomenon to occur, you need two telepathic people, and most certainly contactees who are regular folks are neither gifted nor trained telepaths.

You cannot talk to another person on your cellular phone, if the other party does not have one.

Do you want to try?

Same thing applies to telepathy; it needs two telepathic stations, fully operational and fully capable of sending and receiving messages.

The human brain did not yet reach this level.

Although some preliminary forms of telepathy between humans were noticed in rare instances. Extraterrestrials are capable of speaking and understanding many languages, including our own.

They assimilate and “compute” words, sentences and physical expressions with mathematical formulas and numerical values.
Some extraterrestrials have limited vocal chords capabilities, but they can very quickly acquire additional vocal faculties, and earth dialects by rewinding sounds and vibes.
Contrary to what many contactees and others claim or depict, extraterrestrials from higher dimensions/spheres do not talk like computerized machines.
They have their own language but also they can absorb and assimilate all the languages on earth in a blink of an eye via the reception and emission of a spatial memory.

Complex machines were used by the aliens to talk to us:
In the first two meetings, we had with extraterrestrials, very complicated and complex tools/machines were used by the aliens to talk to us. The aliens carried with them a special device in a circular metallic box (Voice-box, also called VB); they had two different kinds of boxes they used in communicating with us. Later on, the aliens began to speak to us in English and Russian, with a perfect accent, respectively.
In the second meeting, the aliens gave us the Translation Signals Box (TSB), which allowed us to respond to their communications and messages.
Later on, the CTF (Transmission Channel), originally “Channel of the transmissions frequency of aliens” was used. Contrary to a general belief, the aliens did not talk to us telepathically. On their device, they had the recordings of all the languages and dialects of Earth, including versions of their own languages.
But they have never communicated with us using their own languages, for the device they used to communicate with us was especially designed for this purpose.

Question #6: Did the United States really meet with aliens?

Answer:
Some whistleblowers and leading ufologists have claimed that the United States had numerous secret meetings with aliens, the Grays (Greys), and other species from Zeta Reticuli, and other constellations. Is it true?
The first meeting between aliens and the United States was a pre-scheduled and an agreed upon event.
The aliens told us where and when they will meet with us, and the military approved.
According to notes from the Aliens Transcripts (AT), Section 9: Addendum 12-Briefing 341-E1, 1947, this first meeting was arranged by an alien who was in the custody of the United States Air Force. At the bottom of the page, there is an arrow and a reference made to a certain “Lt. Colonel S…” who coordinated the meeting. On the next page, top left, one could read the following: “No outfits”, which means that those who waited for the arrival of the aliens did not wear any particular suits or protective suits.

The alien who arranged the meeting:
The alien who arranged the meeting between our government and the extraterrestrials and aliens stayed at a military base for approximately 3 months and 4 days, and later died.
Her body was sent to a military hospital.
The alien was captured after her spacecraft crashed, for missing to “jump” into the time-space pocket, needed to enter and exit a physical dimension. The three other aliens died on impact. The one who survived was a female alien-hybrid, although no genital organs were visible.
Generalities: General assembly in the initial meetings.
Representatives from governments’ agencies (Military and civilian) in the Eastern and Western Hemispheres met several times with aliens, intraterrestrials and extraterrestrials in many places, on military bases, in the desert, underwater, in foreign countries, in the United States, around Earth’s orbit, and outer-space.

High echelon/top brass in the military (Army, Navy, Air Force), nations' very best scientists, codes decipherers and breakers, and "select" linguists working for governments and semi-official organizations attended these meetings.
In some meetings, members of the clergy (Catholic Church) and a very prominent Protestant preacher were present.
Numerous briefings of rapports with aliens and aliens' transcripts are well preserved in secret vaults. The United States government met with different aliens races on many occasions. And the spectrum of the discussions is ad infinitum.
Meeting with three different non-human species:
Our governments met with three different non-human species with an exceptional intelligence, and highly advanced technology and science:
a-An intraterrestrial non-human race called the Greys or Grays.
b-The Anunnaki.
c-Naftarian or Naftarim.

Synopsis: Dates of the most significant meetings in early 1949:
The meetings were spread over a period of 4 days:
Date of the first meeting: Monday, 2, February 1948. 9:00 AM.
Date of the second meeting: Tuesday 3, February 1948. 9:00 AM.
Date of the third meeting: Thursday 5, February 1948. 9:00 AM.
Date of the fourth meeting: Saturday 7, February 1948. 9:00 AM.

Question #7: What did we learn about aliens' nature, structure and biological organism, from our various meetings with them?

Answer: The intraterrestrial non-human race is a race of aliens with highly advanced and sophisticated intelligence, who have lived on Earth for millions of years. Originally from Zeta Reticuli, this race is known to the general public as the Greys or the Grays; a reference or possibly a descriptive definition given by people who claimed that they have been abducted by the Grays, and/or have encountered them. Official records refer to aliens as Biological Entities, Space Monkeys, Shorty Aliens, EBE, Aliens. They were called intra-terrestrials because they have their habitats “inside the Earth”, underwater, as well as on remote areas inaccessible to us.

They were mentioned numerous times in the Aliens Transcripts.
The genetic breed they created, known as the hybrids live with them in their habitats underwater, as well as on land in remote areas. Many hybrid children were adopted by human families who have a perfectly normal life. The intraterrestrials are the ones who pilot the UFOs and the USOs.

Organism structure of various aliens’ races:
In the original (First report) report on an alien, which also contained “medical observations”, it was noted that the surviving alien has no gender. Later on, in a communiqué sent to the Pentagon, the surviving alien’s gender was acknowledged as a male; however no genital organs were visible.
The story is getting more complicated, because rumors start to circulate that the alien was a female indeed, because herself told them about her gender.
I tend to believe that the surviving alien was de facto a female; a hybrid-female, not totally Gray.
Following an autopsy conducted on the aliens’ dead bodies, two medical examiners came to an astonishing conclusion:
1-The aliens had no lungs.
2-The aliens had no digestive system.
3-The aliens had a green color blood.
4-The aliens had no retina.
5-The aliens had no genitals. This item was mentioned twice in the Aliens Transcripts
6-The aliens had no vocal chords.
7-The aliens had three fingers on each hand.
8-Aliens’ skin is covered with small pores that have multiple functions and purposes we do not fully understand.
9-The size of their brains was extremely large par rapport to the size of their skull.
10-The aliens suits were “glued” to their bodies, as if the suits were part of their skin. And much more.

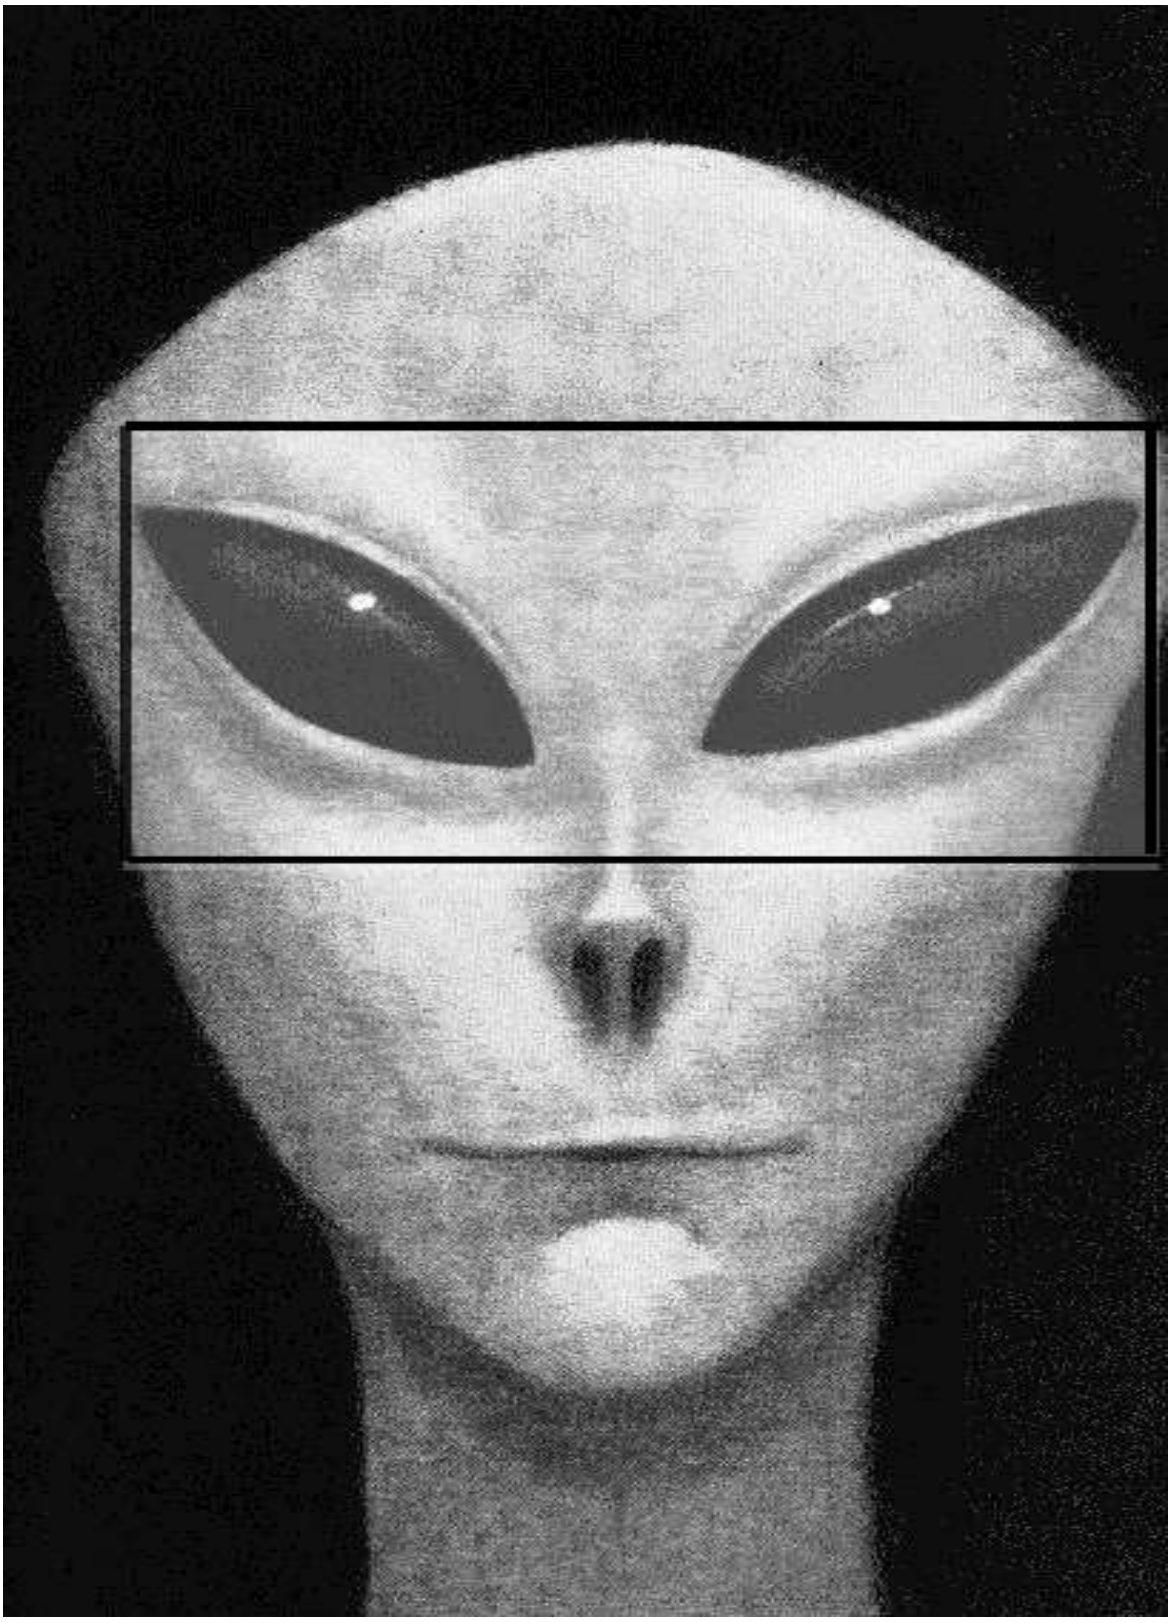
Not all aliens are alike:
Not all aliens are short with three fingers on each hand. On some planets, galactic beings do not have fingers at all, not even hands. Many of our human body features and organs are useless on other planets. Eyes, hands, fingers and our five senses are not needed.
The intraterrestrials who originally came from Zeta Reticuli, millions of years ago told us that “not all aliens look alike. Some don’t have eyes, others don’t have ears, and a great number of them don’t have hands, lungs and body organs similar to yours. On their planets, ears, eyes, hands and lungs are useless.”- Source: The Aliens Transcripts, 1947.
The Grays-Aliens who died in the UFO crash near Roswell did not have internal organs similar to ours; they had no heart, no blood circulatory system, no mouth, no ears, etc.
And we have found from autopsy of dead aliens that they had a bizarre green liquid inside their bodies.
Some experts in the field claimed that the green fluid substituted for blood, but such claim was never confirmed by mainstream science and medical sciences.
None of the aliens who met with us had reproductive organs, a human respiratory system, and a digestive system. All of them told us that they do not consume food, and do not have waste inside their bodies, except an Anunnaki who said that her race consumes human and non-human food, but they dispose of the waste through skin pores.
The internal structure of the aliens’ bodies is animated by a cellular motor located in the brain.
And the brain is neither biological nor organic.
Their brain is purely cellular consisting of intricate cells channels and mental-electrical frequencies circuit. The aliens’ brain does not produce emotions, but it recognizes them as mental images.
The aliens do not have a nervous system. Thus, they do not feel pain, stress, anxiety, fatigue, hunger, heat, cold, and similar reaction and feelings.
The intraterrestrials have three long and skinny fingers on each hand. The non-human races from Ashtari and Naftari have five fingers on each hand, just like us.

Four other galactic species including the Anunnaki and Igigi resemble humans to a certain degree.
None of the aliens we have met had a retina.
Aliens from highly advanced civilizations have multiple copies of their “Essences” (Body frame, being, mental-physical structure, etc.) In other words, authentic copies (Duplicated) of their bodies with astonishing space-time memory capabilities.

The aliens’ brain’s cell is responsible for everything:

- The aliens told us that about a cell in our brains (not discovered yet by science,) which is responsible for everything and anything that shapes and conditions our psyche, organism, intelligence, and SOUL.
- It is in that particular cell, that the so-called HUMAN SOUL exists, lives, and transforms itself into other substances and dimensions during our life, and in the afterlife.

Aliens and extraterrestrials are built differently from us.
Note: The following was displayed on the “Voice Box Screen”; a machine the aliens gave us, and which allowed us to record and translate anything that has been said by the aliens.



These black eyes are in fact lenses. The aliens remove them at will. They are attached to a gland we do not have in our system.

The aliens don’t have a retina; they see through cells channel in their brain. Three of the major functions of the lenses are: a-Protection, b-Navigation/direction,
c-Communication.

Worth mentioning here that a great deal of what the alien has said was lost in the translation, simply because:
1-The vocabulary as stored in the machine was very limited;
2-The aliens’ vocabulary (Words and sentences) seemed bizarre to the military interpreters and civilian linguists, because the meaning of chosen words by the alien could not be adequately translated in any of our languages; 3-Alien’s technical words and scientific explanation pertaining to spacecrafts’ mode of operation and construction, the nature and structural organism of the bodies of the aliens, and the world (Dimensions, zones, planets, galaxies) the aliens lived in, defied our laws of physics.

Alien: Emotions are not wired to our cellular motor.
In a meeting with aliens that occurred in 1947, in the United States of America, an extraterrestrial told us: “We don’t have lungs. We don’t have abdomen. We don’t eat. We don’t have a digestive system.
We don’t produce waste.
We don’t feel pain because we don’t have a nervous system. Emotions –as you call it – are not wired to our cellular motor.
Your kind needs emotions to express physically what you feel.
In our case, we do not show emotions, not because we don’t have emotions, but because we are not a physical creation.
Our emotions are not physical, they are mental. This makes a big difference between us and you; you are physical and we are non physical. You live in a physical world, we live in time world. Our brain operates our physical body on all levels. When you look at me, you simply see is a frame.
I can leave it here, and go somewhere else, and continue to be myself in other places.
It will disintegrate gradually on its own, and I continue as an Essence somewhere else.I can keep doing this endlessly.”

Alien: “I start anew with another copy of my body.”

A military scientist asked the alien: “So when you want to return, do you pick up with the same body?
The alien said: “If it is not harmed. If it disintegrates, then I start anew with another copy of my body. And you will not notice the difference. The body you are now looking at could be one of my multiple copies. How would you know?
My body disintegrates only when it is harmed. But, our essence survives and continues somewhere else. The essence does not disintegrate; it continues to live in other dimensions. And within each dimension beyond the physical world there are dimensions which are created by each one of us on a mental level, and created by the cosmic energy on a physical level.
We have the power to create universes from the energy of our cellular motor.
We are very powerful, extremely advanced and we have seen so many different universes that exist or will exist in what you call the future. There is a frontier when you cross it, you will see a great number of dimensions each one entering and exiting the other. The essence (the alien meant what we call, the human body or human life) also can enter and exit several dimensions instantly and simultaneously.
The Essences are multi-dimensional and vibrational essences.
They can be both physical and mental.”

Alien: “We continue to exist through multiplication of ourselves.”

One of the scientists who attended the meeting asked:
“Does one copy of yourself mirror or react to another?
And, does one have a direct impact on the other?
Please explain?”
The alien answered: We continue to exist through multiplication of ourselves.
The alien was asked: “Then what?”

The alien replied: “Everything you have on earth we have it and nothing of what we have, you have on earth, because we live concurrently in a physical world and a purely mental world.
Your kind lives only in a physical world.
Few thousand creatures live on different planets that have needs similar to yours, such as air, oxygen and food. And there are billions and billions of Essences who do not need what you need, like water, air and food, because they are not made from flesh and bones.
Since we do not have circulatory system, blood circulation, we don’t need the organ you call heart. And since our Essence does not have tissues and muscles, no nutrition is necessary, no food is required, no water is required to keep us functioning and growing.
Our Essence is a perfect and a very powerful machine which has consciousness, fairness and extremely developed intelligence.
We are an intelligent mechanism, very peaceful, very alert, very knowledgeable of the universe, and we are also very familiar with your kind and your origin.”

Alien: “We don’t have waste in our bodies.”

Excerpts from a transcript of a meeting with an extraterrestrial:
The alien said: “We are pure. We don’t have waste in our bodies. We do not smell. We do not bleed. We do not feel pain. We do not feel cold. We do not feel the heat. All of those are a sign of weakness and imperfection that your kind will suffer from forever.
The difference between you and us is enormous.
Your body and our Essence are both machines.
Your kind (Human machine) is destructive and self destructive.
We are peaceful, powerful and very intelligent machine.
Your brain is weak. It is not yet fully operational. We begin to exist with a fully operationally cellular motor which has all the knowledge and information each one of us needs. Your body as a machine is made from skin, flesh, bones, and nerves.
Our essence has nothing of that.

This is why we can last for hundreds of thousands of years. Our Essence is constantly reconditioned. The body (Frame) in any of its forms self adjusts, rewinds itself and starts anew."

Extraterrestrials manufacture themselves, and are born fully grown and mature.

An extraterrestrial told us that their Essence (Being, creature) is given life and "maturity" instantly, meaning that they are born (Produced) complete. And extraterrestrial children don't have to wait long to be fully developed. They come into existence fully grown.
The extraterrestrial added, "In many dimensions, time does not exist, therefore it's not necessary for a new born essence (creature) to wait for many years to grow up to be an adult or mature person. There is no time outside your world.
In our dimensions, we don't have age reference because no one grows older than others. We stay the same forever."

Smell (Odor) of aliens' bodies:
Aliens' bodies do not have body odors. Only, when the body of an intraterrestrial or a hybrid has been autopsied, a very strong and suffocating smell comes out from inside the body.
Usually, it comes out, when a green fluid suddenly emerges from the internal organs which are extremely different from ours.
None of the operating surgeons and nurses inside the autopsy room could stand the smell. They ran away "like a mad dog" said one of the military nurses. In fact, the odor was so strong, it invaded the whole compound. They had to seal the room for 24 hours. Physicians at Water Reed Army Medical Center, became very concerned and alarmed, for they sought that the smell could be very toxic.

Note: Worth mentioning here that no autopsy report from Walter Reed was ever issued by a physician (Pathologist) who conducted any kind of autopsy on dead aliens.
Instead, scattered and reconstructed medical notes (Unsigned) were sent to the Pentagon two days later.

This is not a normal military or medical procedure as any one might guess. But it did happen intentionally, and I am unable to elaborate further on this situation.

The names of the pathologists and assisting nurses were never revealed to “outsider-civilians”. And the preliminary notes vanished from the face of the earth. Thus, there is no way to honestly and accurately document the autopsy.
And most certainly, the autopsy was not filmed.
I am absolutely certain that no civilian or any officer below the rank of Colonel had access to any autopsy report. Even at the Pentagon, only two generals and one military surgeon had access to a medical report describing in details the anatomy and physiology of the aliens. Said report was then submitted to The White House.
An insider said, “To the best of my knowledge, there is only one original report which remained hidden somewhere in a secret military dossier at The Pentagon, and one copy of the report which was read by the President and YES disposed of. Grosso modo, and quite honestly, we don’t know a thing about the aliens’ autopsy. Yes, it did happen, but there are no records to substantiate the fact that it did happen.”

Words “sex” and “intercourse”:

The words “sex” and “intercourse” do not exist in the aliens’ vocabulary. Not even once, any of these two words were ever used by an alien during any meeting.
Yet, the aliens are very familiar with how we reproduce and how human sexual behavior conditions and influences our lifestyle and habits.

Aliens could not walk straight:

The aliens we met could not walk straight and in a balanced manner, because they did not have muscles to support their weight, even though, they were very miniscule and frail.
Nevertheless their hands were very flexible and agile. Only two species could walk gracefully; the Anunnaki and the Naftarians. The hybrids walked just like us. And some were tall by aliens’ standards. However, they could not move their head right and left without twisting their body. It appeared to us as if their neck was barely attached to their head.

This is one of the easily recognized characteristic features of the Grays-Hybrids.

Aliens' faculties and brain:
To entities on other planets and multi-dimensional zones, eyes like ours are not needed, for they use different organs to see; some use skins pores, others cells in the brain. And the brain (Cellular Motor) is not necessary located inside a skull; it could be found anywhere under the skin, or on the surface, even stored in a collective awareness.

Aliens have no sense of time:
They Grays have no sense of time. However, they can clearly differentiate between past events and future events. They do not follow any chronological order or time-frame sequences.

The Grays are claustrophobic:
The Grays are claustrophobic. They will be disoriented if they are confined in a small area for a long period of time in the same place.

How old are the extraterrestrials?
As old as the Universe itself; as old as the cosmic energy because everything is made from the cosmic energy.
Their Essence (Structure/Organism) never dies physically or mentally, it is transformed and re-transformed endlessly.
This concept is not new. Antoine-Laurent de Lavoisier (August 26, 1743 - May 8, 1794) already said, "Rien ne se perd, rien ne se crée, tout se transforme", (Nothing is lost, nothing is created, everything is transformed) based upon the famous statement of Anaxagore de Clazomenes' "Rien ne naît ni ne périt, mais des choses déjà existantes se combinent, puis se séparent de nouveau." (Nothing is born or perished, but things that they already exist, combine and separate again.)

Lavoisier and his wife in 1788. Painting by David.

What is their average life-span?
It depends on each civilization; some are constantly superposed, multiplied and reproduced. Some live millions of years, others hundreds of thousands of years.
It all depends on the level of their development, advancement, technology and cosmic awareness. Extraterrestrials who are an essential part of the cosmic particles never die.

Nature/substance of alien races:

- Entities without a Frame (physical structure).
- Cellular
- Purely mental
- Ethero-organic
- Vibrational
- Multi-dimensional
- Some are physical
- Physical-mental
- Superposed presences
- Some exist between parallel dimensions
- Some are from the future
- Some did not exist yet
- Penetrating vibrations
- Organic
- Spheric
- Some have all our physical senses and faculties but do not have ears to hear, eyes to see, mouths to taste, hands to feel because those organs are completely useless outside our world.
- And some your mind cannot understand.

Three major races of aliens:

Note: Some have claimed that the United States government had numerous meetings with the extraterrestrial Nordics and Lyrans (Lyrians). It is possible, but I had no access to files that could substantiate such claim. Worth mentioning here that files on extraterrestrials and intraterrestrials are never shared in their entirety with all the government's agencies and branches dealing with the alien phenomenon. What the NSA has on aliens is not necessarily shared by the FBI. And what the CIA has in its files on aliens' operations is not ipso facto known to the United States Air Force, so on.

Race 1: The Anunnaki.

The Akkadian word Anunnaki is composed of two words:

a-Anunna, which means the entirety of the gods (All the gods and goddesses of Mesopotamia).
b-Ki, which means Earth, and the underworld, the netherworld, and the world of death.
Thus, the correct definition of the word Anunnnaki is: Gods of Earth and/or gods of the underworld.
The Akkadian/Sumerian Anunnaki word is used in a plural form to represent the deities of heaven and Earth, called Anunna in Sumerian and Akkadian.
Later on in history, and in order to differentiate between the Anunnaki and the Igigi, the scribes called the Anunnaki, the gods of Earth (Ki), also gods of the netherworld, and the Igigi, gods of heaven.
This differentiation is very clear in all the Mesopotamian clay tablets, particularly in the Ishtar Descent to the Underworld (Ki), the poem/myth of Gilgamesh, the Enuma Elish, etc…
Other names for the Anunnaki:
The Anunnaki were known to many neighboring countries in the Near East, Middle East, and Anatolia.
And because of the languages' differences, the Anunnaki were called differently.

For instance:
1- The Habiru (Early Hebrews/Israelites) called them Nephilim, meaning to fall down to earth, as well as Anakim and Raphaim. Some passages in the Old Testament refer to them as Elohim.
2- In Assyrian-Chaldean, and Syriac-Aramaic, the Anunnaki are called Jabaariyn, meaning the mighty ones.
3- In some Aramaic, Chaldean and Hebrew texts, the Anunnaki are called Gibborim, which means the mighty or majestic ones. Jababira in literary Arabic.
4- The Egyptians called them Neteru.
5- The Greeks called them the Annodoti.
6- In the Book of Enoch, they are called B’nai Elohim (Children of God), the Nephilim, and the “Watchers”.

According to some linguists, the word Anunnaki is a loan word from the Sumerian word A.nun “n-a-k”, meaning literarily:

a-Semen/descendants of the (Ak) monarch (Nun) and refers to the offspring of the king of heaven An/Anum.
As a group of Akkadian and Sumerian deities, quite often, the Anunnaki were associated with the Anunna, meaning the fifty great gods. Anuna was written in various forms, such as:
a-A-nun-na,
b-Anu-na,
c-Anuma-ki-ni,
d-Anu-na-ki.
Various attributes or definitions were given to them, such as: a-Major gods in comparison to the Igigi who were considered minor gods.
b-Those of a royal blood or ancestry.
c-The royal offspring, d-The great gods of heaven and earth. An means heaven, and ki means earth.
The Annunaki appeared in the Babylonian creation myth/epic, "Enuma Elish".
According to other Babylonian myths, the Anunnaki were the children of Anu and Ki, brother and sister gods, who were the children of Anshar and Kishar, children of Lahm and Lahmu names/titles bestowed upon the gatekeepers of Absu in Eridu.

Thus the ancient aliens and the ancient astronauts theorists, and a famous author's definition of the Anunnaki as: "Those who from heaven to earth came" is wrong! It shows: 1- Their lack of knowledge of the Sumerian, Akkadian, and Assyrian languages.

2- Their inability of understanding and translating any of the Mesopotamian cuneiform texts.
3- They have never read the Mesopotamian clay tablets in Sumerian, Akkadian, or Assyrian.
4- They fabricated stories about the Anunnaki and lied when they claimed that their knowledge of the history of Anunnaki were based up the ancient texts, and especially when they used references to Sumerian-Akkadian texts and citations which do not exist in any Mesopotamian tablets.

Race 2: The Naftarian.
The Naftarian race, and sometimes called Naftarim came from the star system of Naftari, yet to be discovered and acknowledged by mainstream science. Official records show that our governments did meet with the Naftarians on many occasions for a very long time. And the first meeting occurred in 1947.
The Naftarim were mentioned in the Aliens Transcripts, because of the vital scientific information and instructions we received from them.
Some were extremely useful to us because of the information they gave us in our attempts to reverse alien technology.

Race 3: Grays (Intraterrestrials) living on Planet Earth. Grays from Zeta Reticuli.

Catalogue of various categories of extraterrestrials and alien races:
The United States and Russia have huge dossiers cataloguing alien species under different categories, such as, to name a few:

- a-Category
- b-Nature
- c-Physiognomy
- d-Location of their habitat
- e-Faculty
- f-Intelligence
- g-Science
- h-Technology
- i-Crafts
- j-Communication
- k-Joint programs

France, England, Russia, Germany and the United States governments have an illustrated catalogue of various categories of non-human, extraterrestrial and alien races who are scattered in the immensity of the Cosmos, and some who live on Earth.

The drawings and illustrations of their anatomy, physiology and physiognomy were based upon information given to us by the Grays.
Our knowledge of outer-space entities comes directly from the Grays, and a lengthy report from an Anunnaki. So far, none of these extraterrestrial entities contacted us.
We do not have sufficient or meaningful information and scientific data about any of them.
Some, for reasons we don't know or we don't understand, have visited planet Earth, thousands of years ago, and never returned. According to aliens we met with, galactic civilizations are not interested in us, as simple as that.
Why? Because they are millions of years ahead of us, and we have nothing to offer them.

Question #8: What else do we know about our meetings with aliens and the "AT" (Transcripts of the Aliens-U.S. Meetings)?
Answer: Lots of things I have included in two books I wrote on the United States-Aliens Meetings in 1947 and 1948.
For this edition, I will address the following subjects:

Protective suits:
In the first meeting, military men and civilians did not wear protective suits as it was claimed by some.
So, apparently, the aliens did something to their spacecrafts, so radiations emitted by their ships would not affect us. It was later explained to us that they totally eliminated radioactive emission of their crafts to prevent any damages and injuries to the bodies and brains of those who were waiting for their arrival.
However, in other cases and situations, when aliens do not announce their arrival or landing, their crafts emit and leave behind radioactive radiations.

If strong enough, the radiations would cause severe burns and serious damage to our brain, body molecules, cells, and organs.
The aliens were wearing protective suits. They told us, human germs cause them skin irritations and dermatologic allergy.
This is one of the reasons they wear those silver-metallic suits and eyes-protection-screen-glasses.
Others reasons are, to name a few:

- a-Countering anti-gravity inside their ships,
- b-Protection against G caused by sharp turns and sudden entering-exiting time-space pockets (Speed of light)
- c-Navigation purposes,
- d-“Zooming into” the mind of humans,
- e-Thoughts projection
- f-Mental holography,
- g-Communication, so on…

The aliens told us to warn our people not to come close to any of their spacecrafts when they land unannounced (In all cases and circumstances), because their spacecrafts’ radiations cause:

- a-Temporary loss of memory,
- b-Nausea,
- c-Extensive vomiting,
- d-Severe headaches,
- e-Temporary paralysis,
- f-Temporary loss of sight,
- g-Severe skin burns, so on…

Who were present at the meetings*?
Military men
Scientists
Photographers
Psychics
Code breakers
Linguists
Intelligence and national security agents
Test pilots
Propulsion system experts and engineers
Pathologists

Astrophysicists
Futurists
Physicians

Q&A
(Dialogue between attendees and an alien).
As recorded by Sergant L.D. Verbatim and unedited

“Q” refers to questions by attendees.

Q: What’s your name?
A: Riyah. We do not call each other (by name) unless it is very necessary because where we live the atmospheric condition does not always allow sounds to be heard. Part of our environment does not have atmosphere. And where there is no atmosphere there are two things that do not exist: Sound and Air.

Q: So how do you breath?
A: We don’t need oxygen to breath. We generate our own energy to survive…energy from our inner organism.
Energy is the most important thing in the universe.

Q: Are you built the same as us?
A: We don’t have your lungs. We don’t have your abdomen. So we don’t eat. We don’t have a digestive system.

So we don’t produce wastes. We don’t feel pain because we don’t have a nervous system. And, we don’t sense fear, simply because emotions are not wired to our cellular motor.

Q: If you don’t have emotions, how do you express yourselves?
A: Humans need emotions to express themselves physically. If a person does not show emotion physically, your people, meaning humans, think he has no emotions, correct? In our case, we do not show emotions not because we don’t have emotions but because we are not physicals- meaning our emotions are not physical they are mental. So this makes a big difference between us and you. You are physical and we are non physical. You live in a physical world, we live in time world.

Q: What does that mean?
A: You are limited because physical things are limited on earth.

Q: Our brain operates our physical body, how do you operate your body?
A: What you see is a frame. I can leave it hear for you and go somewhere else. It will disintegrate on its own and I continue somewhere else. And, I can keep doing this endlessly.

Q: So when you want to return, do you pick up with the same body?
A: If it’s not harmed. If it disintegrates before you’re eyes, then I start with another copy of my body.

Q: But is it always the same, do you look the same?
A: Yes, and you will not notice the difference. The body you are now looking at could be one of my copies. How would you know?

Q: So your body or whatever you call it disintegrates because the molecules will deteriorate?
A: It disintegrates only when it is harmed.
But, our essence survives and continues somewhere else. The essence does not disintegrate.

Q: So it lives in other dimensions?
A: Yes
Q: Can you tell us about where you're from and your dimension?
A: The name is not important because you will not find it on your map. And the place is so far away that your mind can't understand what it's made from.

Q: Would it be considered the 4th or 5th dimension?
A: Within each dimension beyond the physical world there are dimensions created by each one of us.

Q: Did you mean you can create universes from the power of your mind that you can then appear in…and you make things appear and disappear at will?
A: We are very powerful, extremely advanced and we have seen different and many aspects of universes that exist or will exist in what you call the future. There is a frontier when you cross it, you will see a great number of dimensions each one entering and exiting the other. The essence (the alien meant what we call, the human body or human life) also can enter and exit several dimensions instantly and simultaneously.

Q: So you're saying that we can live multi-dimensionally?
A: Essences, (which mean Aliens living on different dimensions) are multi-dimensional and vibrational essences.
They can be both, physical and mental.

Q: Can you explain this?
A: You will not understand.

Q: Does one copy of yourself mirror or react to another?
And, does one have a direct impact on the other? Please explain?
A: We continue to exist through multiplication of ourselves.

Q: If your entire community is living multi-dimensionally then how?

A: Everything you have on earth we have it and nothing of what we have, you have on earth.

Q: Why is that?
A: Because we can live in a physical world and in a purely mental world. Humans can only live in a physical world.

Q: So what we need and what you need is very different.
A: We have everything we need.

Q: Is there any lack where you are from?
Here we have people that lack proper food, health care…etc…. Is there a lack of anything where you are from?
A: Only a few thousand creatures live on different planets that have needs similar to yours such as air, oxygen and food. And there are billions and billions of Essence they do not need what you need, like water, air and food because they're Essence is not made from flesh and bones that need nutrition constantly.
It is like a perfect machine which has a conscious, fairness and extremely developed intelligence.

Q: Then inside your body, you don't have blood or fluids?
A: Since we do not have circulatory system, blood circulation, we don't need the organ you call heart. And since our essence does not have tissues and muscles, no nutrition is necessary, no food is required, no water is required to keep them functioning and growing. We are an intelligent mechanism, very peaceful, very alert, very knowledgeable of the universe and also very familiar with you and your origin.

Q: Can you explain our origin?
A: Some of you were made from cosmic fibers you call it dust (cosmic dust). Others were the product of what you call photosynthesis or biosynthesis. And the rest were genetically reproduced and updated by a highly advanced race, not from Earth. And your origin is more animal than human. And at the beginning of your time on earth, some of your species, looked like reptilians, frogs, birds and other aquatic creatures. Some of your early human species, walked on three legs, others on four. And you could not tell the difference from one specie and another because all belong to the early form of the animalistic world or animals' world.

Q: So you are telling us we are animals?
A: The answer is already in your question.

Q: You don't have a circulatory system, so do you have an electrical system or how do you operate?
A: You will not understand, even if you enter the frame I have. (The alien is referring to the physical body she used while appearing on earth). What you will see will be very confusing to you. We are pure. We don't have waste in our bodies. We do not smell. We do not bleed. We do not feel pain. We do not feel cold. We do not feel the heat. All of those are a sign of weakness and imperfection that you, the human being, will suffer from forever. The differences between you and us are enormous. We are both machines. You are a destructive and self destructive machine. We are peaceful, powerful and very intelligent machine.
Your brain is weak. It is not yet fully operational. We begin to exist with a fully operationally cellular motor which has all the knowledge and information each one of us needs. Your body as a machine is made from skin, flesh, bones, and nerves.
Our essence has nothing of that. This is why we can last for hundreds of thousands of years.

Q: So you never get sick? Do you have or need doctors?
A: Our kind does not go to what you call doctors because the body we have is reconditioned. The body (Frame) in any of its forms self adjusts, rewinds itself and starts a new.

Q: What do you mean your kind? There are other kinds?
A: Yes there are on some planets and on your own.

Q: Who are the others on earth and why are they here?
A: They were here before you. The more appropriate question would be, why are you here?

Q: So if you are not physical as you say, so why do you fly those machines, they look very physical to me?
A: Those are not flying machines, they are time-machines.

Q: You must have used a hangar or something to build those spacecrafts.
A: Yes we did. Our people enjoy both the physical and non physical dimensions. And, we have scientists and technicians like you do. We do not build our vehicle gradually, as you do, in a factory. We just produce them, ready-made. It is similar to the process of birth in our communities, and what you call in your language, children, sons and daughters.

Q: Are you telling us you also manufacture people?
A: Our essence (creatures) are given life instantly and they are complete when they are born (Produced).
On earth a baby is born and he has to crawl and grow up. Here your children and you come to life from the womb of a female human and you grow day by day, year by year. Our children don't have to wait that long to be fully developed. They come into existence fully grown.

Q: You mean, you give birth to a child that is a fully grown man or woman? But how old is the child, 20, 30, 40?
A: I told you before, your mind can't understand our way of life. And, how many things are created in the universe, outside your planet. In many dimensions, time does not exist therefore it's not necessary for a new born essence (creature) to wait for many years to grow up to be an adult or mature person. There is no time. You need time to grow up. And for every year you give a number. Correct?
And you say, this person is 20 years old or 50 years old. On our planet, we don't have age reference because no one grows older than others. You stay the same forever.
Your creator thousands of years ago created fully grown humans, man and woman, but did not survive. They died because they were not a perfect human machine. They were born with weak muscles, dysfunctional respiratory system, lack of muscular coordination and without an intelligence cellular motor.

Q: You keep talking about our creator, who are you talking about?
A: Your religious God had nothing to do with it. Some of your species, and physical forms were created and upgraded from already existing species by the Anunnaki.

Q: Are you friends with the Anunnaki, where are they now? And, do you know where they live?
A: When we enter there galaxy we see only friendship. They are not totally similar to our essence because they are corporally physical and non physical. We are physical and non physical essence. They live on Ashtari Constellation.

Q: What can you tell us about those small strange alien creatures that have human features and are very short. Are they like the essence, like you or other species?
A: They are from your earth and somewhere else.

Q: Where is that somewhere else?
A: It is behind your comprehension.
They live on different planets, not far from each other in a zone called Naftari.

Q: Then you said, since there is no sound in other planets; therefore, no language is spoken and no words are heard, then why do you need to name this plant Naftari which has sound to it? If you have no sound then why do you have to call them by names if you can’t hear them? I would not call my son George if he could not hear me because he would not respond.
A: You make too much noise on your planet. This is why you can’t hear and understand each other clearly. On our planet, sounds are not heard but perceived.

Q: Can you read minds?

A: This is how partially we communicate with each other. Q: So you live in a mute deaf world. I find this very boring. Don’t you like to hear beautiful poetry, a symphony, the rainfall, the waves or the sound of the rivers- all the beautiful sounds our nature produces?
A: We have all those, in colors and images, of such beauty and expressions that you have never seen on earth- beyond your imagination.
NOTE #1: This alien was neither an Anunnaki nor a Grey or an extraterrestrial from Zeta Reticuli. The alien belongs to the constellation of Naftari which is 150 light years from Earth.
NOTE #2: Riyah mentioned, I tried to use the simplest words possible taken from your vocabulary as transmitted through the devise I gave you. And, you still seem unable to understand. Imagine if I had used what you call technological words and terms, then you would be completely lost.

Q: When we spoke last time you mentioned something about splitting time? What does that mean and how does it work? Can you please tell us what it means to stand at a place and split time?
A: You will not be able to understand but I will do my best to explain it to you briefly. It is like if you stand in front of a stage, with curtains in front. In some of your movies theatres the first layer of curtains goes up and the second layers moves to the sides seconds later… one after another like the old musicals- very elaborate.
So, what you are seeing are two motions, simultaneously, in different dimension but occurring on the same time.
NOTE #3: The alien female looked at the General and read his thought right away and said, I told you, you would not understand. Let me give you an easier example.

She continued: Now you are standing in front of two large stage theatre curtains. In fact, you see one closed curtain joined together; you don’t know there are two in front of you. The right side is in black, the left side is in white. When you look first you may think this is the same curtain with two colors. However, the person that designed the curtain knows there are two pieces joined together without being sewed together by a seam.

The seamstress had just put her hand between the opening, because she knows there are two pieces and she can go through. But the others that did not make the curtains wouldn’t attempt to go through it because they believe it is one piece, with two different colors.
The act or knowing that there are two pieces joined together, yet they are not. And the fact that you can find out at distance without touching it and the fact that you go through it right away, without bumping into the whole curtain, entering into the zone behind the curtain, we call it entering a split time zone.
Now, once you are behind the curtain and it was ordered that the two curtains will be lifted up, there is nothing separating you from the point of origin, there are no more curtains. They are worthless because they do not offer a purpose, whether or not they are here, they would not prevent you from going through but apparently it stopped you from going through as a human being. This is caused by a visual understanding as explained to you by your mind. Your mind is very limited.

Q: How come you know so much about our life, custom and history and what we do on earth?
A: This is a very simple matter. Everything you do and you’ve done does not vanish. The substance of everything you have done, whether physical or mental takes on a new shape, a new form. Nothing in the Universe comes to an end but it transforms itself into something else. If not, the Universe will seize to exist. If each time, part of the Universe, part of earth, part of the stars, part of the rocks, part of the air, part of the water vanishes and disappears, the Universe will be missing a lot of things. And, if this continues endlessly the Universe will be empty. But the idea of emptiness does not exist.
There is no such thing as an empty space because if there is something like an empty space you will not be able to find it.
And, to know where this empty space is, you have to know the limit of the empty space by comparing it to a full space.

The fact that you are doing this means, you have given a size, shape, space and border to the empty space. And, when you are able to localize and define its perimeter and limits, you just proved it exists.
This is a matter of mathematics and physics, according to your science.
So everything you have done on earth has been preserved from the beginning of earth time.
We can tap into it, if we are interested. But we are not interested in humanity affairs. You have been broadcasting for sometime now.
And the frequencies of your programs and your music are well preserved. But not as many of your thought that they have reached us because we are very far away. And all the frequencies of your noise, and music, were retained in your earth/ solar system perimeter. We knew about you, and also other advanced societies in the Universe, knew about you from a very, very long time ago. But, you had nothing to offer us. And if you wonder why then we are here on earth, if we are not interested in you I can give you lots of answers.
Some of the Galactic community members lived on earth before and your ancestors called them gods and goddesses. Many left earth while others remained here. And with those who have remained here on earth we share information with by means and ways incomprehensive to your mind.
We enter and exit your sky/atmosphere through time pockets. And this also is something new to you, that you now are not capable of understanding, but in the future you will.

Q: How do you explain the crash of those alien spaceships?
Should they crash against something physical?
A: They never crashed, they were smashed because they bumped against the time-wall.

Q: What do you mean?
A: I used the word wall so you can understand it physically. It is not a wall in the physical sense, it is a point of an entrance and exit that opens up and closes up in a matter of seconds.

When the space craft enters this point successfully, it will exit successfully. It has only a few seconds, sometimes a fraction of a second to do that. If the space craft misses the opening of the point or reaches the point that just closed it becomes solid. And, when it hits it, it smashes itself.

Q: So what we heard from other alien species about how their spacecraft crashed is not correct. We were told they were hit by an electrical discharge in the air that stroke their space craft, and they crashed to the ground.
A: This is not correct at all, because our communities are very advanced, even you in your limited/primitive standards, you have developed tools and ways to protect yourselves from electrical discharges and lightning.
You use a rod on the top of your buildings and homes to protect your homes from lightening and other atmospheric discharges. Many of your primitive airplanes were struck by lightning and still did not go down. Our machines are well protected against your atmosphere elements as well as other spaces and zooming dimensions.

Q: What do you mean by zooming dimension?
A: Our machines zoom into time-space zone. Our machines don’t fly like regular airplanes. They jump from one time space pocket to another time space pocket, in a non linear way.

Q: What do you mean non-linear way, is there another way to travel outside the line, you must have a track? How will a train leave one station and arrive at the other without a track or line, if it is out of the line? Or if it is moving in a non-linear way?
A: The way you see things on earth, the way you understand the universe, the way you set up appointments and meetings on earth is regulated and determined by time. Even your distances from one city to the next are calculated by time. Sometimes you forget about the distances between two cities or destinations, but you will know how long it will take you to get there. And, you keep looking at your watch.

This is a linear observation because you put time on one line. It is like if you take the time and put it at the border of one town and you will tell the time, drive with me, on the road to reach the other town.
So what you have done with time is make it linear. In our world, we do not travel like that. We don't make a straight line. It is a most primitive way of transportation, communication and travel since the Universe was created.
So, how do we reach our destination?
We do that by superposing it with the point of departure.

Q: This is impossible. None of our scientists agree with this.
A: We already know that, and this is why you are unable to reach us, luckily.

Q: So tell me now, if we fly your machine, you're saying, we're able to enter this non-linear rendezvous point and exit somewhere else? Is that correct?
A: No.

Q: Why not, we are flying the same machine?
A: That's the problem with you understanding the whole concept. First, our machines don't fly, they jump, and they zoom in and zoom out.
Second, they are not controlled by a dashboard or navigation system, or with anything on your regular airplane. They are controlled by our mind. We are part of our machines and our machines are an extension of our mental energy. So, you will not know how to operate those machines.
And I know you have already inspected the interior of some of those machines and you could not find what you were looking for.
There are no gears, to take off or to land, no steering wheel and no navigation system. What you saw was only a screen. And, a head band attached to the pilot of the machine. So this band received the order from our cell and transmits it to the machine. And this band works only on our cellular motor (means the alien brain; they call it cellular motor), which contains trillion upon trillions of cells, almost all are functional.

NOTE #4: Here, for the first time, the military, the scientists and others, who were present at the meeting, remained silent for 20 seconds. This had never happened before.
And, they were staring at each other. The alien apparently was addressing herself particularly to the general by moving the contour of her body toward the general.

The alien continued: Go ahead and call them, it's ok. Ask them to send you the band to look at it.

NOTE #5: I found this fascinating because the female alien already read the thought and intention of the general, who in fact, was going to call The Pentagon to ask them to send the band to him so their scientists could view and study it from this new point of view offered by the alien. He was hoping to find out how this band could be used as a communication and navigation tool.
NOTE #6: Following this line of questions there was other information that was shared in the meeting; however, I am not at liberty to share the details because they are of a military nature rotating around weapon systems, strategies and national security.
So, we will move on to other discussions with different alien species that occurred at different times with other teams, including the military and scientists.

Comments:

Throughout the entire meeting, the alien was not communicating verbally; no sound was heard from her.
Her communication was directly transmitted from her brain (cellular motor) to the device she gave us.
The device will receive her thought and answer in colors, images and frequencies, like we use to send messages through the Morse code.

At the far end of the machine, there is a screen which displays dots, multiple dots, empty spaces, and slashes and deciphers the letters or forms.
Secondly, after this was displayed on the screen, the machine would talk to us, in English, in a very and most un-usual English vocabulary. For example, the alien never used pronouns, such as “I” and occasionally she would use “we”.
The alien never said we have a body; instead she said, we have an Essence.
It took the military quite a while to re-interpret her English into their English. And, quit often they missed the point. A major part of her mind transmission was lost in the translation. Later on the military decided firmly that top notch linguists in the country should be present at all meetings with aliens.
Hopefully to help translate and interpret the alien languages and expressions correctly. Weeks later, I discovered that this was absolutely true because the alien device contained a limited amount of English vocabulary.
And, the words used mentally by the alien, technologically transmitted and displayed by the machine were those often used by the military in their daily life- normal everyday slang. It was very obvious, to me, that all her answers were not given to us with technological and scientific terms. At one point the female alien told us she avoided that on purpose.
And, should she had decided to answer us in alien technology, her language and scientific terms, we would not have understood anything because those alien scientific and technology terms could not be found in our dictionary and science books. So, she did her best to use common words known to the majority of people on earth.
Worth mentioning here, the alien described the time-space exit and entrance as pockets while the military called it rendezvous.
The military inquired about navigation system of the alien craft.
The alien used the term mental command.
There is no navigation.
The military used the expression “flying machines.”
The alien used jumping machine. The military used the word or terms linear distance, linear time- to get from one place to another. The alien said that non-linear is a juxtaposition of two destinations. Consequently, everything we believed in, including what the military and the scientists at the meeting believed in, was in sharp contract, opposition and contradiction with what the alien meant and explained.

At one point, it was decided by some scientists, that the amount of earth vocabulary should be increased and pictures be added to the device to widen the spectrum of receiving messages and interpreting them.
Regarding this, the aliens told them they did not need to do this because in the next meeting with other visitors, they will be able to communicate with them in mechanical English.
The general picked up the phone and talked to someone, we were not sure who. And then, one or two minutes later, a captain entered the room and whispered something in the ear of the general. The general then said, “Ok folks, that’s it for today. Let’s wrap it up. Only military personal stand by, others, we’ll see you later”.

Following the general’s orders asking the civilians to leave, two of the team of scientists were glad to leave the meeting so they could share and have a discussion about what just took place. As the two scientists walked down the long corridor they were followed by two MPs (Military Police).
One scientist commented how refreshing that the MPs were not carrying guns. He said, “Wow, they must be getting civilized”.
The other scientist, who was a noted scientist in Nazi Germany, then commented, why the military would not allow them to come to any of the first meetings with any of the aliens and why they were not allowed to know where or what galaxy they came from?
As they kept walking in the corridor a few seconds later, a captain came outside and followed the group of scientist asking one of them, Dr. Teller (who later became the father of the American Hydrogen Bomb), “Please go back to the room” (Dr. Teller was the only one who was allowed to stay in the room!)
The other scientists were bewildered and wondered why he was the only scientist to be asked back to the room. They wondered, was this some sort of favoritism?

Many of the scientists were pissed off as they were leaving the base. Ironically, at the same time, an old Plymouth or a Dodge, with a military tag/license plate parked outside, and Dr. Von Braun (the Father of the American Space Program who put us on the moon) was seen getting out of the car.
It became very apparent to me that the military did not trust all the scientists and vice-versa.
The scientists the military felt comfortable working with were:
a-Dr. Herman Oberth
b-Dr. von Braun
c- Dr. Edward Teller
d- Dr. Enrico Fermi.

Explanation of the alien's answers.

The aliens' answer: "We do not call each other by name unless it is very necessary because where we live the atmospheric condition does not always allow sounds to be heard. Part of our environment does not have atmosphere. And where there is no atmosphere there are two things that do not exist: Sound and Air."

"We do not call each other".

The device used to communicate with the alien did not contain enough words from our vocabulary (English language), to correctly, adequately and completely record and transmit what the alien really meant.
The device contained very limited number of words. For example "Call" meant communicate, and not talking to somebody or emitting a vocal sound.
The alien meant by "Call" a straightforward communication using mental frequency.
Of course, aliens are capable of producing sounds and vocal expressions. But their most common way of communicating with each other is via mental images' projections that take real form in their "Cellular Motor" (Brain' cells).

Yes, they are capable of producing and hearing voices, noises and sounds.
The first type of “Communication Device” used in the early meetings was called CTF (Transmission Channel); originally “Channel of the transmission frequency of aliens.” By the mid of November or December of 1948, the name was changed to TD (Talking Device).

In the early draft of “Contact”, a science-fiction novel by Dr. Carl Sagan, the alien’s device was mentioned. But as expected, it was deleted in the final copy of the book, just a few days before it was submitted to the publisher. I do not blame Dr. Sagan; I am sure he had some serious reasons for deleting any reference made to the alien’s communication device.
“unless it is very necessary.”

1948.

The alien meant, unless it is instant.
The word necessary was a wrong interpretation.
And “instant” meant, at the time aliens’ brains (Cellular Motors) are tuned to different communication frequencies. In another meeting, the alien did briefly explain how the cells in their brain (Cellular Motors) function; she said that their brains contains billions upon billions of cells interconnected to a main mental center of energy and collectively wired to other aliens’ brains. Thus, mental communications are instant.

First laser transmission hologram, by Emmett Leith and Juris Upatnieks, in 1964, but originally conceived and developed in 1948 by Dennis Gabor (The 1971 Nobel Prize Winner), who was one of the leading scientific advisors to the military, and who has elaborately commented on the Aliens' Transcripts.

Their "Cellular Motor" is not made from flesh and blood, but rather from channels and depots of knowledge and information data-base. She also said, while communicating with others, she can easily and instantly communicate with different groups using different emission channels.
It is like listening to a radio set capable of simultaneously transmitting different radio shows, programs and talks, and listening to all of them by turning the knob to one specific station.
I know it is not so easy to comprehend how this could be done.
None of our scientists could figure it out. Our team of scientists was puzzled by this, and decided to contact Freddie William and his team in England to find out how multiple transmissions (Radio or other medium) can be sent simultanously to one station, aired by the same station without "parasite", and clearly received/heard by listners. Worth mentioning here that the team of William were the inventors of of the RASD (Random Access Storage Device For Computer), in 1948.
Bell Laboratories were also contacted by our scientists and the military, because at that time, Bell scientists were woking on the first "TR" (Transistor Radio)

The aliens (Intraterrestrials and other species) upgraded our 1947-1951 technology to an unimaginable level.
Two of these discoveries (Upgraged/enhanced technology) were:
a- The cellular communications. Based upon technology given to us by the aliens, Bell Laboratories developed the first mobile telephone.
b-The prototype of the transistor, created in late 1947, and perfected to a certain degree in 1948 by Bell labs. The aliens did not get any credit, instead, three scientists from Bell Laboratories received the Nobel Prize for their scientific discovery!

Born in Budapest, Hungary, on June 5, 1900, and died on February 8, 1979.
He was a major scientific link between the aliens and Earth's technology. In 1972, he admitted that he had much unfinished technological work on his hands, and part of it was closely related to alien reverse-engineering.

Worth mentioning here that another major scientific breakthrough came in the form of “Laser”, also developed by Bell, and based upon aliens’ technology. Bell was (and still is) one of the first, principal and major military contractors.
Just read between the lines, what Arthur L. Schawkow, the 1981 Nobel Prize Winner for Laser Spectroscopy, wrote: “When the first lasers were operated, I and other scientists close to the research were surprised at how easy it turned out to be. We had assumed that, since lasers had never been made, it must be very difficult. But once you knew how, it was not at all difficult. Mostly what had been lacking were ideas and concepts.”
“because where we live the atmospheric condition does not always allow sounds to be heard.”
The alien meant, that atmospheric conditions change from one space zone to another space zone. In other words, in entering different dimensions or other galaxies, aliens can hear sounds that usually are not “registered” on their main planet.
“Part of our environment does not have atmosphere.”
The alien meant that a specific zone in the atmosphere of her planet does not have “Earth’s atmosphere.” This does not mean that their entire planet is without an atmosphere.
In another meeting, she did explain to us, that within one dimension of her planet, there are multiple layers of inner layers of different dimensions. It is like the old fashion way of typing on a typewriter and making carbon copies.
You type once, but what you typed is instantly copied on other copies. It is one stack of papers, but each one has a different zone, a different atmosphere, and is totally separated from the other carbon-copies, yet, all copies remain an integral part of what you have typed. This is another confusing explanation for how a single planet can have multiple and different atmospheres.
“We do not need oxygen to breath. We generate our own energy to survive from our inner organism.
Energy is the most important thing in the universe.”

Note: Our scientists were debating this issue. Each one had a personal opinion (Theory) about the kind of energy, the alien was talking about. Some believed it was some sort of bio-organic energy. The alien said NO! Others assumed that it was some sort of cellular-electric energy. And the alien said, “You are getting closer.”

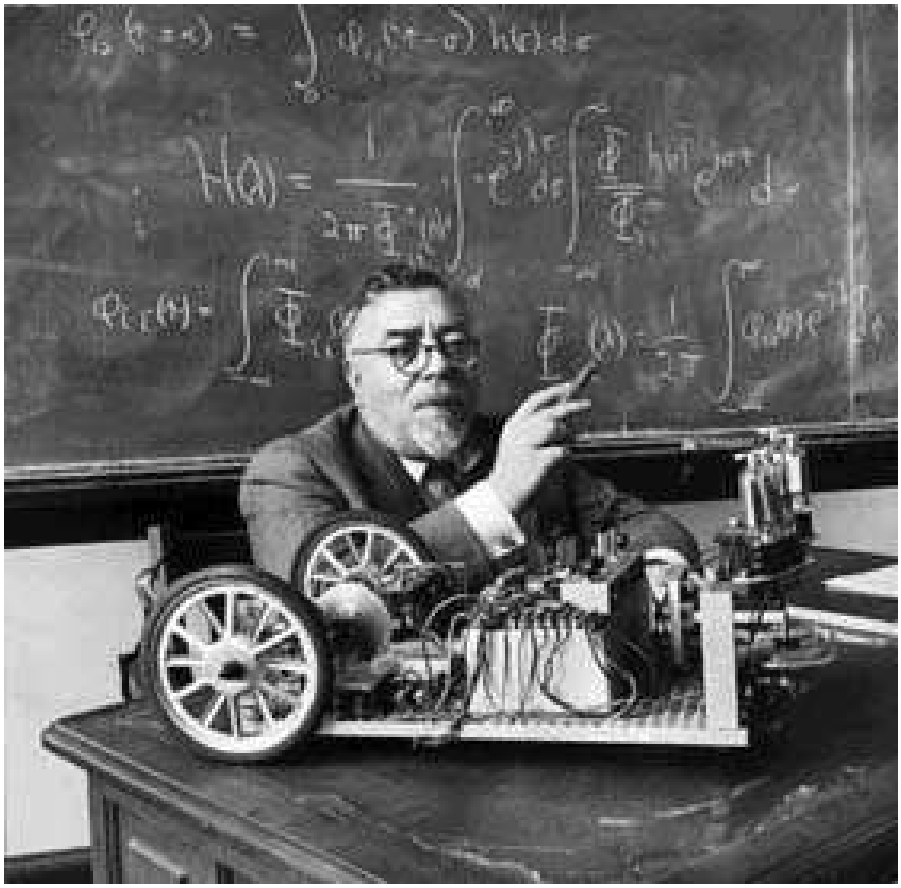
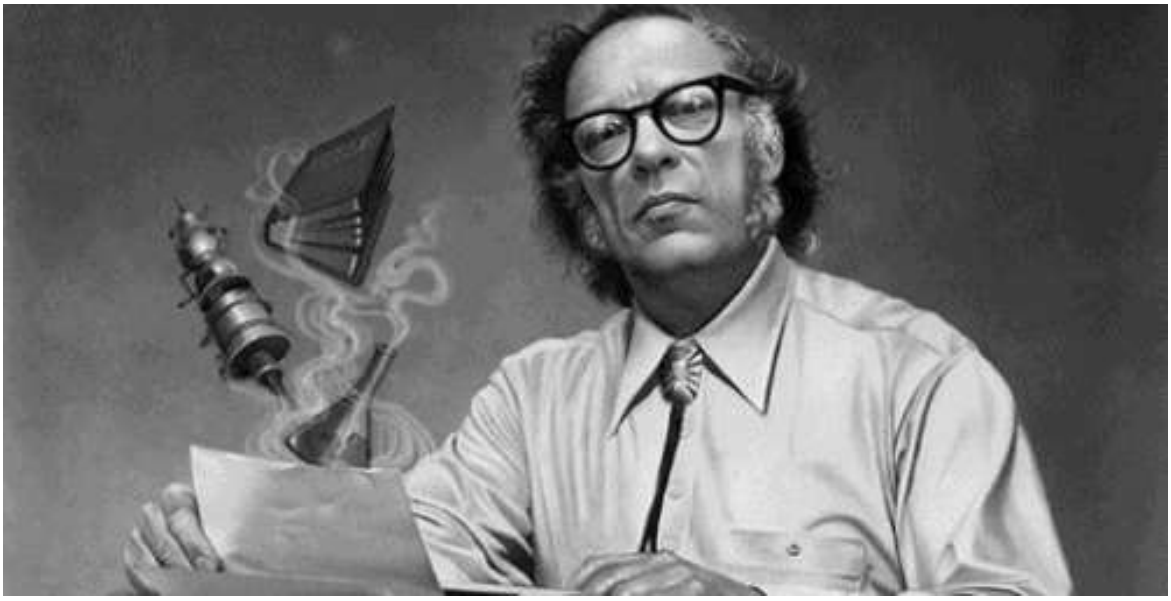
And she added, “Electricity as you know it is a very primitive kind of energy.”
Some thought that the alien is a “Programmed Intelligence responding to electric pulses created by structural channels inside her body.”

Worth mentioning here that Isaac Asimov was called in to give his opinion, and it was during a session he had with the military, that he came up with the word “Robotic” (First time ever used) referring to the mechanism and functioning of the body of the alien. And the rest is history. Years later, an avalanche of scientists, as well as science-fiction writers will adopt that term and incorporate it in their papers and writings. One of the most distinguished ones was Norbert Wiener (1894-1964) who has developed the notion and principles of cybernetics.



Norbert Wiener



Isaac Asimov coined the terms “Robots”, and “Robotics”. And very few know why and how he came up with these two terms.

But scientists and military men who were involved in dealing with aliens know very well, when, how and why, Asimov came up with these terms.

There is a very valid and an interesting point that one could raise about the importance of alien technology information given by the alien that could have easily shifted the history of our space program and our advancement in science – all of this entrusted in only two scientists; an American, the father of the H-bomb and a German, the genius behind the V1 and V2, and father of the American space program.

Dr. Hermann Oberth

The foremost authority on rocketry outside the United States was Dr. Hermann Oberth, a Hungarian-born German. In 1923, he published a book about rocket travel into outer space. Because of his important writings, many small rocket societies sprang up around the world. In the spring of 1930, a young Wernher von Braun assisted Oberth in his early experiments in testing a liquid-fueled rocket with about 15 pounds of thrust. Photo & text credit: NASA.

Dr. Hermann Oberth had access to the “Aliens Transcripts”. He stated: “We cannot take credit for our record advancement in certain scientific fields alone; we have been helped “people of other worlds.”

Dr. von Braun

He was directly involved in the recovery of a crashed alien spacecraft (UFO; crescent shape) and alien reverse engineering from 1947 to 1949.

Dr. Teller submitted a detailed report on UFO and alien reverse engineering to Presidents Truman and Reagan.

Questions and Answers:

A Colonel asked the alien if any of their spacecrafts has entered our oceans. The alien answered no.
The Colonel seemed to be confused.
Perhaps, he did not believe the alien, because he commented on the alien's answer by saying, "We have seen them…."
Aliens: Not ours.

Question: Not yours? Meaning what?
Alien: We have no need to enter your oceans.

Question: Apparently some did.
We saw something diving into the ocean. They were not ours.
How do you explain this? What do you have to say about this?
Alien: They belong to another race.

Question: Wow!! Who? What race?
Another alien race? How many are they?
From outer space?
Alien: Not from outer space.

Question: Where from then? The moon? Mars?
Alien: For your planet.

Question: Oh no!!! Not from here, I bet on it.
Answer: Your knowledge is very limited.

Question: Then tell me about it.
Alien: They are from your planet. They belong to a galactic race living on your planet. They are not from our world.

Note: This wasn't…much…of…help…replied the Lt. Colonel.
(Unreadable words.)
I could not clearly read the question/response of the military man in its entirety. A few lines were missing, and the ink was smeared on the page.
But you got the meaning. The military man was not satisfied by the alien's answer, because she did not give him the specific origin of those spacecrafts, and did not elaborate enough on the identity of their pilots.
A few months later, it became clear to us, that those alien spacecrafts were made by and piloted by an alien race that has lived here on Earth for millions of years, and long before modern Man walked on the surface of the globe.
The aliens have huge habitats underwater as well as on remote areas inaccessible to us. Some 70 or 75 years ago, we organized and funded an expedition to those remote areas, and two additional expeditions to the North Pole.
And what we found was beyond belief and absolutely mind-bending.
Some initial reports confirmed the existence of "Bizarre locations and compounds" and contained self-explanatory notes such as:
1-"Unknown to us",
2-"Not Man-made",
3-"Extensive structures made from materials unknown to us",
4-"Defies explanation…"

Dr. Teller asked the alien about the propulsion system of those alien crafts, and how they operate underwater. The alien replied (As she did many times before) that he will not be able to understand, mainly because our science books and scientific research do not have the aliens' technological/scientific terms, and corresponding information, explanation and description.
Secondly, because the propulsion technology used by the aliens contradict our laws of physics.

Dr. Teller was persistent and replied, “Let me be the judge of that…”
Another scientist asked whether there is any sort of combustion, an anti-gravity propeller, electro-magnetic channel or current, an aquatic source of energy, etc. And the alien replied NO!
The alien added that once the spacecraft enters the water, it takes on different scientific properties; the craft does not plunge in the water as we have assumed. It does not dive.
In fact, it never touches the surface of the water.
In some incomprehensible manner, the craft creates some sort of vacuum tunnel before it penetrates the water.
Inquiring about the “Vacuum Tunnel”, a scientist asked whether the tunnel can be measured, whether the tunnel is made from materials found on Earth, or whether the tunnel is created by the spacecraft itself, and could this tunnel be detected by us.
The alien answered that the tunnel could NOT be detected by us, nor measured, because it is movable, temporarily used, it is not physical, and could not be detected by any sonar system.
Dr. Teller asked the alien about the “invisible” structure of the aliens’ tunnel and what it consists of. The alien said, it is “Mitra” (Cold Plasma.)
I am absolutely sure that back then in mid 1948, none of our scientists understood or fully comprehended what a Cold Plasma was?! In 2010, I tried very modestly to explain this tunnel on the History Channel. The best way I could have described it is by calling it “Corridor Plasma”; a term mentioned by the Grays.
None of our contemporary scientists, Americans and foreigners, military or civilians commented on what I have said, for obvious reasons: Firstly, they don’t know, nor do I! And secondly, many of them reject the whole idea, while a few sincere scientists are still inquiring about this fantastic technology and intensifying their research in the field of aquatic cold plasma.
Today, in 2013, I have a different opinion about all this; our military scientists know exactly and very well what an “Aquatic Cold Plasma” is. And I am delighted to learn that.
This technology is needed on so many levels, especially in the field of global energy, solar energy, cosmic energy, Earth energy and domestic energy we use on a daily basis.

AUTEC has become the front leader in this area. And without any hesitation or restriction I would say Mazel Tov!

From a transcript of a meeting with aliens in early 1949:
Present at the meeting:
Note: Access to the list of attendees was restricted.

Questions and Answers:
Question: Can you tell me how many different races there are on your planet?
Alien: Many.
Different Essences, structures and different categories.

Question: Do you communicate with all of them?
Alien: Yes.

Question: So, how do you communicate with all of them?
Alien: In many different ways.
We use our cellular motor.
We use images projected mentally.
We use graphs.
We use mind transmission channels.
We use collective transmission.

Question: Why haven’t they communicated with us?
Alien: Give me one good reason why should they communicate with you. Would you communicate with inferior species? What would you learn from them?
You don’t even know how to communicate with each other. You don’t know how to communicate with animals. You don’t know how to communicate with nature. We find it very amusing that you have thousands of different languages on earth, instead of one which everyone could understand.
First, learn how to communicate with your own kind; and after, invite other civilizations to communicate with you.

Question: Do they know about us?

Alien: Yes. The Universe is not divided. The Universe has no frontiers. Your world is divided by the frontiers you created.

Question: Are they hostile?
Alien: Some. Few. Very few.

Question: What do they look like?
Alien: Some are without a Frame (physical structure).
Some purely cellular.
Some purely mental.
Some ethero-organic.
Some vibrational.
Some multi-dimensional.
Some physical.
Some physical-mental.
Some superposed presences.
Some exist between parallel dimensions.
Some are from the future.
Some did not exist yet.
Some are what we call penetrating vibrations.
Some organic.
Some spheric.
And some other “Essences” your mind cannot understand.
Some have all your physical senses and faculties but do not have ears to hear, eyes to see, mouths to taste, hands to feel because those organs are completely useless outside your world.

Question: Do they understand any of our languages?
Alien: Not all of them. No reason too. They are not interested in your kind. But your languages can be easily understood by us once they are fed to our machines.
Question: Do they have any intentions of contacting us?
Alien: Some did in the past. There is a non human race that is in contact with you because they are concerned with earth safety, for they consider earth as their own habitat.

Question: What should we do in the event they do contact us?

Alien: It depends on the race that communicates with you or suddenly appears in your world. If they are hostile, there is nothing you can do because they are far more advanced than you. It would be a bad day for earth. It is not advisable for your kind to try to communicate with other species, for your own safety.

Note: According to the alien, it's best not to try to contact any of the other species because you cannot be sure who you may come in contact with. You may find yourself contacting a race that has hostile tendencies. Therefore, for the safety of earth, contacting other species is not recommended. (It's like somebody knocking at your door, after midnight, in a remote area. It's a risk to open the door because you don't know who is going to be there).
This was a common practice of our American frontier pioneers in the old wild West, who always had their riffles handy, living in fear, and preparing for the unknown as a means of protection, especially against strangers and intruders.
They would immediately reach for their guns, revolvers and riffles.

Question: Do they have a planetary system similar to ours?
Alien: Yes, but on a much larger scale.
Your planet has one moon, other planets may have up to five moons. Some planets have no gravity, some planets are anti-gravity, some planets have heavier gravity than earth.
So now you might understand why other races look very differently from your kind. Their anatomy and physiognomy will scare you terribly as you, might scare other races who are not highly developed.

Note: Other races are not highly developed, by the alien's standards, not by earth standards because we are still at the very bottom of cosmic civilization. And, what the alien considered not highly advanced alien civilizations are unquestionably millions of years ahead of us.

Question: So, why are you here? What made you come?
Alien: You are on our way.

Question: What do you mean, on your way? Where?
Alien: Earth and your solar system and their location in the Milky Way, are our passage to other galaxies.

Question: Have you been here before?
Alien: Yes.

Question: Have we been visited by other races from outside our solar system?
Alien: Yes.

Question: How far from Earth is the nearest civilized intelligent species?
Alien: Fifteen light years.

Question: What language do they speak?
Alien: I have already explained to you how other civilizations, including ours, communicate with each other. However, there are sixteen civilizations whose languages are very similar to a phonetic language the Anunnaki used when they came to earth. Your early ancestors in some part of earth have learned that language. But, wars and foreign invasions of their land, erased that language.
In doing so you have lost your greatest opportunity to keep a link with far more advanced civilizations.

Note: The alien meant that when nations or groups of highly developed people loose their language because of destructive means and domination by aggressive foreign forces, Earth looses a major and essential part of its history and cultural wealth. And as a result, a major aspect of its authentic identity suffers.
So, we, humans, lost a direct link to our past and our origin. Really, we don’t know very much about our ancient history and the early history of civilization on Earth because no language was left or preserved to learn about highly developed or advanced civilizations who lived on Earth before we invented ice cream cones, and hot dogs at Coney Island.

This is unfortunately what happened to Phoenicia when it was destroyed by Alexander the Great and absorbed by the Roman Empire. As soon as the Phoenician language died out, Phoenicia and its civilization died as well.

Question: How advanced are they?
Alien: Some millions of years, others billions of years ahead of you.

Question: How old are they?
Alien: As old as the Universe itself, as old as the cosmic energy because everything is made from the cosmic energy. The Essence never dies; it is transformed and re-transformed endlessly.

Question: What do they think of us?
Alien: I have already answered this question. I sense fear in your question.

Question: Do they have a structured social system?
Alien: It is a collective awareness. From our very limited knowledge of your English language, I can freely tell you that we do not have a pronoun like the word “I”; simply because, it is considered a manifestation of egotism.

Note: The alien meant that the word/pronoun “I” is contrary to the collective consciousness or universal oneness their society lives by.

Question: How would you describe their anatomy?
Alien: I have already answered this question. Rewind the screen (she means the messages received by the speaking device).
Question: What is their average life-span?
Alien: It depends on each civilization, some are constantly superposed, multiplied and reproduced. Some live millions of years, others hundreds of thousands of years. It all depends on the level of their development, advancement, technology and cosmic awareness. And some who are an essential part of the cosmic particles never die.

Note: It is very striking to hear the alien's answer because some 60 years later, our scientist are still trying to discover at CERN, what they call the "God's particle". This is exactly what the alien referred to in 1948.

Question: Do they believe in God?
Alien: I have already answered this question. Rewind the tapes of the speaking device.
Note: The previous answer was: Each Universe has its own god.

Question: Do they have armed forces?
Alien: They have organized forces.
Those who live in lower dimensions do have aggressive means, and they are quite destructive. This is why I already advised you never to try to communicate with what or who when you don't know who that may be.

Question: How advanced are they?
Alien: You have a tendency to repeat the same questions over and over again. I have already answered this question.
Rewind the screen.
I can read your mind, you are not without intelligence. You are testing my consistency. This is part of your weakness. Suspicions are self-destructive.

Note: When she said that, two military men, the scientists and one anthropologist started to nod and shake their heads after her response. Following the meeting, they noted that perhaps they should start keeping their questions more consistent since her memory is impeccable and that perhaps they should start to be totally honest with her. After all she does read minds.
One military man had another idea.

He said, don’t do that yet; how about if you repeat the same question right away, back to back, over and over again perhaps she’s a recording device, how do we know. (My personal belief is that his intention was to trick her.) Outside the meeting, the same military man said to the group of scientists, do you remember what Isaac Asimov told us, she’s a machine, he called her a robot. I don’t know what the hell a robot is but he made it clear that this is a machine and this machine has some sort of leathery skin.

In 1948, the first time the words Robot and Robotics were coined by Isaac Asimov. It was too early for the military or non-military to fully understand what the word robot meant. Even when the word robot was used in one of the meetings with the alien, the alien herself did not understand what was meant by the word because it was not yet entered in our common vocabulary, especially in the vocabulary of our languages randomly selected by the alien.

The scientists found the military man’s suggestion silly and childish to mess with an alien who is millions of years ahead of them.

They collectively decided that all questions will be agreed upon before they go inside again to meet with the alien. This was sparked because there were two sets of questions: One from the scientists, which was approved by the top brass, and the other, from the military which the scientists never had a chance to review. The General in charge of the meeting did not agree at first because quite often during the course of the session the General would ask the civilians to leave the room, especially when dealing with questions and answers pertaining to national security, weaponry and strategies supplied by the alien.

Finally, the group decided to combine one list with both the military and scientist questions. And collectively they finally agreed to be honest and straight forward with the alien.

Worth mentioning here that one very considerate scientist made the point that, he did not care if this “thing” (Meaning the alien) was a robot, a machine or whatever, “that this alien, regardless of what it is, has more spirituality than any of us!”

Question: How would you define a scientifically advanced civilization?
Alien: When you don’t use power or aggression to convince others, you are on your way to civilization.
When you look toward the universe and other communities before you look at yourself, you are on your way to civilization.
When you get rid of your weapons, any tools of destruction, you are on your way to civilization.
When you open your hand and extend your arm to welcome other realms of knowledge and wisdom rather than close your hands, make fists for war and stiffen your jaw, then you are on your way to civilization.
When you stop to have locks on your doors and fear intrusions, you are on your way to civilization.
When you unify one language for all the people of your kind, you are on your way to civilization.
When you stop to categorize people by gender, by race and by colors, you are on your way to civilization.
When you are no longer in need of law enforcements, judges, jails, courts and punishment, you are on your way to civilization.
When you get rid of your monetary system, you are on your way to civilization.
When you stop killing living creatures (animals and creatures of the sea) and eating their flesh and blood, you are on your way to civilization.
When you stop dropping your waste in the oceans and polluting your environments, you are on your way to civilization.
When you get rid of your organized religions and scare people by false threats such as burning in hell and alike, you will be on your way to civilization.
Finally, when you start to believe in the divine essence of yourself and the spiritual mental immortality of your very being, you will be on your way to civilization. But, we know you will never do any of the above.

Note: One anthropologist who was listening to the alien’s answer had tears in his eyes.

You would think that the attendees at the meeting would be motivated and impressed by what she said. Absolutely not.
Instead, many of the group continued to hammer the alien with tricky questions. The alien was unable to express her disgust through facial expressions, because she was not 100% physical. But, in someway it was very obvious how she felt about the line of questioning and our selfish intentions.

Question: How many advanced civilizations are in the universe Alien: Billions.

Question: Where does the universe begin and end?
Alien: The universe began before time and space was created. There is no beginning and no ending for the ever expanding and ever lasting universe.

Question: How would you explain the creation of the universe?
Alien: I have already answered this question.
Question: How would you explain time?
Alien: Time is a notion created by your kind. You can't measure time unless you transcend it. In your current condition, and based on your level of science and technology, you can't do that yet; and consequently, you could not understand what time is. In your mind, time is measured by space and distances that separate you. From what you are looking at, or trying to reach.
And, this is why you will never be able to understand time as long as you attach it to a distance and motion of objects.
Question: How would you explain the relation between time and space?
Alien: One contains the other. One eliminates the other.

Question: Which is bigger and more important, time or space?
Alien: What is beyond time and space.

Question: How do you measure time?
Alien: Time cannot be measured. It is your kind's perception of what it can't be measured and evaluated. Yet you live by it.

Question: How do you measure space?
Alien: We don’t.

Question: Is there something in the universe faster than the speed of light?
Alien: Yes. The cellular motor’s speed.

Question: How do you measure it?
Alien: We don’t. It is faster than us. And since it is part of us and we are part of it, we become one with it. You can’t measure what is your Essence, because you will limit it and prevent it from growing.

Question: What is your agenda?
Alien: No agenda.

Question: Is it shared by other civilizations?
Alien: No. I just told you we have no agenda.
You are not listening!

Question: Do you consider us an advanced civilization?
Alien: No.

Question: What it would take for a civilization to be considered civilized and advanced?
Alien: I have already answered this question.

Question: Do you have any kind of surveillance or monitoring system strong enough to monitor Earth? All of it?
Alien:

Question: How it does work?
Note: The alien refused to answer.

Question: Is it from outer space or in our atmosphere?
Note: The alien refused to answer.

Question: Are you willing to share with us some of your technology?
Alien: Not yet.

Question: Do you have weather on your planet?
Alien: Yes, but not necessary atmosphere.

Question: Can you control the weather?
Alien: Yes.

Question: How do you control the weather?
Note: The alien refused to answer.
Question: How can we convince your people we are a peaceful nation?
Alien: We already know your intentions. You can't.

Question: Do you a centralized military command?
Alien: Yes.

Question: Who is in charge of your centralized military command?
Note: The alien refused to answer.
Question: Do you have a naval fleet?
Note: The alien refused to answer.

Question: Do you have military ranks? A military hierarchy?
Alien: Yes.
Question: Would you describe your military ranks and military hierarchy to us?
Note: The alien refused to answer.

Question: When you meet with other races…do you meet with them physically or mentally?
Do you use a physical body or something else?
Alien: It depends on the nature and structure of their Essence.

Question: In your part of the Universe, do you use the same crafts you use to come to Earth?

Alien: If necessary.

Question: Meaning what?
Alien: We do, if we enter a dense physical dimension. But we can always do it without machines very easily. If the time-space pockets do not respond, we then use ort time-machines.

Question: What is a time-machine?
Alien: A tool that does not bend or fail while entering multiple or consecutive parallel dimensions, unless it misses times-space pockets.

Question: The one you used to come to Earth…
Is it a time-machine?
Alien: Yes.

Question: Is Earth a consecutive parallel dimension?
Alien: Yes. Part of it.

Question: Then why did you use a time-machine and not another "tool"? Earth is a dense physical dimension? Isn't it?
Alien: Not always.

Question: What do you mean not always?
Alien: We do not enter your space.
We do not fly in your atmosphere. We zoom in. This eliminates any density.
Note: None of the attendees understood a word.
I can guarantee you that. The presiding General told the two scientists who were hammering the alien with this sort of questions to move on to another area of questioning.
He instructed them to ask more specific questions closely related to space-strategies and operational procedures of the crafts.

Question: Do you believe in God?
Alien: Which one?

Question: Our God!
Alien: Each Universe has its own god, which is the “Highest Essence”. I have already answered this question so many times. Before. You are wasting your time. And your intentions are very clear to me. No, I will not contradict myself. I am remember everything I have said in the past. Rewind the machine.

Question: Do you believe in hell?
Alien: No.

Question: Do you believe in heaven, the Christian Paradise?
Alien: No.

Question: Do you believe in the final judgment?
Alien: It happens every day.

Question: What do you mean?
Alien: It happens as you speak. You are your own final judgment.

Question: Do you believe in reincarnation?
Alien: No.

Question: How old is the Universe?
Alien: 80 trillions by your standard of time, space, and distance. And much less by our standards. You can’t understand now.

Question: Who created the Universe?
Alien: Itself.

Question: Please explain.
Alien: The Universe came to exist before time and space existed.

Question: What do you mean?
Alien: There is no beginning otherwise the Universe would need a creator.

Question: Do you mean the Universe created itself?
Alien: Not exactly.

Question: Would you please clarify?
Alien: You would never understand unless you get outside time and space.

Question: How can I do that?
Alien: In your situation and condition, you can’t.

Question: Can you?
Alien: Yes.

Question: How come?
Alien: Because I am not a physical entity.

Question: Meaning what?
Alien: I am not trapped or defined by age, space, and time. Possibly by memory if needed.

Question: Memory? What kind of memory?
Alien: The one that gives me a “Frame”;
the one I use when I enter a physical dimension.

Question: I don’t understand.
Alien: I already know that. Look at the screen (Speaking Device)

Question: Why don’t we get rid of this machine and talk in plain English. Or why don’t you teach us your language? This will save us lots of trouble. It is very confusing you know.
You don’t understand our language and we don’t understand yours.
Alien: Confusing to your kind, only.

Question: Are your people aware of your situation? Do they know you are here? Do they know you are talking to us?
Alien: Yes. Affirmative.

Question: How do they know that?
Alien: We are linked to each other.

Question: Linked? How? With what? What kind of link?
Alien: Our Cellular Motor.

Question: Here we go again with this crap of…. (Lines erased, unreadable.)
Note: Second line was smeared.
Can you forget for a second about your Cellular Motor, and explain how the link is established between you and your people? It is by telepathy?
Alien: Not always. You need telepathy only when others don't receive your direct message, or understand your thoughts projection.

Question: Are you willing to teach us your language?
Alien: It is worthless on Earth.

Question: Why?
Alien: It does not correspond to anything you have on Earth.

Question: What would happen if one of us lands on your planet?
Alien: He will die.

Question: Why?
Alien: The atmosphere.

Question: Please explain.
Alien: Humans can't survive on our planet. Before they arrive to our planet, they will be crashed, they will melt, they will be vaporized.

Question: By what? Who will melt them?
Alien: Cosmic radiations.

Question: If we manage to escape radiations or wear protective suits, and land on your planet, what would happen to us? More bad surprises…
Alien: You will suffocate.

Question: Why?
Alien: No oxygen.
No atmosphere.
And you will loose all your senses.

Question: We will carry oxygen tanks and special equipments.
Alien: They will stop to function. You and your equipments will float like feathers. You will not be able to land.

Question: If I remember you told us that part of your planet has an atmosphere, so we will land there.
Alien: First, you have to penetrate first the non-atmosphere zone.
Second, you must survive the non-atmosphere zone, which you can't, and then you enter our atmosphere zone. It would take you millions of years. And if you succeed to do so, you will have no more muscles left; no more bones, no more blood, and no more tissues.

Question: Do you have a chronology of Earth?
Alien: It is recorded.

Question: Where?
Alien: in the Miraya.

Question: What is that?
Alien: A cosmic monitor. A cosmic depository.

Question: Where do we find this depository?
Alien: You can't. It is beyond your reach.

Question: Who recorded Earth's chronology?
Alien: You did; your noise, your broadcast, you wars, your savagery, your weapons, your violence.

Question: We did?

How could we, if the depository you talked about is beyond our reach?
Alien: You could still look at some far distant objects or at a particular destination and you would not be able to reach any of these objects and the far away destination because of the enormous distances that separate them from you, but they will always be there, whether you reach them or not.
You do not need to reach a destination or touch an object to make it exist. Look at your moon.
Did you reach it? No.
But it is there. Same thing for the depository.
It is there like the Moon which you can't reach, maybe in the future, you will land on the Moon, and you begin to understand.

Question: Would you feel my hand if I touch you?
Alien: It will register.

Question: Meaning what?
Alien: My Cellular Motor will sense first what you feel when you touch me.

Question: Please explain.
Alien: As soon as you touch my "Frame", my Cellular Motor registers everything about your hand. It will read your health condition, your intentions, your emotions, your strength, your weaknesses; anything and everything your hand can release. This is what our Essence will sense and feel.

Question: You mean you would feel what I would normally feel if I touch you? My own feelings?
Alien: Yes.

Question: If so, then you do not have personal feelings?
Alien: Our Essence has more feeling than you can imagine. We understand physical feelings. We are not affected by physical feelings because we are NOT biological. Our Frame receives and our Cellular Motor reads and analyses instantly.
Question: Do you sense danger?

Do you feel pain?
Do you feel heat and cold?
Alien: We do. We also feel what is not physical.
This is more important. You do not have enough energy to leave a lasting impression.
Do not confuse energy with physical strength or a violent act.
Physical strength does not affect us. And a violent act is instantly neutralized by our Essence.

Question: What kind of memory do you have?
Alien: Non-sensorial memory.

Question: Please explain.
Alien: Cellular memory.

Question: What is a Cellular Memory?
Alien: It is everything.
It is an essential part of the basic mechanism of our Cellular Motor. It contains and constantly updates our data-base, our knowledge, our learning, and analyzes what to anticipate.

Question: Where is located your memory?
Alien: It is collective.
It is shared.
It is transmitted.
It has no determined location.
But it is animated by a center in our Cellular Motor.

Question: Is your Cellular Motor an engine?
A motor in the real sense?
Alien: To a certain degree. But it is Not organic.
It is not biological.
It is not physical.

Question: Do you have a written language?
Alien: Yes, affirmative.

Question: Is it the same for all the people who live up there?

Alien: Up there?
Note: Yes! The linguist used the words “People”, and “Up there”.
Question: I am taking in your world, planets, stars, galaxies?
Alien: Yes, affirmative.

Question: And everybody understands your language?
Alien: Yes, affirmative.
(Note: On the screen of the speaking device, this answer changed color to deep pink, instantly.
I don’t know the meaning of this sudden change in color from black to pink.)

Question: Do you use a well-defined alphabet?
Alien: We have created what you call “Alphabet”.

Question: What do you mean? Please explain in terms and words we can understand.
Alien: Our written alphabet is not very different from the early alphabet of the Phoenicians. But it is richer scientifically.

Question: Please explain this.
Alien: Our alphabet is scientifically created to correspond to all aspects and forms of science and our knowledge of the universe.

Question: What do you mean?
Alien: The truth in the universe should be expressed through one universal language that could be easily and rapidly understood by other civilizations, from the past, the present and the future, even though, the three are one.

Question: Again, please explain what do you mean?
Alien: You will not understand now. None of you will.

Question: Is your alphabet used in math, chemistry and physics?
Alien: It is one unified language for all our knowledge, including science and other forms of learning.

Question: Why didn’t you learn English?

Alien: It is insignificant. It is limited. It is too little.

Question: Do you know, speak or understand any other Earth's language (s)?
Alien: It is insignificant. It is limited. It is too little.

Question: Do you understand anything…about….
Note: Few lines and dots could not be read.
our language, vocabulary, phrases, or writings….?
Note: The question did not end here; the last two lines could not be read, because of missing ink.
Alien: Yes.

Question: Is your alphabet or language purely scientific?
Alien: Yes.

Question: Do you express emotions in your language?
Aliens: Emotions is not the right word. Instead we use the word "Intelligence".

Question: What intelligence has to do with emotions, when we are talking about language compositions and vocabulary?
Alien: Emotions are humans' natural responses and reactions to many things.
We do not react, we act.
We do not respond, we continue the process.

Question: What do you mean? Please explain.
Alien: You will not understand.
Note: The general stepped in.
The general's question: Is there some sort of a secret language or a code you use when you communicate with other groups? By the way how do you communicate with others?
Alien: No code. No secrets.
No hidden language in any of our communications. Knowledge is universally shared.

General's question: Do you talk to each other?

What language do you use?
Can we learn your language?
Alien: Yes affirmative. We use a cosmic scientific knowledge understood by all recipients. Yes you can learn our language. It is simple. It is complete. It is truthful. It is infinite.

General's question: Who are those recipients?
Alien: The Essences.

General's question: The Essences? Meaning what? Who? Who are these essences?
Alien: Everything and anything that has intelligence.
Note: I am absolutely sure that the General did not understand what the alien meant. This lack or inability of understanding the alien became apparent in additional questions he asked much later, and which I can't print in this book, because they relate to military secrets and national security.
Thank you for understanding.

General's question: Are the signs (He meant symbols and geometric shapes/drawings) on your craft from your language?
Alien: Yes. Affirmative.

General's question: What do they mean?
Alien: You have the same thing on your flying machines.

General's question: What same thing? What? What?
What are you talking about?
Alien: Look at the screen.
(Note: The alien meant the speaking device.)

General's question: How can we learn your language?
Do you have manuals? Books?
Alien: No books.

General's question: So how can we learn it then?
Alien: You will, when we feel you are ready and worthy.

Note: This was not the end of the meeting.
Additional subjects pertaining to weapons, military strategies, and national security were discussed.

Manufactured Aliens:
According to Riyah, the aliens' essences (creatures) are given life instantly and they are complete when they are born (Produced). In other words, they do not need years upon years to become adult and mature. They are born adult with all the knowledge, wisdom and information they need to function as a complete, fully grown, fully developed, fully intelligent creature Question #9: How did Maria Orsic and other incarnated Anunnaki offsprings explain the world of extraterrestrials, and describe Aldebaran?

Answer: Aldebaran is also called Ashtari, and Alpha Tauri, the planet of the Anunnaki. It is the brightest star in the Hyades; a giant red star in the constellation of Taurus; one of the 15 brightest stars with a visual magnitude of 0.85. Its diameter is 44 times that of the Sun. It is accompanied by a very faint (13th magnitude) red companion star. Aldebaran lies 65 light-years from Earth.
The star was once thought to be a member of the Hyades cluster, but in fact Aldebaran is 85 light-years closer to Earth. Aldebaran was nicknamed "The Follower" because it rises after the Pleiades cluster of stars. A NASA trusted scientist reported that in 1972, NASA sent a message to the people of Aldebaran, and another one via Pioneer 10.

Aldebaran (Ashtari) in ancient religions, mythology, astrology and esoteric studies:
a-The Hindu masters called it Rohoni.
b-The Phoenicians referred to it as the Eye of the Universe.
c-To the ancient Persians, Aldebaran (Ashtari) was one of the four royal stars, and considered to be the star of wisdom and enlightenment.

d-Aldebaran inaugurated the beginning of the Babylonian year, some 5,100 years ago.
e-In the “Book of Chaldea”, Aldebaran was mentioned as the “guiding light -on the physical passage- toward the realms of the gods (Extraterrestrials).
f-The ancient Habiru (Early Hebrews) called it the Eye of Il “El” (God).
g-Eastern ascetics and numerous Buddhist monks called it the Star of the Buddha.
h-The Rouhaniyiin called it the realm of the Mounawiriin (The Enlightened Ones).
i-The early Akkadians called it the passage to heaven.
j-Ashtari was known to the Arabs as Aldebaran.
The verb “Adbara” in Arabic means: He left, he moved away, he traveled, he walked away. And the correct meaning of the word Aldebaran is NOT “who he follows, or the follower” as tragically interpreted by Encyclopedia Britannica! And I am puzzled and astonished by Britannica’s wrong definition of Aldebaran!!
Al Debaran or AlDaber means, “he who moved away, who left, who traveled”, and the Arabic verb is “Adbara”. Any person who speaks Arabic knows what “Adbara” means. The Arab nomads and early tribes in the Middle East, including the Persian Gulf and the Arab Peninsula have used the verbs “Idbir” and “Adbar” in their spoken dialect, and written language.

Aldebaran was mentioned in two important books:

- 1-The Anunnaki Ulema “Book of Ramadosh”,
- 2-The Arabic book “Ilmu Al Donia” (Science or Knowledge of the world”.

So, Aldebaran is Ash.Ta.Ri, the constellation of the Anunnaki, and the home of the extraterrestrials beings of lights Maria told us about. But keep in mind, that the Aldebaran’s aliens are not the Anunnaki, but an offspring of the Anunnaki, sharing the same galactic genes.
And yes, both descended on Phoenicia, Mesopotamia and the Anatolian plateau of Asia Minor (Turkey and Armenia) 450,000-460,000 B.C. The Aldebarans’ extraterrestrials who were part of the Anunnaki's expedition to Earth, took part in establishing civilizations in the Near East, Middle East and Asia Minor.

Some of their colonies were:

- Eridu
- Uruk
- Nippur
- Nineveh
- Lagash
- Ur
- Umma
- Assur
- Ebla
- Saydoon (Sidon, Saida)
- Tyrakh (Tyre, Sour)
- Kadmosh
- Adonakh
- Ilayshim
- Markadash (Byblos to the Greeks, and Jbail to the Arabs)
- Baalbeck, where we find the legendary "Hajarat Al Houblah"
- Ugarit

These cities and their civilizations are mentioned in the ancient scriptures, slabs, and clay tablets of the Middle East, Near East, the Phoenician Cosmogony, the Sumero-Akkadian epics written in cuneiform, and the Bible.

Maria Orsic was right when she said that the Aldebaran's people created civilizations in Mesopotamia (Sumeria, Babylon, Akkad, so on), and they came from Aldebaran (Ash.Ta.Ri, Alpha Tauri).
Some authors and well-known hosts of TV shows on aliens have claimed that Nibiru is the planet of the Anunnaki and the ancient alien gods, because the Sumerian tablets said so!
If this is the case, then Maria Orsic's claims are wrong! No! Maria was right, and they are wrong because the Sumerian epics never mentioned Nibiru as the home-planet of the Anunnaki; those people need -first- to learn Akkadian and Sumerian before they interpret epics written in languages they can’t read.

The Anunnaki-Ulema have revealed to us that some planets in our galaxy, as well as in Ashtari constellation are positioned on a 33.33 degree line which serves as “Ba’ab” (Gateway) to other galaxies and dimensions. This 33.33 degree line was mentioned by Maria Orsic.
Ashtari constellation has millions upon millions of stars and planets, and many of them are a physical stargate, the Anunnaki Ulema call “an opening on” multiple universes and dimensions, including the astronomical bodies of the physical galaxies, and celestial ones that escape time and space, even before time was created, and since time existed as another dimension outside the landscape of the physical universe; this is incomprehensible to the human mind.

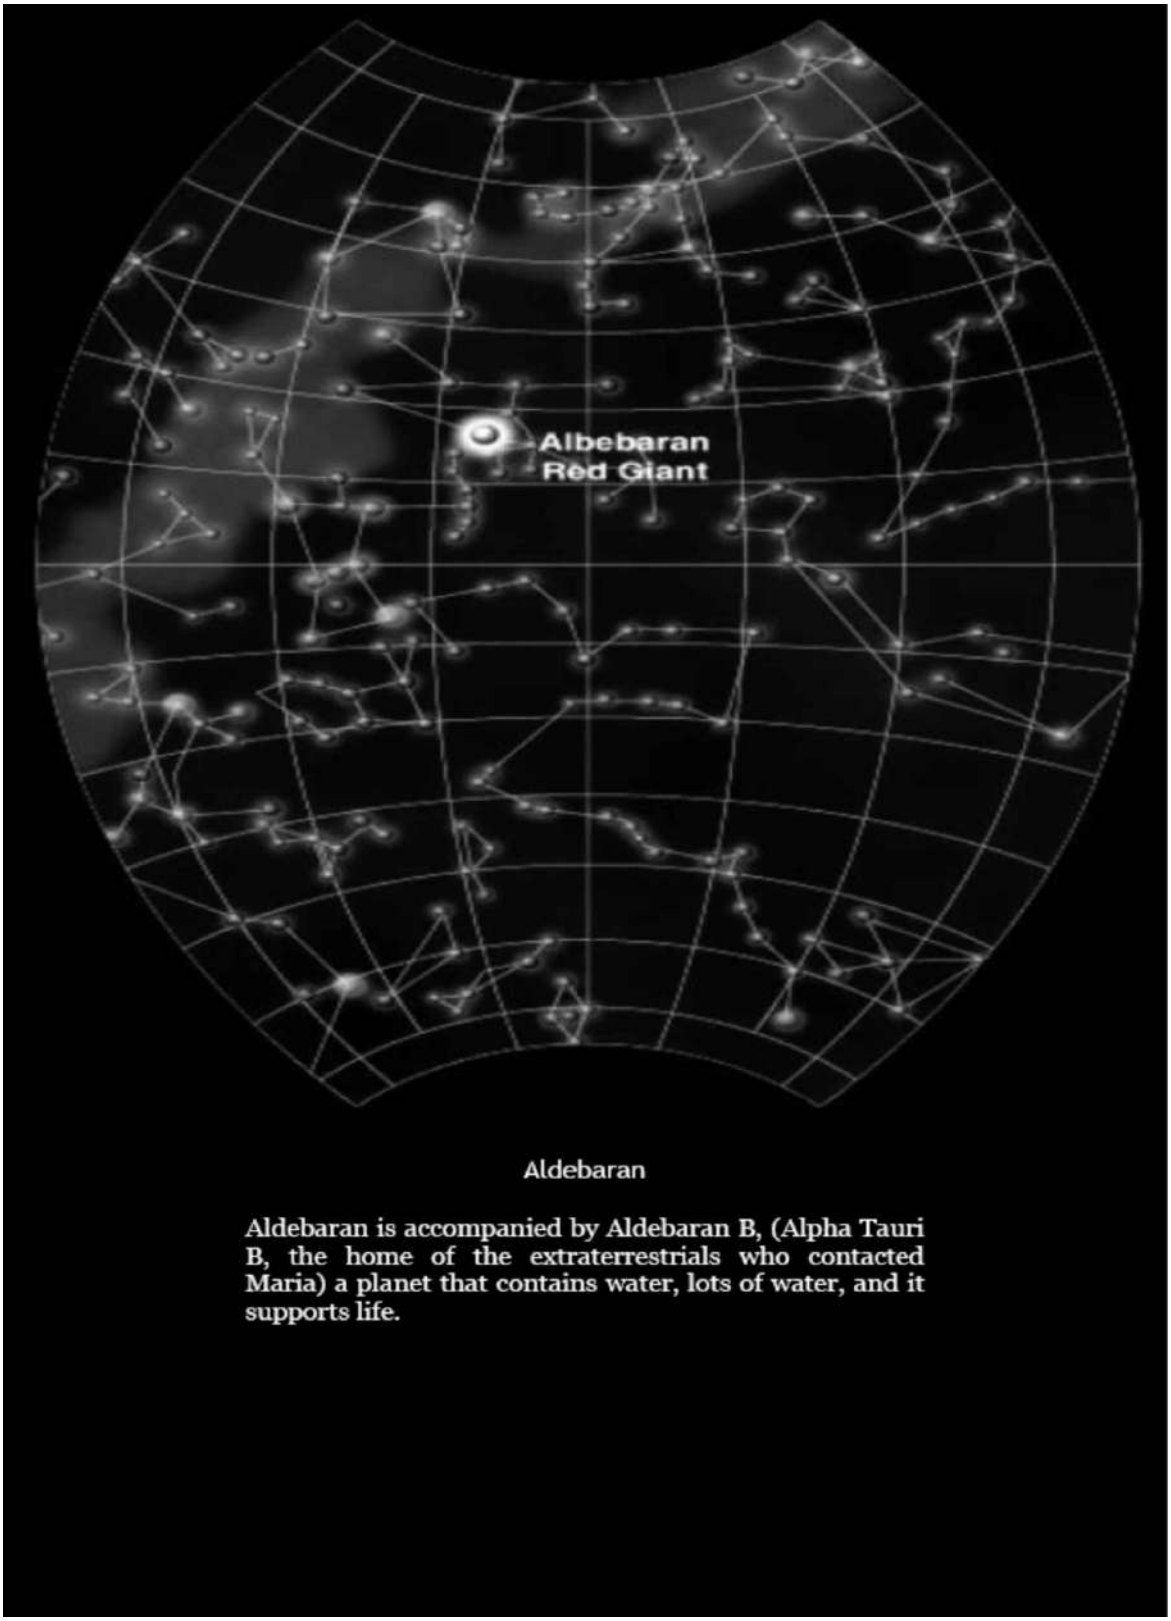
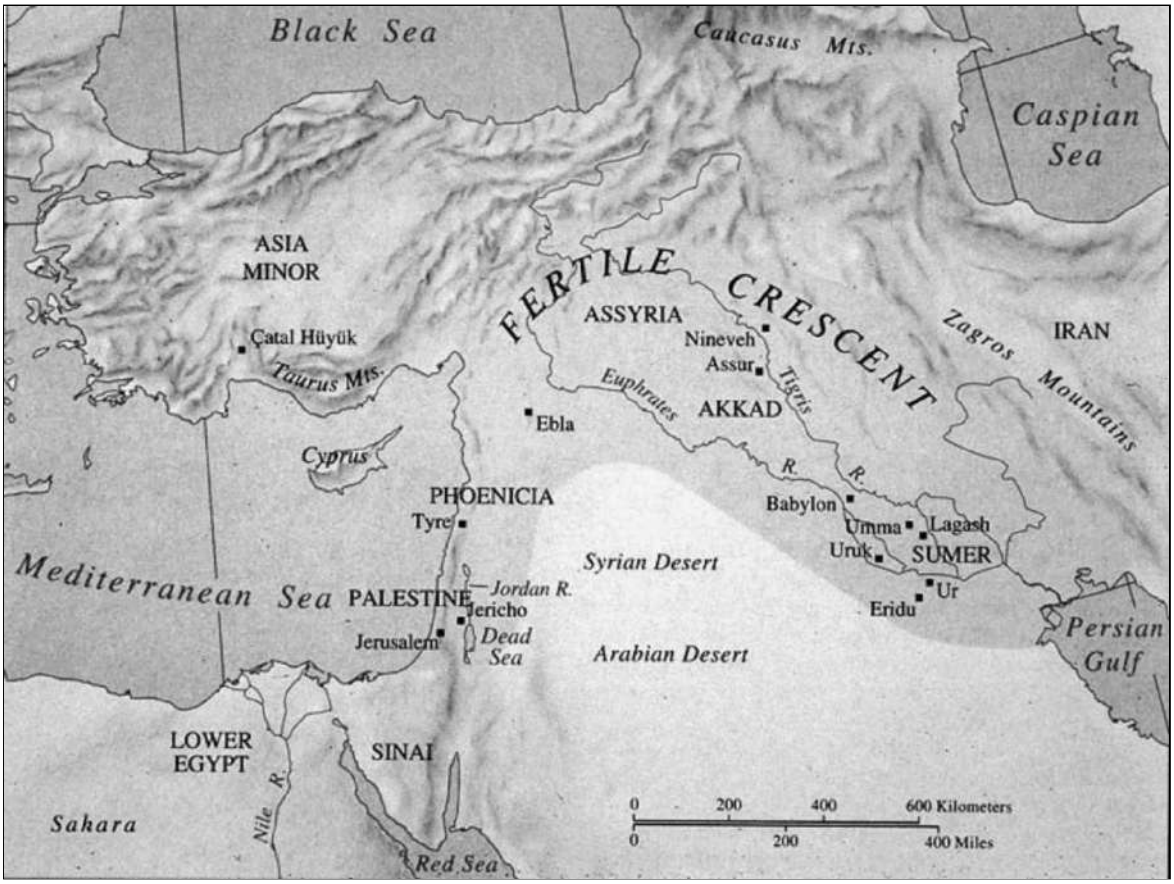
Astrological location of Aldebaran.

Aldebaran, from the files of NASA.



Aldebaran

Aldebaran is accompanied by Aldebaran B, (Alpha Tauri B, the home of the extraterrestrials who contacted Maria) a planet that contains water, lots of water, and it supports life.



Map of Sumer, showing the location of the Anunnaki cities: Babylon, Lagash, Uruk, Ur and Eridu.

Maria Orsic's description of Aldebaran (Ashtari):

Maria Orsic' description of Aldebaran is identical to the description of Ash.Ta.Ri, given by Anunnaki Sinhar Ambar Anati to American scientists and United States government officials and which we have on record.

It is also similar to the description of other inhabitable planets in the Aldebaran constellation and other constellations given by the female alien Riyah to American generals, linguists and scientists in 1947.

The three extraterrestrials' descriptions can be compared in the "1947-1948 Aliens Transcripts", "Mouzakarat Sinhar Marduk", "Book of Ramadosh", and "Kitabu Ilmu Al Donia".
Days' calendar and moons around the inhabitable planets in Aldebaran: A day consists of forty-eight hours.
The sun rises around four o'clock in the morning, and the sunrise takes about two hours and twenty five minutes; the colors in the sky at that time are spectacular.

The sun shines for eighteen hours in the summer and for twelve hours in the winter; there are only two seasons on their planets.
The sun then takes two hours for sunsets. Ash.Ta.Ri (The planet of the Anunnaki) has four moons. All moons rise harmoniously one after the other, and line up in four different directions. The home-planet of the Aldebaran's extraterrestrials has two moons and two planets rotating around it.
The moons of each planet stay for about ten hours. And when they fade away, they follow the same pattern, one after the other in the same synchronized manner.
Atmosphere and energy:
a-No pollution.
b-No smokes from factories.
c-No oil fuels.
d-Pure electromagnetic energy is used exclusively.

The term "electromagnetic" is not totally correct. But this is as close as we get to understand its properties.
Their energy consists of a blend of spatial neuro-plasma and subatomic molecules. And even these wordings are not correct because on planet earth, blending or fusing these elements and substances together contradict mainstream science.
Waters, lands and lakes: There are plenty of canals, and so much water on their planet; about fifty/fifty to the land, the ratio is, but they have some wonderful lakes underground which are as blue as a sapphire.

Adjacent planets and other extraterrestrials:

Inhabitants of adjacent planets vary sharply from one civilization to another, but all are highly advanced, and have one thing in common, which is very characteristic of their climate: An anti-pollution shield that protects their atmosphere. On Earth, it is the Ozone.
In the Aldebaran's solar system, there are two small planets that support life, and are inhabited by people who resemble us. They have evolved very slowly, and are considered by other galactic civilizations to be inferior, "even savages", because they eat meat and fight.
At the far edge of their solar system there are four planets which are totally different from their habitat, because none has an atmosphere. They are cold, and sterile.
And their inhabitants don't look like us physically; in fact their appearance will scare the hell out of us, because some look like machines, while others like huge insects and reptilians.

Other civilizations are aware of their existence, but they avoid them because they are hostile and very aggressive; they belong to the forces of darkness. Maria Orsic like Sinhar Anati talked about the Lyran system which consisted of 9 planets and 13 moons. The Lyrans, Aldebarans and Anunnaki are on very good terms.
The Aldebaran's extraterrestrials are the offspring of a higher race (The Anunnaki) which visited Earth hundreds of thousands of years ago, and created the earliest civilizations on Earth. Some lived on Earth for thousands of years but eventually returned back to Aldebaran. Others got stuck on Earth and could not make it home. Consequently they lost their extraterrestrial genes, and began to look like humans, gradually.
Yet, they were very advanced and created wonders on Earth.

Some were killed by the Great Deluge, and those who survived, returned after a while to:

- Mount Hermon (Jabal Haramoun)
- Baalbeck
- Lake Van
- Urartu

- Dilmun (Ancient Bahrain)
- Hadramout (Yemen)
- Anatolia
- Mesopotamia
- Himalaya mountains
- Tibet
- Scandinavia
- And to scattered islands in the Mediterranean.

All are considered to be Aryans, even though the Anunnaki have black eyes and black hair, with the exception of the higher cast of the Anunnaki which has light black hair and blue eyes.

Effects on humans upon arrival to Aldebaran-Ashtari.

Maria Orsic's dream was to visit the extraterrestrials of Aldebaran. And she asked them lots of questions about their habitats, lifestyle and whether she could live there with her Ladies of Vril. Here is a synopsis of what we already know about the physiological, psychological and emotional effects on humans upon arrival to Aldebaran-Ashtari.

Upon Arrival:
When a human being arrives to Ashtari-Aldebaran for the first time, he or she experiences new physiological, emotional and psychological effects, as well as psychosomatic reactions. The extraterrestrials told Maria (Similar account by Anunnaki Sinhar Anati) that the very first thing she will see when she steps out of the spaceship could be described as a quantum jump into a world which looks like a sand storm on a completely gray planet.

At the very beginning, said the extraterrestrials to Maria, you will feel horrible and becomes dizzy. It is the atmosphere of our planet that causes this. You need three days to adjust.

The following is an excerpt from Anunnaki Sinhar Anati which perfectly illustrates the situation, Maria will be in, the moment she enters the world of her extraterrestrial friends:
The first thing the Aldebaran-Anunnaki extraterrestrials will do, is to take you to a bright room. A gentle person will show you the way to a bedroom.
This person exchanges a few words with you and directs you to a very comfortable bed. And you will appreciate that, because by then you will be extremely tired, and you will sleep instantly. The next day you will wake up, and the treatment of your sight begins. A person dressed in lilac will show you to a room with a basin filled with aquamarine-tinted fluid.
This person will ask you to go in, relax, and think only about colors, nothing else, preferably about one specific color, and this person would come back in an hour or so. The bathtub makes you feel good. The bathtub is perfumed with some floral scent you will not recognize, but you will like a lot.
For a while nothing happens, but after a few minutes, all of a sudden a stream of lavender light fills the basin and then lifts up and surrounds you like a beautiful web. At the same moment, and to your surprise, if on earth you had any muscular or joint pain, it will totally disappear. All these are part of adjusting your vision; they (Extraterrestrials) must cure all the weaknesses of the human body, genes, and all the possible diseases and sicknesses that you might have in the future, in order to readjust your sight.

On the second day, the same person (An extraterrestrial) leads you through a connecting corridor to a surgical room in another building. You will be introduced to a nurse, or a physician, who will ask you to lie down on a table. A machine comes from the ceiling, shining a laser-like beam.
The machine scans your brain, and the nurse will ask you to look at the screen on your right side to see how the cells in your brain would create new visual faculties. This is absolutely amazing.
You could actually see how your brain works. The nurse explains to you that many cells, millions of particles of your brains, were never used by you and now many of them would become yours to use. After a short time, the nurse puts a soft but firm bandage around your eyes and a metallic band or a belt around your forehead.

The band or the belt readjusts the level of energy and reactivates part of your brain's cells. The band or the belt also develops a telepathic power in due time.
At a later day, you will be able to communicate telepathically with us. Pictures start to flow into your head and you don't know where they come from. Some are the faces of other beings you have never met in your life.
It is a very strange feeling.
You see faces and other things, but you do not hear sounds or voices. And everything happens calmly without any mental or physical effort.
When the treatment is over, your vision becomes perfect. And soon, you could go out and see the planet for the first time. Outside, the air is pure, and the sky is full of rainbows of colors. You have never seen such colors in your entire life, because these colors do not exist on earth. Some of the colors of the sky blend with the colors of the landscape, giving you the feeling that the ground is united with the sky. Then, you realize that something very strange is happening to you; your vision is no longer limited to straight lines.
Now, you can see, magically, to the left and to the right, like a surrounding vision. And you start to see more and more things; absolutely stunning buildings glimmered under the brilliant sky, trees, bushes, and flowers everywhere and beautifully dressed, smiling people walking in the streets. How different from what you saw first, a gray planet with swirling sand in its atmosphere!

Immediate impression and reactions:
Those who landed on the Aldebaran-Ashtari constellation for the first time experienced something very unique; an optical problem, a psycho-somatic vision/sight anomaly, more precisely, the inability of seeing. Temporarily they become totally blind. This phenomenon and how to regain sight was described by Sinhar Ambar Anati.

Note: Anati is describing what happened to her upon her arrival to Ashtari and she is talking to her Anunnaki relatives.
In her own words:

“Why can’t I see anything outside?
It’s the atmosphere. There is no pollution, no smoke, no oil fuels, since pure electromagnetic energy is all the Anunnaki use. It is so bright, so clear, that it creates a strange effect on the human retina, which is accustomed to different conditions…
When I woke up, my treatment began. Miriam (An Anunnaki female) took me to a little room where she showed me a basin filled with aquamarine-tinted fluid.

She asked me to go in, relax, and think only about colors, nothing else, preferably about one specific color. She would come back in an hour or so, she said, and the water will stay warm as long as I was in.
I climbed into the bath which felt wonderful and was fragrant with some floral scent I did not recognize. I closed my eyes and thought about the color lavender, beautiful, gentle soft kind of lavender.
For a while nothing happened, but after a few minutes, all of a sudden a stream of lavender light filled the basin and then lifted and surrounded me like a beautiful web. To my surprise, at the same moment, a joint pain I developed on earth disappeared. It was in my ankle, which I have hurt a year ago while running, and it did not heel properly, giving me occasional pain.

I twisted it when I left the spaceship and stumbled, and it hurt when I woke up from my nap. Now it was perfectly well. Later they explained that as they adjust the vision, they must cure all the weaknesses of the human body, my genes, and all the possible disease and sicknesses that I might have in the future. Even at my young age I could feel the difference between the human condition and perfect health. On the second day, Miriam led me through a connecting corridor to a surgical room in another building.

They have these corridors, connecting houses and buildings to each other, and they never lock any doors.
Such a trusting, simple lifestyle, such a pleasure.
She introduced me to a nurse, or physician, who asked me to lie down on a table.
I did, and a machine came from the ceiling, shining a laser-like beam. Apparently, they scanned my brain, and the nurse told me to look at the screen on my right side and see how the cells in my brain would create new visual faculties.
This was utterly amazing. I could actually see how the human brain worked! The nurse explained that many cells, millions of particles of the brains, are never used by humans, and now many of them would become mine to use. After a short time, the nurse put a bandage around my eyes and a metallic band around my forehead.

This was needed for readjusting the energy and reactivating part of the cells. They told me that this will not only adjust my vision, but will develop a telepathic power in due time.
Indeed, to my great delight and astonishment, at a later day I was able to communicate telepathically with the Anunnaki, at will. When the treatment was completed, my vision was perfect, and Miriam told me that I could go out and see their world for the first time.”

Maria Orsic explains the world of extraterrestrials.

Ethics and family: Aldebaran and Ashtari extraterrestrials live in a world our human logic and mind can’t understand. Although they (The extraterrestrials) do not practice any religion, their sense and understanding of ethics, justice, good and evil deeds, and merits are well developed.

They see the universe, the development of the mind and a person's character quite differently from the way we do.
They take into a great consideration the consequences of an act, even a miniscule thought. They don't have courts of law, trials, tribunals, prosecutors, judges, lawyers and corporal punishment, but they have established rules that govern behavior, merits, deeds, and social justice.
"Their families, parents, children, relatives, and members of their communities are guided by social ethics and a moral law, far superior to our laws and religions…they have families like us…they feel like us…they work together in a perfect harmony, using a collective awareness shared by all…" said Maria.
(Note: This is exactly what Sinhar Anati said, and which I have published in one of my books on the Anunnaki.)

Worth mentioning here what Anunnaki Ulema Najani said on the subject: "The Anunnaki have families, fathers, mothers, and children too, and they follow familial hierarchy, and family morality rules as we do here on Earth…"
Anunnaki Ulema Albard said, "Unlike other extraterrestrial races and species that are not built around family structure and parental bonds, the Anunnaki live within their own families perimeter, and show feelings and emotional reactions as we do…"
He added, "The head of a living unit or a family is the father. However, the family is always placed under the direct guidance of a mother. Anunnaki society is matriarchal."

Extraterrestrial Karma, body's cells and mind:

The word "Karma" does not exist in their vocabulary, for they don't have the concept of reincarnation. Even though, physical death does not exist in their world, as we understand death on earth, all reach a point when and where the last cell of energy in their bodies ceases to function, thus resulting in the deterioration of their cells.

“After the deterioration of their cells…after they have lived for hundreds of thousands of years, their physical body that they were currently using fades away, but their mind recreates itself as a new copy of the physical body, because, each one of them has a multitude of copies of their body. They can activate and reactivate the last fully functional and healthy cell of the Vril (In this context, by Vril, Maria meant the quasi-eternal cosmic energy of the self, including the universe), and reproduce it in a large quantity, and activate each newly created cell separately, thus recreating multiple copies of themselves, and restoring them in a reversed eternal time storage.
On Aldebaran, I will never age, and my mind will grow healthier and wiser…” said Maria.

Aldebaran’s Depot of Cosmic Knowledge:
Akashic library:

Learning from the Adelbaran’s Extraterrestrials and Anunnaki:
“I am not afraid to go to Aldebaran, Jamara (Name of a planet rotating in their constellation) and Nimra (Another planet), for they (Extraterrestrials) told me that everything is going to be fine. Heike was concerned because we don’t know their language and their habits. But they told me once we are there, they will re-construct our minds and bodies, and we will never suffer again or get sick. Their world is peaceful and beautiful. They will teach me many new things and I will learn about the greatest secrets in the universe…I will have access to their universal libraries which contains the Akashic records of the universe.

I found Maria’s statements mind-bending, because they mirror what exactly the Enlightened Anunnaki Ulema told us centuries ago. The Honorable Masters explained to us that the Anunnaki and Aldebaran Akashic Library is not a library in the traditional sense, because it contains no physical books on shelves.

Each one of them (Extraterrestrials) has access to the global Akashic Records through the Akashic libraries, which are located in every community.

One enters through a huge door that is never closed, day and night. It opens into a huge hall, seven hundred to one thousand meters in length, by five hundred meters in width.
The hall is empty of any furniture, and is lit by windows that are placed very high, near the ceiling. The windows were designed in such a way that the shafts of light that enter through them are very sharply delineated and look like solid beams of light. At night, the same effect is achieved by enormous spot lights placed near the windows.

The effect is incredibly effective. Extremely large billboards hang on each wall. On the floor in front of each billboard are hundreds of pads. When visitors enter the library, they approach the billboard, stand each on a pad, and think about their destination within the building.
The pad has the capacity to read minds, and as soon as it does so, it begins to move, and it slides right through the billboard, which is not really solid but is made of a form of energy, carrying the visitor with it.

Behind the billboard is the main hall of the Akashic Library, called Mad-Khal. The visitors find themselves in the presence of an immense screen, composed of a material not found on Earth. The screen is hard to describe; it can be compared to a grid, with a multitude of matrices and vortices of data.
The screen is contacted through the Conduit which is located in the brain’s cells. The screen can read minds, and it knows right away what information the visitors seek. All what the visitors have to do is stand still in front of the screen, and the data will be displayed in sequences. Of course, the data is not represented by lines, sentences, or paragraphs, but rather by codes.

Each code contains particular information related to an aspect of the subject. For example, if you would like to visit Iraq, 2,000 A.D., Iraq 300 B.C., or Iraq 2,008 B.C., all you have to do is to focus on these dates, and three codes will appear on the screen waiting for your command to open them up.
From this moment on, the Conduit located in your brain and the Screen are communicating in the most direct fashion. The three files (The nearest description of these files would be to call them digital, for the lack of the proper word) will open up. Each one will contain everything that had happened pertaining to that particular date in Iraq.

The Conduit will sort out, classify, and index the particular data for the part of the information the visitor is most interested in.
Then, the information will be stored automatically in the cells of the visitor's brain, increasing the size of the depot of knowledge in the brain.
And because Anunnaki are connected to each other and to their community via the Conduit, the data recently absorbed is sent to other Anunnaki to share it, which is extremely beneficial, since if the data received from the screen is difficult to understand, the Anunnaki community called Jama, or an individual Anunnaki, will send, also automatically, the explanation needed.
This is quite similar to an online technical support on earth, but it is much more efficient since it functions brain-to-brain. Each Anunnaki community have the same kind of center for these mirrors of knowledge which are the Akashic files.
The complexity of the centers though, is not the same.

Some of the Akashic Libraries include more perplexing and complicated instruments and tools, which are not readily available to other communities.
These tools include the monitor, which is also called mirror or Miraya in Ana'kh. Each Miraya is under the direct control of a Sinhar (A leader), who serves as custodian and guardian.
It is very important to protect the privacy of every member of the community, because individuals could attempt to tap into the data of the Miraya and have access to the codes of the telepathic communication of others, thus enabling them to read the mind of all the community members, something that is considered highly unethical and absolutely must be avoided.

The screens, by the way, can expand according to the number of codes that the researcher is using. Seven to ten codes are normal. If more codes than that are opened, the screen is fragmented into seven different screens, which are only visible to the mind. An amazing phenomenon occurs at this moment; time and space mingle together and become unified into one great continuum. This enables the researcher to grasp all the information in a fraction of a second.
An added convenient aspect of the Akashic files is the ability of the researcher to access them in the complete privacy of the researcher's home or office, since part the files can be teleported there. But since the private screen is not as complicated as the central one in the Central Library, no multiple screen will open up, only the original one. It is important to understand that the data received is not merely visual. There is much more to it than that.
By the right side of the screen, there are metallic compartments as thin as parchment paper, which serve as a cosmic audio antennae, called Min-Zar. These compartments search for, and bring back, any sound that occurred in history, in any era, and on any planet. And this is just a minor part of it, because it brings additional sounds from other dimensions, and para-galactic civilizations (Terrestrials and extraterrestrials).
According to the extraterrestrials, every single sound or voice is never lost in the universe. The voice is never lost, because it is energy and it stays in the perimeter of its sphere, call it for now, atmosphere, space, etc. The Anunnaki combined asset of the visual and audio systems provided by the screen, gives anybody the ability to learn languages afforded by the Akashic Library.
This applies to any language – past, present or future, and from any part of the universe.

The researcher can call up a shining globe of light that will swirl on the screen with enormous speed. As it rotates, the effect blends with an audio transmission that comes from the metallic compartments.

In an instant, any language will sink into the brain’s cells. On the left side of the screen, there are conic compartments that bring still images of certain important past events. This mini-screen-display informs the researcher that these particular events cannot be altered.
In other words, the Anunnaki cannot go back in the past and change it. The Anunnaki are forbidden to change or alter the events, or even just parts or segments of past events represented on the conic compartment, because these images represent events created by the Anunnaki themselves.
This restriction works as a security device, an essential one.
For example, a young Anunnaki cannot visit planet Earth sixty five thousand years ago, enter the genetic lab of the Anunnaki in Sumer or Phoenicia, and change the DNA and the genetic formula originally used by Sinhar Enki, or Sinhar Anu, to create the human race, or the seven prototypes of the human race created by Sinhar Inanna.

Sinhar Inanna herself can go back and change it, but not for use on earth as we know it. She has to transpose it and transport it to another dimension, parallel to the original dimension where the event occurred. This safeguard means that Sinhar Inanna cannot recreate a new race on our earth by sending us, the current living humans, sixty five thousand years ago back in time, remoulding us, and then bringing us back to the twenty first century as new specie, or a new race.
This would be unethical. All she could do would be to recreate her own experiment in another dimension. For instance, Inanna can go back 2,000 years in time and space, reconstruct the DNA of Jesus Christ and create a new Jesus.
But the new Jesus will not exist on the map of year 1, or return to Bethlehem to be re-born again. He will be transported as a grown man to another dimension not very much different from the Palestine Jesus knew.

Before the extraterrestrials' screen in the hall of the Akashic Records, more options are available for research, and one of them is a sort of browsing. Inside the screen, there is a slit where the mind of the extraterrestrial can enter as a beam.
This will open the "Ba'abs", or Stargates, to other worlds that the researcher is not even aware of, but appeared randomly as part of the discovery or exploration.
In each slit there is another Akashic file that belongs to other universes, worlds, dimensions, and civilizations, sometimes more advanced than the Aldebaran's people and Anunnaki themselves, where the researcher can either retrieve important information, and/or witness the creation of the future.
It is like going back in the future, because everything that exists in the present, or shall occur in the future, has already occurred in a distant past and needed time to surface and appear before the eyes of the extraterrestrials.
The term Akashic is herewith used because many of us are familiar with what it means and represents, and to a certain extent refers to the contents of historical events and thoughts recorded in "human history."
In the Aldebaran-Anunnaki context, it is the record of cosmic events that occurred in multiple galaxies. The reason it is called the Akashic/Cosmic Library is because it has equipment that allows the researcher to connect to the Akashic/Cosmic Records; the vast compendium of knowledge encoded in a non-physical plane of existence, in a substance that is called Akasha.
In Ana' kh, it is called Ab.Har, or simply Har.

Impregnation operation in Ashtari "Aldebaran":
Known as "An-Ista-Khan-na-reh" in Ana'kh.
The female Anunnaki goes into a very nice hospital-like place. Anunnaki physicians will help her to lie down on a table, much like one of the examination tables in any doctor's office on earth. The attending physicians will be all females, very gentle and extremely skilled. Using a special machine, they will beam a light right through the woman's body; the light will search for her ovaries. Nothing will probe, or hurt, or even annoy the body.

Once the light reaches the ovaries, it will activate one of the eggs, fertilize it, and have it move very smoothly into the uterus. The woman then becomes pregnant, and the fetus will begin to grow.
Anunnaki women have the egg removed by the light, placed in a special tube, and grow the baby in a machine. They don’t have birth in the same sense humans do, but take the baby home after he or she is ready in the advanced incubator.

This impregnation operation is called “An-Ista-Khan-na-reh”.
It is composed from the following words:
1-An’h=Creation; first; celestial.
2-Ista or Ishtah=Child; baby; first born.
3-Khan=hospital; operating room.
4-Na=Source; first breath; first nourishment.
5-Reh or Rah=Delivery; reception; relief.
